MRS. KELLY WAS DISCOURAGED SHE DECLARES

Had Suffered Twenty-eight Years—"Not a Medicine in the World Equals Tanlac."

"If there was no other way for me to get Tanlac, I would actually walk all the way from our farm in the country to Peoria rather than be without it," said Mrs. J. W. Kelly, who lives on route No. 2, Peoria, Illinois, a few days ago.

"I suffered for twenty-eight years," continued Mrs. Kelly, "and during that time I spent thousands of dollars trying to find a medicine or treatment that would overcome my troubles, but I never got any relief until I commenced taking Tanlac. My stomach was in an awful condition, and every time I ate anything I would suffer for hours afterwards. Sometimes I would have cramping spells and then I would often suffer on account of gas forming from sour, undigested food. I would have awful headaches, too, and would frequently get so dizzy that I would either have to sit down or lie down to keep from falling. My appetite was so poor that I hardly ate enough to keep me going and I got so thin and weak that I was hardly able to get around at all. I also suffered a great deal from nervousness, and never got a good night's sleep. I finally got in such a worn-out, run-down condition that I just had to give up trying to do any of my work. In fact, I was completely discouraged over my condition, and gave up all hope of ever getting better.

"I told my husband that I didn't think it was any use for us to spend any more money for medicine, but he said, 'no, you mustn't give up, for as long as there is life there is hope.' Well, I noticed Tanlac being advertised then, and I thought I would see if that would do me any good, and before I had finished my first bottle I could see that I was mending right along. My appetite is as good now as it ever was, and I can eat just anything I want without suffering agonies afterwards. I have taken five bottles of Tanlac so far, and my health is far better now than it has been in over thirty years. My stomach troubles have disappeared, and my nerves are in such fine condition that I drop off to sleep as soon as I go to bed every night, and I hardly ever wake up until I am called in the morning. I haven't had a headache or one of those dizzy spells since I finished my first bottle of Tanlac, and am so well and strong in every way that I now do all my housework, and look after my cows and chickens besides. I don't believe there is a medicine in the world that equals Tanlac, and I just can't find words to express how grateful I am for the great good it has done me and will praise this wonderful medicine as long as I live.

Tanlac is sold in Omaha by all Sherman & McConnell Drug Company's stores, Harvard Pharmacy and West End Pharmacy. Also Forest and Meany Drug Company in South Omaha and the leading druggist in each city and town throughout the state of Nebraska.—Adv.

HOTEL COMPANY ASKS PROBE OF BANKERS' REALTY

Charge Conspiracy to Gain Control of Company and Excessive Charge for Building Hotels.

The North American Hotel Co. filed suit against the Bankers' Realty Investment Co. yesterday in district court, demanding an accounting from the latter and its officers on various transactions involving the building of hotels in various Nebraska and Iowa cities.

A temporary restraining order was granted by District Judge Day, enjoining the Bankers' Realty Investment Co. from holding certain common stock in the North American Hotel Co. and from disposing of certain real estate and mortgages and from interfering with the officers of the North American Hotel Co. in the management of that company. A bond of $2,000. was filed by the plaintiffs.

The North American Hotel Co. alleges that the Bankers' Realty Investment Co. and its officers conspired in September, 1917, to secure control of the North American Hotel Co., and that $100,000 secured from the latter to build a hotel in Grand Island was really used to buy 1,000 shares of stock in the North American Hotel Co., thus securing control of that company.

At various dates, it is charged, the North American Hotel Co. was induced to sign contracts to pay for the erection of hotels and it is charged that the figures were invariably higher than the actual cost of the hotels.

A hotel built at Hampton, Ia., they charge, was paid for with $180,000 of North American Hotel Co. funds. It is alleged that this hotel cost only $125,000.

Similar charges are made regarding hotels erected in Scottsbluff, Kearney, Grand Island, Ogallala and other cities.

