

REFERENDUM ON CODE BILL ASKED BY 5,000 VOTERS

Ten Thousand Names Promised From Omaha; 25,000 Required to Hold Up Law.

Lincoln, June 3.—It is said that petitions containing about 5,000 names have been received at the office of the promotion committee which has in charge the invoking of the referendum on the code bill in order to keep it from being given a trial.

The proposition is being watched with much interest by a large number of people who are beginning to understand how easy it is for those who have opposed a bill from the start to kill the acts of the legislature by the referendum law, thus preventing the people from being given the opportunity to see if the law is workable.

PEORIA WOMAN HAS GAINED 35 POUNDS, SHE SAYS

Does All the Work Now for Family of Nine Since Tanlac Built Her Up—Had Suffered 18 Years.

"Eighteen years ago this spring," said Mrs. Annie Welsh of 1204 Antoinette street, Peoria, Illinois, "while we were living on the farm, I lost my health and have never seen a well day since that time until a few weeks ago.

"I was frist taken with an attack of acute indigestion and lay right at the point of death. The cramps and pains in my stomach simply can't be described, and after this spell I lost weight and strength very fast and soon had no health at all. I suffered from what they called auto-intoxication—a poisoned system—and took so much strong medicine trying to get rid of the acid that my stomach got in an awful condition. Then I was taken with rheumatism and had it so bad in my arms and legs that I could hardly stand it."

"I was unable to do the least bit of work and while we spent all of twelve hundred dollars for treatment and medicines, nothing ever did me any good until a friend of mine, who had used Tanlac, persuaded me to try it. Well, I had not taken Tanlac long when I knew I had at last found the right medicine. I have taken seven bottles now and every sign of rheumatism is gone, my kidneys never bother me any more and my stomach is in as good condition as it ever was. In fact, I am a perfectly well woman, enjoy as good health as I ever did in my life, and this seems almost too good to be true after suffering for eighteen years as I did. Why, I can do all the work, washing and everything, for my family of nine children and feel none the worse from it. So I have the best of reasons for praising Tanlac and if I could speak to every suffering person personally I would advise them to try it."

Tanlac is sold in Omaha by all Sherman & McConnell Drug Company's stores, Harvard Pharmacy and West End Pharmacy. Also Forest and Meany Drug Company in South Omaha and the leading druggist in each city and town throughout the state of Nebraska.—Adv.

Fifty Commercial Bodies Represented at State Convention

Broken Bow, Neb., June 3.—(Special Telegram).—About 50 commercial organizations of Nebraska were represented here Tuesday at the annual state convention.

President J. W. Stenhardt outlined the success of the campaign for good road legislation at the recent session. Reorganization of commercial and community organizations to include representatives from all groups within a community was advocated by Robert H. Manley of the Omaha Chamber of Commerce, who urged that the same machinery that carried through war work successfully should be organized into a community betterment group to develop every community in Nebraska.

Dean Ashcraft of York college spoke of practical education work with Commissioner Frank I. Ringer of the Nebraska Manufacturers' association spoke on the problems of trade and commerce.

RAIN DAMPENS ARDOR OF HIGH SCHOOL CADETS

Downpour, Which Started Monday Night, Keeps Boys in Tents; No Attempts to Run Lines.

Valley, Neb., June 3. (Special).—After a sunshiny first day of camp, the 375 Central high school cadets are being treated to a day of continual rain in Camp Beveridge, near here. The downpour began shortly after taps, Monday, making sleep impossible. Drainage at the camp is good, so an inglorious return because of an excess of water is not contemplated.

The cadets arrived early Monday morning and spent the day setting up the camp. The engineering corps, which proceeded the battalion, had set up the general tents. Monday was successful save for the announcement of the publication of "The Mule," a four page daily newspaper, edited by Ralph F. Cohn. A sufficient number of subscriptions were solicited to pay expenses. The advertising funds will be used to spring a surprise on visitors' day Thursday.

Company base ball battalions are limbering up for a series of games. A wireless outfit, under supervision of Pri. John O'Rourke, is preparing to receive foreign messages. No casualties were reported yesterday. A score of minor injuries received attention from Dr. Ravitz, camp physician. A recreation tent equipped by E. S. Fowler of the Y. M. C. A., provides the cadets with reading matter.

Because of the rain no attempt was made to "run the guards" last night. So far the encampment is 100 per cent clean.

State House Janitor Dies After 14 Years' Service

Lincoln, June 3.—(Special).—David E. Logan, a state house janitor who has been in the service of the state house about 14 years, died yesterday at his home in this city. Mr. Logan's former home was in Albion. He has been in failing health for more than a year, but has been able to do his work up to about a month ago. He was a veteran of the civil war and was 70 years old.

Beatrice School Board Elects Three Teachers

Beatrice, Neb., June 3. (Special).—The Board of Education, last evening, elected three new teachers for the high school. W. L. Hughes, graduate of Wesleyan, and Miss Leona Woods and Stanley Marsh, graduates of the Nebraska university. The resignation of Miss Leeper, departmental teacher in Central school, was accepted. Louis Austin was elected census enumerator of the city schools.

