

Hark to that shrill, sudden shout, The cry of an applauding multitude, Swayed by some loud-voiced orator who wields The living mass as if he were its soul.—Bryant.

WOMAN'S SECTION OF THE BEE

Again the play of pain Shoots o'er his features, as the sudden gust Crisps the reluctant lake, that lay so calm Beneath the mountain shadow.—Byron.

Let's Go Shopping with Polly

A dahlia garden! Here unfurled Smiles, summer's gift to autumn's world— A tapestry by magic spun From wonder hues of sky and sun! Here purple of the jeweled night Contrasts with radiance of white—

A purity like silvered mist by haunting light of moonbeam kissed; Here tints of twilight and of morn With amethyst and rose adorn The background of the autumn sky;

Here sunset's hues of carmine lie; And subtly woven through each fold Shine heaven's varied gleams of gold. A dahlia garden in whose glow Reflects a paradise below; A tapestry by magic spun From wonder hues of sky and sun!

—A Dahlia Garden, "Skip," Sheephead Bay.

Dear Polly People: Busy as a buzzing bee I've been every minute of the day during these hurry-furry times of June brides and graduate girls. (Spouse I will be too for some time to come.) But it's a most delightful "busyness" and it's bringing me the same delicious happiness I felt when helping in the selection of your Christmas gifts—makes me feel that I'm really a party to your joyful times! So often when I'm sending out something particularly and especially lovely, I can hardly wait to hear how you like it, how "he" likes it, if it's really as much of a success as my fond hopes picture that it will be. Can you then, picture my disappointment at the non-arrival of your spicily little note? Course you're all wrapped up in your own happy affairs, but don't you ever think of Polly your shopper?

Any June Bride. WHOSE jewels did not come from the Albert Edholm Jewel Shop, Sixteenth and Harney, has I'm sure missed some of the joy she should be having. Singing for happiness seems to be, these jewel delights, gracious in their loveliness. Engagement rings, lustrous, lovely, whose stones of life-time exquisiteness breathe of the undying quality of love. Truly wonderful are the marriage rings, tiny orange blossoms cut quaintly on their circling beauty or just one lovely stone, perfectly cut, after another all the way 'round. You'll be delighted with the newest and loveliest way of making a platinum ring out of your own wedding ring of gold. Cut down, in such a way as to save the heart which contains the engraved names and dates, it's as altogether delightful as hearts could wish.

Amazingly priced at $6 is a brown velvet bag of the new horizontal bags trimmed with cross-tuckings. The lining in sunset silk has coin purse of the same silk, attached by silken cord, precluding possible loss.

Sparkling Crystals Shimmering Colors. SWEETS of varied delightfulness in wholesome array are the rich-boxed candies they've prepared expressly as gifts for the graduates of 1919, at Candyland, 1522 Farnam Street. Nothing could be lovelier as a graduating gift, nothing could bring greater joy than this infinitely suitable gift candy.

Women's Tailored Garments Designed for Every Summer Need. CHARACTERIZED by an agreeable exclusiveness, are the knicker wraps being made by L. Kneeter, tailor, 2d Floor, 506 S. 16th St. Wide sleeved coats of softest imaginable summer fabrics, gabardine, tricotine, soft serges, dainty tiered capes of trimmest tailoring. Suits of fascinating style innovations unusually captivating, tailored in the usual Kneeter manner of effective artistry.

Unusual mahogany urns of classic lines seen on a mahogany buffet disclose inserts for silver!

When a Girl's in Her Teens SHE should always have at least one organdie frock such as I've found in the Lamond Shop. Flesh in tint, it has the new long confined panelings, and is combined most saucily with plaid gingham effectively lined, in a shaped girdling, pinings on panels, and a saucy sash to tie with swinging ends.

Have you seen the new organdie shade hats? A peach tint of sheer beauty has crown pleating of striking blue. Great bow ties adorn the crown base—becoming, entrancingly so, they're but $12.50.