Expelling of Two American Officers By British from Ireland Causes Sensation

Yankees Said to Have Expressed Strong Pro-Sinn Fein Sentiment at Meeting of Irish Republicans, Addressed by President De Valera — U. S. Judge-Advocate Office Investigates.

By ROBERT WELLES RITCHIE (Universal Service Staff Correspondent.) (Special Cable Dispatch.)

London, June 4.—An American major and a lieutenant from the quartermaster's department of the American expeditionary force who were spending their leave in Ireland, were expelled from that country Sunday by order of the British government as a result, it is alleged, of indiscreet partisanship with the Sinn Fein.

The summary expulsion of the two officers has created a sensation at General Biddle's headquarters in London, where both reported yesterday. Though General Biddle's staff denies all knowledge of the event, even the adjutant asserting to the correspondent that he never heard of it, the fact remains that the major and the lieutenant were summoned to the judge advocate's office this afternoon for a lengthy conference.

From authoritative quarters where the two officers reported their troubles immediately upon their arrival in London yesterday, Universal Service learns the details of their experience. The two officers had been for several days in Ireland, often in the company of pronounced

IS STINSON, DOPE PEDDLERS' KING, NOW A BIGAMIST?

Records Show That Alleged Husband of Beatrice Wilhelm Has Not Divorced His First Wife.

Is "Curley" Stinson, alleged king of dope peddlers, and who is under indictment to appear in the federal district court to answer charges of violating the Harrison act, a bigamist?

On May 26 C. M. Stinson, negro, aged 32, was united in marriage to Beatrice Wilhelm, white, aged 19, by Justice C. E. Bird, in the basement of the court house at Council Bluffs.

According to facts brought out in an investigation, C. M. Stinson appears to be Marion, or "Curley" Stinson, and the woman he married "Mrs. Ruth Clark," right name, Beatrice Wilhelm, and the woman whose sensational revelations regarding the dope ring in Omaha is still fresh in the mind of the public.

Guilty of Bigamy?

According to the records it would appear that Stinson is guilty of the crime of bigamy.

On January 27, 1919, by his attorney, H. H. Clairborne, Stinson filed suit for divorce from his wife, Josephine Stinson. He stated that the woman was living in Lincoln, and the return on the summons in the suit shows that no service was obtained as court officers could not locate the defendant.

The records also show that there has been no service by publication.

Miscegenation Forbidden.

According to the miscegenation laws of the state of Nebraska it is unlawful for a person more than one-fourth negro blood to wed a white person. Stinson and Mrs. Wilhelm went to Council Bluffs where they had the ceremony performed, Iowa being one of the few states of the union without miscegenation laws. The ceremony was an unlawful one, in the opinion of attorneys, for the reason that no divorce decree was granted Stinson in the Douglas county district court, where his suit against Josephine Stinson is still pending and he is still living with her.

Mrs. Wilhelm is said to have been once married and it is said that her husband is living at Cherokee, Ia.

Rotarians Subscribe $7,000 for $27,000 Fund for Boy Scouts

Omaha Rotarians at luncheon at the Hotel Fontenelle yesterday noon contributed $7,000 to the Boy Scout fund as the opening of a campaign being conducted by the Rotarians to raise $27,000 for the Omaha Boy Scout organization.

Since the Boy Scouts were established here about three years ago, the Rotarians have acted as god-father for the Scouts. At the luncheon General Manager Davidson of the Nebraska Power Co. acted as manager of the drive. Splendid speeches were made by Dan Baum, Walter Head, Ward Burgess and A. B. Currie.

Mrs. Fred Hamilton, Mrs. Glen Wharton, Miss Mildred Butler and Elizabeth Davis acted as canvassers for subscriptions and pledges.

A number of the members of the club donated $50 Liberty bonds to the fund. The city has been divided into 29 districts and a captain with four men, members of the Rotary club will canvass each district during the duration of the drive.