Kearney Farmer Starts Suit Against Tractor Firm

Kearney, Neb., June 3. (Special).—A damage suit for $39,109 against the Emerson Greengrass Implement company was filed in district court Monday by Ellsworth Bowker of this city, who states that a tractor which he purchased from that company was responsible for the loss of that sum in his year's crops. Mr. Bowker itemized his losses, basing them on crop results of previous years.

Huns Violate Armistice; Attack Polish Troops

Paris, June 3.—A German detachment, 1,200 strong, from East Prussia, crossed the Polish frontier and attacked Polish advance guards, according to a Havas dispatch from Warsaw. Polish reinforcements were hastily summoned and counter-attacks between Ossowia and Grajewo. In a short, sharp action, the Germans were repulsed with heavy losses.

New Board of Control Considers Coal Contracts

Lincoln, June 3.—(Special).—Contracts for the purchase of coal for 14 of the state institutions will be considered July 1. The matter is in the hands of the new board of control, which will come into office July 1.

Fund Reverts to State.

Lincoln, June 3. (Special).—Of the appropriation voted by the legislature of $25,000 for the use of the law enforcement department of the state in prosecuting "booze runners," $12,500 remains unexpended and will lapse back into the state treasury. At the time the legislature made the appropriation, there was considerable criticism for fear that Chief Hyers would go the limit in the use of the funds. The fact that less than half of it was expended indicates that the fears of the opposition were unfounded.

JEFFERIS NOW OPPOSES REPEAL OF LUXURY TAXES

Would Not Vote This Money Out of Treasury Until Substitute Form of Taxation Is Devised.

By a Staff Correspondent. Washington, June 3.—Representative Jefferis, speaking of the bill to repeal the so-called luxury tax, and which seems to be as dead as a door nail in view of the serious opposition that has arisen against repealing any of the consumption taxes until some substitute has been designed to make up the deficiencies the repeal will create, said that early in the session he had received many letters from Omaha merchants urging the repeal of the objectionable law. At that time the Omaha congressman was inclined to favor the repeal on the ground that the machinery to collect the tax necessitated an additional force on the part of the retailers. However, developments since the bill to repeal section 904 of the revenue law was reported by the ways and means committee have proved to Mr. Jefferis that to remove the tax would take from the treasury $100,000,000, and he is, therefore, not inclined to vote this money out of the treasury until some form of taxation has been devised to take its place.

In order that we may have the judgment of Omaha merchants on an alternative proposition he has written asking them if they would be willing to pay a yearly tax on their gross sales, a form of taxation prevalent in Europe.

Teachers Ask Support.

Representative Jefferis is in receipt of many letters from principals and teachers of the Omaha public schools, including a letter from the director of research, asking him to support the Towner educational bill, which is designed to educate the masses and which, it is estimated, will require $100,000,000 to put the scheme on a working basis. To these letters the congressman, after studying the bill, has replied with a question whether it would be wise to spend $100,000,000 in face of a deficit of between $6,000,000,000 and $7,000,000,000 which faces the country next year.

Mining Town Problems Discussed by Educators At Meeting Yesterday

Springfield, Ill., June 3.—Educational problems affecting mining communities of Illinois were under discussion here today at a conference participated in by representatives of the United States commissioner of education, the state superintendent of public instruction, the Illinois state board of vocational education and the Illinois committee of education for miners.

Talks were made by a number of prominent educators of the state, among them being R. C. Moore, secretary of the Illinois State Teachers' association, who spoke on "The Problem of School Revenue in Mining Communities," and E. A. Wreidt, state supervisor of industrial education, whose subject was "State and Federal Aid for Practical Instruction in Mining for Mine Workers."

W. S. Doffenbaugh, specialist in city school systems, United States bureau of education, Washington, gave some suggestions for the improvement of schools in mining towns.

What industrial occupations should be given to regular day pupils in mining communities was explained by F. L. Hoehn, superintendent of public schools at Gillespie, Ill. Other speakers were Joseph C. Thompson, state department of mines and minerals; Frank Farrington, president of the Illinois United Mine Workers of America; K. G. Smith of the federal board of vocational education; Peter Joyce, Springfield; H. C. Adams, Springfield, and E. C. Pruitt, Springfield.

Bolshevik Plot Is Discovered in Finland

London, June 3.—A Russian bolshevik plot on a wide scale has been discovered in Finland, according to an Exchange Telegraph dispatch from Copenhagen. Many arrests have been made.

Several million marks had been smuggled into Finland preparatory to a contemplated revolution, the telegram states, and a bolshevik representative at Helsinki had distributed more than 3,000,000 marks of this. Quantities of weapons had been given out among the unemployed, but the coup d'état that was planned was postponed, "owing to developments in Russia."