Of All the Places I'VE stayed since coming to Omaha the Hotel Loyol has been the most satisfyingly comfortable, said a man from Chicago to me the other afternoon during a chat relative to the difficulties in finding a pleasant place of abode if one is a young man in a strange city. "The service is so excellent—pleasing the most fastidious, the food well cooked and excitingly varied, the class of residents and transients so decidedly worth while, and last, but not least, the prices so altogether reasonable," he went on, "that I surely recommend its hospitality to everyone whether they're in Omaha for a day or a year."

Every Girl LOVES to have her room that is her own where she can gather about her her Lares and Penates and where she may slip away to read her favorite books, to write her letters or commune with her soul. What could be a lovelier graduating gift for daughter than to give her a freshly papered and decorated room? You'll find the papers and decorating suggestions offered at the Sam Newman shop, 18th and Farnam, quite the most artistic you've seen in its rare diversity of selection.

There's a Spicy Fragrance

ABOUT cedar chests fascinating in the extreme. The Brandeis Stores are showing wonder chests of genuine Tennessee cedar, beautifully made and finished, which have been fashioned in their own cabinet factories, making them a value offering par excellence, ranging from $6.98 to $24.00. The small ones at $6.98 are cunning for the training of small "feminites" in the ways of neatness in care of personal belongings. Larger chests offer every sort of clever contrivance for the convenience of storing furs and rich pretties, drawers and trays of instant service. One of the larger chests is most ornamental, as well as a useful, having arm rests at each end. You'll find these chests offerings not to be overlooked, gifts to delight the heart of brides and girl graduates.

Beautiful! OH, but it is beautiful this trunk of the Hartmann Wardrobe trunk shown in its fascinating loveliness of fittings at the shop of Freling & Steine at 18 and Farnam. A little friend of mine, a bride of a few months, staying at the hotel with her husband, has her Hartmann trunk spread open at the side of her dressing table, for dooth she, "Polly dear, I'd never think of hanging my lovely things in a hotel closet, and I'll be completely lost without my Hartmann. It's certainly the pride of my heart."

There's Never an Occasion WHICH isn't worthy of a good picture—a romp which one of the children has with the dog, the "cuteness" of tiny brother in his bathing suit, father at work at the side of the road with tools spread out around him, busy, "peeved" at a blow-out, anything and everything makes a desirable picture, and one of the happiest families I know keeps a Kodak always at hand, with most attractive pictures as a result. Mr. Kase, of the Kase Studio, 215 Neville Block, Sixteenth and Harney, has lots of such families among his customers for whom he does such fascinating finishing and printing. And you should see the enlargements made from the tiniest picture! You'll be amazed at their desirability.

Wonder if you've Heard of the Latest BEADS, vegetable ivory, they've a color rareness as delightful as it's unexpected. Just arrived at the Eldridge Importing Company, Fourth and Farnam; they're Old Blue, white striped, combined with filigree metal. Royal blue crystals with antique metal, in flowered panels twist and 'tween. Oddly lovely in cutting are the coral effects, with color of exceptional charm. Unusually captivating and of a color to combine with any costume are the amber crystals with tiny white beads between, the whole set off by carved ivory beads of wonderfully lovely cutting. Scarlet beads are strung on silk cords of heavy effectiveness. These have finish of heavy cord tassels. Beads to satisfy one's heart's desire!

When You're Hot and Tired and Thirsty AND more than a wee bit hungry, there's a cool retreat where you'll find just the chilled and delicate dainties you've been craving. The Phelps Hut, 1708 Douglas street, Athletic Club building, are making a specialty of luncheons delectably unusual. Their olive paste sandwiches, French pastries, delightfully refreshing drinks, efficiently served in cool and quiet make a whole day brighter (and cooler). You will find their specially prepared candies wholly delightful. An especially lovely gift to "speed the parting bride"—a "Phelps Special" box of candies.

Separate Skirts Are Here In Lovely Numbers.

A SELECTION that looks like a springtime garden and of the color of garden flowers adorably aluring in their dainty colors are to be seen at Herzberg's, 1517 Douglas street. Tier-banded in orchid and white Patriette is a dainty white georgette sash-ended at the side. Of Fan-tasi, that fascinating crepe fabric, is a rose orchid skirt with satin bands whose slit pockets have bi-novelty buttons. Brilliant blue, the novelty Paulette (coarse silk jersey material), which has a slit-draping buttoned to form loocheung pockets. Practical, pretty, delightfully lovely skirts of Baronet satin, pongee, crepe de chine, in bright green, grays, taupe, black and white, rose, dull and vivid colors. You'll find in this selection skirts for every occasion and need.