The Boy Scouts are endeavoring to raise the money to establish a permanent camp. If their plans are carried out, they will be enabled to possess the largest Boy Scout camp in the world.

Believes League of Nations Will Settle Problem of Ireland

By WILLIAM J. BUTLER (Universal Service Staff Correspondent.) (Special Cable Dispatch.)

Paris, June 4.—The Irish question in all probability will be left for settlement by the league of nations, a high American diplomat informed the correspondent today in discussing the latest letter from Frank P. Walsh and ex-Governor Dunne of Illinois, the two Irish-American commissioners, to President Wilson.

President Wilson has not yet answered the letter, but it is thought the clause in the Austrian treaty by which the political and religious minorities in the new states of central Europe came under the protection of the league will be interpreted as being sufficiently elastic to stretch it to Ireland's case.

Mr. Wash, chairman of the Irish-American commission, declines to comment on this probability, but there is a strong report he has been trying to understand that such will be the most likely solution of the Irish tangle.

Taxpayers Will Have To Pay Penalty Unless Returns Are Made

A large number of Douglas county taxpayers are "flirting" with a 50 per cent penalty unless they send in their assessment returns very quickly, says County Assessor Fitzgerald.

May 26 was the day when all assessment returns were due. The lists are being checked up now and will be completed in a few days. Then all those that are missing will have to pay their tax plus 50 per cent of their taxes as a penalty.

"Last year I penalized about 80 taxpayers with a total of $50,000 taxes," said Mr. Fitzgerald.

The county assessment this year will run to about $200,000, actual value, Mr. Fitzgerald estimates.

My Heart and My Husband - Revelations of a Wife

The Words Madge and Dicky Overheard.

Every word of Milly Stockbridge's heart is gibberish to her husband's lameness came distinctly to us. Fortunately the orchestra was making so much noise that I don't think the other guests of the cafe understood what she said even if they heard her. But she was facing our table as she spoke, and we could not help being unwilling auditors of her vulgar cruelty.

To all appearances her husband had not heard her. Not a facial muscle changed, and as for his palor, it could not have been more pronounced than it had been when he entered the cafe. But there came a simultaneous low protest from his wife's relatives, to which she at once made a vixenish reply.

"Oh, you all make me tired!" she snapped. "It's Milly, how can you? and Milly, why do you try to say nothing of your favorite refrain?" "Milly, you ought to be ashamed of yourself!" I tell you I'm sick of the whole business and all of you. Some day I'm going to beat it to the other world by the quickest route, and I don't want any of you sneiveling around me, either.

"I don't care what I find on the other side, it can't be worse than what I endure here every day. Just look at every one of you now, for instance. You all know how faint I always am after a long ride, yet not one of you has asked me yet anything about my order. I might starve to death for all any of you care."

Held in Subjection.

The orchestra suddenly, and the last words sounded clearly through the room. Every head was turned toward the Stockbridge table, but to my surprise Milly Stockbridge was clever enough to force a laugh and say in a milder though still petulant tone:

"I tell you, if you don't hurry up and order I shall starve to death." Her elder sister, a dark, slender woman, with a tired, sensitive face, took up the menu card, glanced over it hurriedly.

"The lobster is said to be very nice here, Milly," she ventured timidly.

"No doubt," her sister returned captiously. "Things are always said to be nice about these new places. Just wait a few weeks till they get their patrons well hooked. Then you'll see how they'll stink you."

"Would you rather have something nice, Milly?" her mother asked nervously. It was plainly to be seen that the whole family were held in subjection by the neurotic woman's vagaries.

"Oh, Dicky, don't!"

"Haven't you a tongue in your head?" Milly Stockbridge turned impatiently upon her husband.

"You're the one that suggested this hole, now suppose you demonstrate what it's good for."

"Would you like me to order for you?" Kenneth Stockbridge's voice was calmly courteous, though there was an infinite weariness in its tones.

"I know what I'd order for her if
