Mrs. Nichols Gets Divorce

Neal Nichols of the Nichols-Rice Motor company, told Judge Day an extraordinary tale of married life in answer to his wife's petition for divorce in district court yesterday. He alleged he had been forced to dispose of business interests and move from city to city, due to his wife's desire to return to her mother at frequent intervals.

Mrs. Nichols was granted a divorce and Mr. Nichols was ordered to pay $35 a month alimony for the support of their child.

Mrs. Nichols filed her first divorce suit about five years ago. The present one was filed March 6 and later an injunction was granted, preventing Mr. Nichols from disposing of his business interests during the pendency of the suit.
