

DEMOCRATS ASK VOTERS TO STAND BY PRESIDENT

National Committee Passes Resolutions Approving Wilson's Conduct, and Deploring Republicans' Action.

Chicago, May 29.—Members of the democratic national committee closed a two-day session tonight by adopting a declaration offered by P. H. Quinn, national committeeman from Rhode Island, reviewing the achievements of President Wilson and the democratic congresses and urging the support of all independent and progressive voters in the 1920 campaign to perpetuate these policies.

The committee also adopted a resolution calling on the legislatures of the various states to hold special sessions, if necessary, to ratify the woman's suffrage constitutional amendment when it has been passed by congress so as to enable voters to vote at the presidential election in 1920.

E. D. Titman, a member of the state committee of New Mexico, read a resolution demanding the repeal of the federal espionage law and opposing all legislation restricting free speech, a free press and the right of free assembly and protesting against a large standing army and compulsory military training. He asked for the immediate adoption of the resolution, but there were objections and it was referred to a committee, which later announced it would not report on the resolution until the national committee meets next January.

W. W. Durbin of Ohio declared that his state would remain in the democratic column in 1920. Frederick VanNuy of Indiana made a vigorous attack on the political methods of Will H. Hays, chairman of the republican national committee, and said Hays was a "standpat republican at heart, although he had succeeded in convincing many members of the progressive party otherwise."

D. S. Ewing, speaking for California, said that state would give its electoral vote to the democratic presidential candidate in 1920. He condemned the non-partisan election laws of the state and declared progressive leaders were responsible for their passage.

To Raise Funds.

Funds for conducting the democratic national campaign in 1920 will be raised by popular subscription and it is expected that contributions will be received from 1,500,000 persons. Wilbur W. Marsh, of Iowa, treasurer of the democratic national committee, made this statement today in addressing the heads of the subject of party finances. Mr. Marsh reviewed the financial features of democratic presidential campaigns from Samuel J. Tilden to Woodrow Wilson, and contrasted the methods used in raising money for political purposes in the old days and the present time.

Methods of practical political work, closer co-operation between the various departments of the party organization, and financing of campaigns in woman's work in politics were the subjects considered at today's sessions of the committee.

Divorce Courts

Alois Blazer alleges in a petition for divorce filed in district court that his wife, Hilda, threatened to kill him. They were married in 1912 in Kimball, S. D.

Although her husband earns a "large salary, $24 per week," Rosina Bussey says he has not supported her. She filed suit for divorce in district court from Gerald Bussey. She says he struck her, nagged her and called her vile names. She asks for the custody of their three children and for alimony.

THIN PEOPLE SHOULD TAKE PHOSPHATE

Nothing Like Plain Bitro-Phosphate to Put on Firm, Healthy Flesh and to Increase Strength, Vigor and Nerve Force.

Judging from the countless preparations and treatments which are continually being advertised for the purpose of making thin people fleshy, developing arms, neck and bust, and reducing ugly hollows and angles by the softening of the face of health and beauty, the fact is evident that thousands of men and women who feel their weakness and thinness are actually due to starved nerves. Our bodies need more phosphate than is contained in modern foods. Physicians claim there is nothing that will supply this deficiency so well as the organic phosphate known as bitro-phosphate, which is inexpensive and is sold by Sherman & McCannell in Omaha and most all drug stores under a guarantee of satisfaction money back. By feeding the nerves directly and by supplying the body cells with the necessary phosphoric food elements, bitro-phosphate quickly produces a welcome transformation in the appearance, the increase in weight frequently being astonishing.

This increase in weight also carries with it a general improvement in the health. Nervousness, sleeplessness and lack of energy, which nearly always accompany excessive thinness, soon disappear, dull eyes become bright, and pale cheeks glow with the bloom of perfect health. Miss Georgia Hamilton, who was once thin and frail, reporting her own experience, writes: "Bitro-Phosphate has brought about a magic transformation with me. I gained 15 pounds and never before felt so well."

