LOCALS TAKE A CLOSE ONE FROM ST. JOSEPH CREW

Only Score of the Game Is Made in First Session on Three Hits and One Error.

The Rourkes managed to step out in front of the St. Joseph outfit in the first frame, making one tally and New York this was the only counter in the Chacinati game. Jap Barbeau singled and was Brooklyn Chicago caught trying to steal second. Jack-son was out, pitcher to first. Hemmingway, the new shortfielder, was St. Louis safe on Hauk's error. Hazen and Kirby each singled and Hemmingway romped home on Kirby's single all the way from second. Gislason flied out to right field, closing the scoring for the game. This fellow Hemmingway looks like the goods. He made all his stops in clean fashion and throws to the time that is necessary. He doesn't throw hurriedly and always puts the ball right in the baseman's glove. Just once, he was a little too slow, and while the runner was raught nicely enough Umpire Ducky. caught nicely enough Umpire Ducky Philadelphia Holmes declared him safe.

The umpire wasin't popular with either side, making a number of poor decisions. It so happened that no runs were scored because of the bad work of the umpire, but it slowed the game up considerably,

The weather was ideal, but only the usual few fans were present. It begins to look as though Omahans don't want any kind of base ball here. With a club running the leaders a close race, only two games behind Des Moines, the leading club, climbing all the way from sixth place to the second round in the ladder, the fans won't get out and show their appreciation.

Pitcher Townsend threw a fine game yesterday, allowing but five safeties and one of them because of a poor umpire's decision, and these he kept well scattered, only two of them in any one inning. Two single in the third inning was the best ef fort the Josies made and the first man to hit was caught at the plate on a fielders', choice play, later.