There's An Art In Making Your New Spring Frocks Look Their Loveliest.

WEAR the right corset! So hard to know just what is the right corset, I hear you say? To be sure, but Mrs. D. A. Hill, the corset specialist is prepared to select and fit for you the model especially adapted to your particular lines. And there's luxury in wearing a model of her fitting, the luxury of comfort and the luxury of beautiful lines. Her fittings express the perfect balance between comfort and correct appearance. She'll give you a "long-dance" fitting if you'll write for one of her order blanks and catalogs. Phone Douglas 3356 for an appointment, 205 Neville Block, 16th and Harney.

There's a new wash material, Beach, for use in the fashioning of separate skirts. One in brilliant blue and black blockings is entirely fascinating.

You'll Heave a Sigh of Relief

IF you'll run over to the Flatiron Cafe, Seventeenth and St. Mary's avenue, for luncheon some hot day. Great large airy rooms, where the breezes stir from gigantic electric fans, where the light is tempered by cunningly adjusted awnings; they're most inviting after the hot glare of the sun. Have you tried their delicious breakfasts? Rich cream, crisp golden toast with delightfully flavored butter, coffee that's "just right," crinkly bacon strips of rosy charm, iced fruits, just what you've dreamed a breakfast should be.

Piccadilly bags are quite the newest in mesh bags. Milady has but to pull a tiny chain to release a mirror which drops out to disclose a powder vanity.

The New Season Brings Desires for New Togs. NATURE dresses the trees and brings into being spring blossoms so it is natural that we human folks want pretty cheerful things to wear.

Chief among them, the desire for new and smart footwear. The F. & M. Boot Shop, 10th and Farnam, are showing with evidences of pride the new and ultra-modish "Gaby" pump and oxford of maple brown, high heeled with sole of a proper street-wear thickness; the front of the pump is finished with solid colonial panel without buckle. This panel is trimmed with stitches of fascinating loveliness, altogether new and delightful. Either of these new shoes at $11.00.

To delight any heart is a tiny blue and white colonial knocker. Fascinatingly delightful; it's but $1.00.

Miss 1919 TO complete the ravishing effect of her frock of dainty charm should add the little cape wrap of midnight blue moire silk, I've spied at Lamond's! With vest effect, softie girdle, great smoky pearl buttons, it's "whitely" lined in softest satin.

"Baby blue" is a sports coat of particularly lovely lines. Of lustrous loveliness, it may be had for $7.50.

Yesterday Afternoon. WHEN I stopped in at the John Bath Flower Shop, Eighteenth and Farnam, such signs of mad haste, hurried packing, hurried planning all in preparation for Memorial Day. Flower orders in riotous masses of colorful fragrance overflowed the tables, peonies, jars and jars of great white daisies, dainty roses, large flower pieces fashioned with the inimitable skill which at all times distinguishes this shop of flower artistry, were to be seen on every side. The busiest place in Omaha I at once voted it—and it's sweetest.

Striped Silk Stockings. The sort that are to be so fashionable this summer, are shown in the Omaha shops.

Hats Reblocked. THE Kruger Hat shop, 429 Paxton block, reblocks both men's and women's hats, cleans and dyes, repairs and refashions feathers of all kinds and renovates and refreshes marabou pieces.

If You've a Love for the Beautiful.

YOU'LL want to have for your very own, to drop right into the top of the honeymoon trunk, the cross fox scarf of furry loveliness which they're showing among the summer furs at the Lamond Style Shop, 2d Floor Securities Bldg., 10th and Farnam. "Silky soft" it's gold, black and white, with a cunning spot of white on the end of the great fluffy tail. Tiny ears of gauzy silkiness for a finish quite entrancing.

Metal candle lamps show art candle filies against lily pads of dark effectiveness.

