

LIEUTENANT NIELSEN IN TRIM TO FLY

Recovers From Injuries Sustained When Plane Went Down in Nose Spin on Ak-Sar-Ben Field.

With his face somewhat marred, but his eye undimmed and his smile unextinguished, Lt. A. J. Nielsen was in Council Bluffs yesterday receiving congratulations of his friends upon the airplane flight from Waterloo and his escape from more serious injury at the unfortunate landing on Ak-Sar-Ben field in Omaha.

Lieutenant Nielsen said that the accident was not due to any fault of the machine or defect in the machinery. Cows on the landing field were the chief contributing causes, but the real cause was that he had reached the point of complete physical exhaustion and became unconscious at the moment of landing.

Lieutenant Nielsen says the plane will be repaired and the accident will not in any degree interfere with the chautauque program, beginning June 10 and lasting until September, calling for more than 70 flights from one chautauque assembly to another and an hour's lecture at each.

GOVERNMENT OF U. S. ATTACKED BY MRS. BLOOR

Political Prisoners Treated Worse Here Than in Russia, New York Socialist Leader Charges.

The American government, as a democratic institution, was bitterly denounced last night before socialists and socialist sympathizers at the Metropolitan hall, by Mrs. Ella Reeve Bloor, international organizer for the socialist party and once a candidate for lieutenant governor of New York.

Treatment of political prisoners in this country was denounced as "far more brutal than under the Czar's regime in Russia." President Wilson's act in sending American troops to aid the anti-bolshevik forces in Russia was characterized as "nothing more than deliberate and illegal murder of American boys in the wilds of Siberia."

Protests Political Sentences. In speaking of sentences imposed upon political prisoners by the authority granted the government under the espionage law, Mrs. Bloor said: "I protest as an American against acts as bad as those committed under any Prussian system in any country in the world."

As the woman continued speaking, growing more vehement with each recital of what she called wrongs committed against her "brothers," as she characterized imprisoned radicals, she stamped her foot and at the sight of two men attempting to leave the room, cried: "Stay. If you are secret service men, stay and listen to the wrongs perpetrated against your class. We must stand shoulder to shoulder to fight the master class."

She branded the report of the nationalization of women in Russia by the soviets as a "dastardly lie." Mrs. Bloor promised to come again to this city in the near future if members of the local party would arrange for an outdoor mass meeting.

"Then," she said, "we will see whether or not the right of free speech and peaceable assembly is a reality in the city."

Negro Pleads Guilty Henry Dennis, negro, pleaded guilty to attempted criminal assault in police court yesterday morning and was bound over to district court on $2,000 bonds. He attacked a white girl a few days ago.
