school league games. The Central-Commerce High game in the last round of the high school league schedule has not yet been played. It is billed to come off on a Central field. When, however, Coach Hill. Central mentor, asked that the game be played at the cadet encampment, the business boys balked. Rumor has it that the game may be given the boys from the big school by default.

The Central sluggers are all in good shape. Logan, Ia., was disposed of handily Friday at Logan. To keep in good trim the Centralites have organized company nines and will stage a series of games at the camp. Company A has Baker, Mangold and Somberg on its roll, while B has Hob Turner and Eddie Vlach and a bunch of green stuff.

Vaid Birmingham to Buffalo

"City of the North, welcome to the South. Light up this mutual friend of ours, the Owl Cigar, and tell me: How goes the great commerce of your lake steamers; and your mills, are they as busy as ever?"

Buffalo made reply, "All's well in Buffalo, my Southern friend. And I see that all is well with you also. Surely this is the New South. Your blast furnaces, your rolling mills, your machine shops, attest the new forward Southern spirit."

The Owl policy is to try to please all the people all the time. Thanks to the $2,000,000 Owl leaf reserve, we are on the road to success. Owl and White Owl sales prove that men want fragrance and dependability of fragrance. Owls are friends to all the States and all the States are friends to them. Have you discovered them?