The Mails Are Very Slow These Days

SO plan ahead for your work to be sent to the Ideal Button and Pleating Co., 308 Brown Block, 16th and Douglas. Mr. Ver Mehren takes particular pride in the promptness of his service and is doing the very best he can to rush out the work. My, but they're rushed! They "broider, button and pleat, morning, night and noon, even working on Sundays on special bride orders. I say, again, my dears, plan ahead, far ahead!

There's a new wash material, Beach, for use in the fashioning of separate skirts. One in brilliant blue and black blockings is entirely fascinating.

You'll Heave a Sigh of Relief

IF you'll run over to the Flatiron Cafe, Seventeenth and St. Mary's avenue, for luncheon some hot day. Great large airy rooms, where the breezes stir from gigantic electric fans, where the light is tempered by cunningly adjusted awnings; they're most inviting after the hot glare of the sun. Have you tried their delicious breakfasts? Rich cream, crisp golden toast with delightfully flavored butter, coffee that's "just right," crinkly bacon strips of rosy charm, iced fruits, just what you've dreamed a breakfast should be.

Piccadilly bags are quite the newest in mesh bags. Milady has but to pull a tiny chain to release a mirror which drops out to disclose a powder vanity.

Witching Transparencies Trail Fascinating Scarfs of Tulle

Milady's hair shines entrancingly through transparent crown and brim, while nothing could be lovelier than the loose-draped scarfs of voguish "trailiness."

Outing Togs.

ULTRA smart outing togs are shown at the Townsend Gun Company, for the complete apparel of the golf and tennis enthusiast, the "hikers," 1515 Farnam street, during the coming season. Every time I step into this shop of out-of-door pleasure supplies, I at once feel a wistfulness, steal over me—such wonderful pleasure trips are suggested at the sight of spread-out picnic hampers with their fittings of fascination, or by the long canoe of graceful lines displayed in the store center. You'll find a splendid lot of kodaks and cameras here, too. In fact "everything to make everyone happy everywhere in every sense of the word."

Metal candle lamps show art candle filies against lily pads of dark effectiveness.

The Mails Are Very Slow These Days

SO plan ahead for your work to be sent to the Ideal Button and Pleating Co., 308 Brown Block, 16th and Douglas. Mr. Ver Mehren takes particular pride in the promptness of his service and is doing the very best he can to rush out the work. My, but they're rushed! They "broider, button and pleat, morning, night and noon, even working on Sundays on special bride orders. I say, again, my dears, plan ahead, far ahead!

There's a new wash material, Beach, for use in the fashioning of separate skirts. One in brilliant blue and black blockings is entirely fascinating.

You'll Heave a Sigh of Relief

IF you'll run over to the Flatiron Cafe, Seventeenth and St. Mary's avenue, for luncheon some hot day. Great large airy rooms, where the breezes stir from gigantic electric fans, where the light is tempered by cunningly adjusted awnings; they're most inviting after the hot glare of the sun. Have you tried their delicious breakfasts? Rich cream, crisp golden toast with delightfully flavored butter, coffee that's "just right," crinkly bacon strips of rosy charm, iced fruits, just what you've dreamed a breakfast should be.

The New Season Brings Desires for New Togs.

NATURE dresses the trees and brings into being spring blossoms so it is natural that we human folks want pretty cheerful things to wear. Chief among them, the desire for new and smart footwear. The F. & M. Boot Shop, 10th and Farnam, are showing with evidences of pride the new and ultra-modish "Gaby" pump and oxford of maple brown, high heeled with sole of a proper street-wear thickness; the front of the pump is finished with solid colonial panel without buckle. This panel is trimmed with stitches of fascinating loveliness, altogether new and delightful. Either of these new shoes at $11.00.

To delight any heart is a tiny blue and white colonial knocker. Fascinatingly delightful; it's but $1.00.

Miss 1919 TO complete the ravishing effect of her frock of dainty charm should add the little cape wrap of midnight blue moire silk, I've spied at Lamond's! With vest effect, softie girdle, great smoky pearl buttons, it's "whitely" lined in softest satin.

"Baby blue" is a sports coat of particularly lovely lines. Of lustrous loveliness, it may be had for $7.50.

