War Camp Community

Through the courtesy of the National League of Woman Service the Army and Navy club was made a rose garden this week when they sent hundreds of roses and carnations. This organization has sent flowers during all the past months and they are much appreciated by the men visiting the club as well as the people in charge of the club. Mr. E. C. Thomas, new assistant executive of the War Camp Community Service, met with the Scout Masters at their regular meeting this week and an informal discussion of the plans for the meetings of the 5th and 6th of June was held. Harry Murrison of the war camp was asked to lead the scout masters' sing on the 5th and a big mass meeting of all the scouts in the city on the court house grounds on the 6th of June in the evening. Other plans for co-operation with the scouts were discussed. The Sun theater gave 89 "boys" passing through Omaha a free show. The men expressed their appreciation and thanks for the good time shown them while they were in Omaha.

The Happy Hollow club granted the permission for the use of their club to the War Camp Community Service for a dance on Monday evening when 75 returning men were expected to stop over in the city. Mr. W. L. Hall and Miss Bernice McCoy and Mrs. Montague have returned from Kansas City, where they attended a district meeting of the Community Organizers and Girls' Workers.

Her Mother's Wedding Gift Was Jewelry

Today it is not unusual for our brides to follow many of the same plans for their weddings as mother had them years ago.

It is quite the thing to wear the same lace that mother wore, and so with many other beautiful little details.

Mother's wedding gifts were Jewelry—necklaces, cameos, waist pin sets, etc., as well as Silverware for her table.

Today, when the bride is copying so from Mother's wedding—and each detail enriches the occasion, and bring beautiful thoughts of love—Let us suggest that you, too, add to her picture and Give Gifts of JEWELRY on this her Wedding Day.
