HONORS COME TO SGT. BROADWELL

Omaha Boy, After Close of War, Selected to Attend University in City of Beaune.

An Omaha boy who may claim an unusual "after-the-war" experience, overseas, is Sgt. Crosby M. Broadwell, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. attending the A., E. F. university, creased business. Beaune, France.

After the signing of the armistice Sergeant Broadwell's application or the university course was acepted. He was the only one from is regiment who was received. In this university the most proficient rofessors in the country offer varius courses to the boys awaiting transportation. Broadwell chose a short business course.

Sergeant Broadwell was a mechanic m the air service and for a time was inspector of aeroplanes in the first Elmwood park today, where, bespected for the last time before their flight to the front. He was ecommended for an instructor in automobile mechanics at the university, but was anxious to continue his studies.

Sergeant Broadwell does not ex-