Yesterday Afternoon. WHEN I stopped in at the John Bath Flower Shop, Eighteenth and Farnam, such signs of mad haste, hurried packing, hurried planning all in preparation for Memorial Day. Flower orders in riotous masses of colorful fragrance overflowed the tables, peonies, jars and jars of great white daisies, dainty roses, large flower pieces fashioned with the inimitable skill which at all times distinguishes this shop of flower artistry, were to be seen on every side. The busiest place in Omaha I at once voted it—and it's sweetest.

Striped Silk Stockings. The sort that are to be so fashionable this summer, are shown in the Omaha shops.

Hats Reblocked. THE Kruger Hat shop, 429 Paxton block, reblocks both men's and women's hats, cleans and dyes, repairs and refashions feathers of all kinds and renovates and refreshes marabou pieces.

Organdie the Popular Fabric of the Season.

ORGANDIE has not yet run its day. The popularity enjoyed by this delightfully crisp fabric last summer, instead of tiring its wearers, has only taught them what sensibly lovely frocks its sheerness develops. Thompson-Belden's are showing pastel shades for the fashioning of frocks to be worn every four of the day. Canary, green, rose, peach, flesh, blues, they're vigorously attractive with the quaint charm of grandmother's day.

Particularly fascinating, too, are the deep boucings with rows of pleated frills they're showing in the neckwear department, which save lots of work in the making of the little summer frocks. I'd suggest combining white net and lace for a dainty afternoon dress, with old blue ribbons, picot-edged, run through buttonholes in the collar. Or broad bandings of dyed lace, with peacock blue girdle ribbons. Broad trimmed bats of matching colors or black picture hats are worn with witching effectiveness with these fluffily fascinating frocks of organdie.

Makes Traveling Easy.

A RISTOCRATS of stateroom and Pullman—pride, economy and comfort go with you when you carry traveling bags of refined luxury to be found at the Omaha Printing Co., 13th and Farnam. Every bride will enjoy the rich appearance of quality and exclusiveness, the thoughtful planning of spaces and linings of the life-long durability, the fittings which tend to make traveling by rail or sea a source of keenest pleasure.

The new linens are of bewitchingness—green, of a vivid new shade, richly lovely, gloriously tinted new blues, and extremely fetching is a new gray.

If Your Hair Has Become Dull, Lifeless.

MUDDY in color, you'll welcome with delight the suggestion offered by Mrs. Margaret Gunstorf, of the Delft Hair Parlors, second floor Baird building, Seventeenth and Douglas. "Neos Henna," $1.50, will restore the original color to black, dark brown, drab, light or dark chestnut, blonde and auburn hair. It is exceedingly easy to apply and perfect in results.

Checked Gingham frocks lend themselves to the quaint frock of finish.

Checked gingham frocks lend themselves to the quaint frock of finish.

Scarves of self material are still seen on the voluminous wraps of today.

Scarves of self material are still seen on the voluminous wraps of today.

Valenciennes lace is favored for trimming dainty blouses and light frocks.

Valenciennes lace is favored for trimming dainty blouses and light frocks.

The high coiffure and the big fan of ostrich feathers seem to go together.

The high coiffure and the big fan of ostrich feathers seem to go together.

A large woman can wear the costumes with diagonal lines quite effectively.

A large woman can wear the costumes with diagonal lines quite effectively.

Almost any silhouette—as long as it is smart—appears now to be in fashion.

Almost any silhouette—as long as it is smart—appears now to be in fashion.

This summer it would appear that every hat must have a dash of bright color.

This summer it would appear that every hat must have a dash of bright color.

A band to stand up on the brim of a hat is one of the smart new French ideas.

A band to stand up on the brim of a hat is one of the smart new French ideas.

Silver cloth and orange mouseline combine to make a most striking evening gown.

Silver cloth and orange mouseline combine to make a most striking evening gown.

The bodice and skirt—the first of a fitted sort—rival the beloved Chinese dress.

The bodice and skirt—the first of a fitted sort—rival the beloved Chinese dress.

The heavy cotton known as Indian head is always excellent for common skirts.

The heavy cotton known as Indian head is always excellent for common skirts.

The latest silk petticoats are of wash silk or satin, with perfectly flat stitched hems.