CAUTION:—Although bitro-phosphate is unsurpassed for relieving nervousness, sleeplessness and general weakness, it should not, owing to its remarkable flesh-growing properties, be used by anyone who does not desire to put on flesh—Add.

Competition Is Close in the Rialto Baby Contest

Ray Irwin Baker, Donald James Rose, "Billy" Nowes

Honors were so nearly even in the boys' baby contest at the Rialto theater Wednesday that Manager H. M. Thomas was obliged to concede that neither he nor the audience could determine the most attractive baby and that both should be awarded a prize. Ray Irwin Baker, son of Mrs. E. M. Baker, 1823 Wirt street, and Donald James Rose, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter H. Rose, 1615 Pinkney, were the two prize winners. In the girls' contest first prize was taken by "Billy" Nowes, baby and that both should be awarded a prize.

Woman Sues Relatives of Ex-Husband for $25,000

Mrs. Olive Kubjensky, Who Shot Herself Following Domestic Troubles, Asks Big Damages From Sister, Brother and Uncle of Former Husband.

Twenty-five thousand dollars damages is asked by Mrs. Olive Kubjensky from relatives of her former husband, Maurice Kubjensky, in a suit filed yesterday in district court alleging that these relatives conspired to alienate his affections.

Mrs. Kubjensky shot and severely wounded herself at the auditorium in Council Bluffs May 20, during an altercation which was an outgrowth of the long domestic struggle which she details in her petition for damages.

The defendants named in her suit are Ida Kubjensky, alias Ida Kubby, sister of Maurice Kubjensky; Harry Kubjensky, alias Harry Kubby, brother of Maurice Kubjensky, and John Doe, an uncle of Maurice Kubjensky.

The domestic troubles were caused, she alleges, by the fact that Maurice Kubjensky is a Jew and she is a gentile.

Conspiracy Is Charged.

She relates that they were married May 9, 1917, in Detroit, Mich., and lived happily until the brother, sister and uncle of her husband conspired to alienate his affections. She says that at his mother's funeral they finally persuaded him to desert her and that they threatened to contest his inheritance if he failed to do so.

She says he left her, but that she then secured a lawyer and proceeded to file suit for damages. To stop this proceeding, she says, they sent him back to live with her. He tore up her damage suit and again they were happy.

She got exemption for him in the selective draft, she says, but she alleges his relatives named, persuaded him to waive the exemption. When he entered the service, she says, he arranged for her to live near the camp where he was stationed.

She alleges that Ida Kubjensky continued to work to alienate her husband, that she secured the services of a lawyer, that she once took Maurice away from her on the street and into a restaurant.

Says He Proposed Divorce. Finally, she alleges, her husband proposed that they get a divorce in order that he could get money from his mother's estate. He promised that they should then remarry. She says he dictated a letter for her to write to an acquaintance of his as grounds on which to base the divorce proceedings. She then went to stay with her mother in Missouri Valley, Ia. He wrote that he would be true to her although divorced. She went later to New Orleans to take a position which she had had as cashier in a hotel.

Later he wrote to her, she alleges, to come to Detroit and live with her as man and wife and later moved to Missouri Valley where they lived as man and wife until a copy of the decree of divorce was received.

He went to Omaha and left her money to come on the next day, promising, she says, that they would remarry as soon as a Jewish holiday season was past.

She says they lived here as man and wife until about April 1 when he went to live with his sister, Ida Kubjensky, 2019 California street, and became interested in a Jewish girl whom, she alleges, he is seeking to marry.

On May 20, she relates, she and her sister went to the Council Bluffs auditorium and while there she met Maurice. While she was talking to him, she says, his brother, Harry, approached them. She says he had threatened to kill her and that she feared him. She drew a revolver as he approached, she says, and it was accidentally discharged in her abdomen. Then, she says, overwhelmed by her troubles, she tried to commit suicide, inflicting a wound from which she has now recovered.