The latest silk petticoats are of wash silk or satin, with perfectly flat stitched hems.

A charming frock of pink mouseline edged with flounces with pink ostrich feathers.

A charming frock of pink mouseline edged with flounces with pink ostrich feathers.

Many of the latest waistcoats are almost blouses, and the coat with them is never removed.

Many of the latest waistcoats are almost blouses, and the coat with them is never removed.

Organdie the Popular Fabric of the Season.

ORGANDIE has not yet run its day. The popularity enjoyed by this delightfully crisp fabric last summer, instead of tiring its wearers, has only taught them what sensibly lovely frocks its sheerness develops. Thompson-Belden's are showing pastel shades for the fashioning of frocks to be worn every four of the day. Canary, green, rose, peach, flesh, blues, they're vigorously attractive with the quaint charm of grandmother's day.

Particularly fascinating, too, are the deep boucings with rows of pleated frills they're showing in the neckwear department, which save lots of work in the making of the little summer frocks. I'd suggest combining white net and lace for a dainty afternoon dress, with old blue ribbons, picot-edged, run through buttonholes in the collar. Or broad bandings of dyed lace, with peacock blue girdle ribbons. Broad trimmed bats of matching colors or black picture hats are worn with witching effectiveness with these fluffily fascinating frocks of organdie.

Makes Traveling Easy.

A RISTOCRATS of stateroom and Pullman—pride, economy and comfort go with you when you carry traveling bags of refined luxury to be found at the Omaha Printing Co., 13th and Farnam. Every bride will enjoy the rich appearance of quality and exclusiveness, the thoughtful planning of spaces and linings of the life-long durability, the fittings which tend to make traveling by rail or sea a source of keenest pleasure.

The new linens are of bewitchingness—green, of a vivid new shade, richly lovely, gloriously tinted new blues, and extremely fetching is a new gray.

If Your Hair Has Become Dull, Lifeless.

MUDDY in color, you'll welcome with delight the suggestion offered by Mrs. Margaret Gunstorf, of the Delft Hair Parlors, second floor Baird building, Seventeenth and Douglas. "Neos Henna," $1.50, will restore the original color to black, dark brown, drab, light or dark chestnut, blonde and auburn hair. It is exceedingly easy to apply and perfect in results.

Checked Gingham frocks lend themselves to the quaint frock of finish.

Checked gingham frocks lend themselves to the quaint frock of finish.

Scarves of self material are still seen on the voluminous wraps of today.

Scarves of self material are still seen on the voluminous wraps of today.

Valenciennes lace is favored for trimming dainty blouses and light frocks.

Valenciennes lace is favored for trimming dainty blouses and light frocks.

The high coiffure and the big fan of ostrich feathers seem to go together.

The high coiffure and the big fan of ostrich feathers seem to go together.

A large woman can wear the costumes with diagonal lines quite effectively.

A large woman can wear the costumes with diagonal lines quite effectively.

Almost any silhouette—as long as it is smart—appears now to be in fashion.

Almost any silhouette—as long as it is smart—appears now to be in fashion.

This summer it would appear that every hat must have a dash of bright color.

This summer it would appear that every hat must have a dash of bright color.

A band to stand up on the brim of a hat is one of the smart new French ideas.

A band to stand up on the brim of a hat is one of the smart new French ideas.

Silver cloth and orange mouseline combine to make a most striking evening gown.

Silver cloth and orange mouseline combine to make a most striking evening gown.

The bodice and skirt—the first of a fitted sort—rival the beloved Chinese dress.

The bodice and skirt—the first of a fitted sort—rival the beloved Chinese dress.

The heavy cotton known as Indian head is always excellent for common skirts.

The heavy cotton known as Indian head is always excellent for common skirts.

The latest silk petticoats are of wash silk or satin, with perfectly flat stitched hems.

The latest silk petticoats are of wash silk or satin, with perfectly flat stitched hems.

A charming frock of pink mouseline edged with flounces with pink ostrich feathers.

A charming frock of pink mouseline edged with flounces with pink ostrich feathers.

Many of the latest waistcoats are almost blouses, and the coat with them is never removed.

Many of the latest waistcoats are almost blouses, and the coat with them is never removed.

Polly