Sues Under War Act; Office Rented While He Was in Navy

Carl E. Benjamin brought an action in municipal court yesterday against Charles D. Armstrong, alleging that while he was in naval service he was dispossessed of an office in the Securities building, in violation of the provision of the soldiers' and sailors' act.

Benjamin alleges that he held an office lease and that he sublet the office for the period of his service. He further alleges that the defendant unlawfully took possession of the office.

GEO. BRANDEIS BUYS STOCK IN BRANDEIS FIRM

Half Million Added to His Insurance for Benefit of Brandeis Interests, Making $1,500,000.

When George Brandeis came from Chicago to Omaha six years ago he owned no stock in J. L. Brandeis & Sons. He became manager of the business under a contract made with Arthur D. Brandeis, then president of the company. The contract was for 10 years, and will expire January 1, 1923.

Since the death of Arthur D. Brandeis, all of the J. L. Brandeis & Sons' stock has been held by George Brandeis, E. John Brandeis and John L. Kennedy, as trustees of his estate, and by E. John Brandeis individually.

Under the management of George Brandeis, the business has grown beyond expectation, and E. John Brandeis and John L. Kennedy, as trustees and directors, have felt that his management should continue. To that end they have induced George Brandeis to purchase from E. John Brandeis a substantial interest in the business. The trustees could not sell the trust stock to one of their number, and for that reason E. John Brandeis parted with a large block of the stock which he inherited from his uncle, Emil Brandeis.

Prior to this time the life of George Brandeis was insured for $1,000,000, one-half being carried for the benefit of E. John Brandeis, and the other half for J. L. Brandeis & Sons. An additional amount of $500,000 is now being taken out for the benefit of E. John Brandeis. In case of the death of George Brandeis, this protects the business to the extent of $1,500,000.

The arrangement now made makes George Brandeis a permanent resident of Omaha, and will identify him more closely with the future of the city. He will be active along all lines for the building of a bigger and better Omaha.

More Taxpayers Sign Petition for $3,000,000 County Paving Issue

A petition endorsing the proposed $3,000,000 bond issue for paving of roads in Douglas county, up for popular vote at a special election to be held June 24, was circulated among members of the executive committee of the Chamber of Commerce Wednesday evening.

The original petition, filed May 17, stipulates that, should the bonds fail to carry, costs of the election must be borne by persons who signed the original. A hundred or more similar petitions have now been issued to boost the movement. All signers will voluntarily assume costs of the election if it fails.

John Gamble, president of the Chamber of Commerce, was the first member of the executive committee to sign.

Mrs. Bloor Assails Government for Part Taken in World War

More than 100 Omaha socialists listened to Mrs. Ella Reeve Bloor Wednesday, Twenty-first and Cumming streets, while she flayed America's course in the world war, the treatment of political prisoners in this country, and the United States government as a whole.

Newspapers were severely criticized, and pronounced "tools in the hands of capitalists," by Mrs. Bloor. She described a recent meeting at Ludlow, Colo., where her audience of men all wore red in spite of state legislation against it.

"Is there a law against wearing red here?" Mrs. Bloor shouted. "There is in New York state, where I came from, but we wear it all the same. It is a sign that we are all of the same blood. They can throw us in prison, but they can't break our spirit."

WELCOME HOME Heroes of the 89th

FRIDAY morning (Decoration Day) we shall see the boys of the victorious 89th swing by—Omaha's own khaki-clad heroes—and what a memorable Decoration Day it will be—the home-coming of our loved ones.

The day we've been dreaming about for so long—when our own boys, returning from "Over There," march up Farnam street between flying flags and applauding, singing crowds.

It's a whole-hearted welcome Omaha extends to her returning heroes—a welcome made doubly sincere by the deep sense of gratitude to her sons who offered the supreme sacrifice that the world might be made a better place to live in.

And the business world joins in the welcome to the boys, confident that they will throw their splendid energy and morals into the reconstruction of industrial life.

Home again! How glad we are! How proud we are!
