Charley Thomas, a little Iowa orphan, came to Omaha to enlist in the navy and was first adopted by Charles Levings of the Army and Navy club.

This is the second boy whom Mr. Levings has adopted to permit him to join the navy.

Charley was brought up by a woman in Iowa after his own parents left him, and when unable to produce the written consent of his parents to enter the service, Mr. Levings agreed to become the guardian of the boy.

The Lafayette club will be hostess at the Army and Navy club Thursday evening. Dr. and Mrs. Despecher, Miss Florence Dunlap and Mrs. Quimby will be chaperons.

The General Pershing club entertained at the Community House Wednesday evening with a little party.

There will be a meeting of the United information committee which is made up of representatives of all of the war work organizations, at the University club Friday noon.

Charles Blankenburg gave to the Army and Navy club a fine 25-foot flag pole. Mr. Adams, superintendent of the Union depot, has announced that 10 shower baths at the station will be put in order for use of soldiers passing through and here for a short time, who do not have the time to take advantage of the clubs up town. The Girls' club of the Woolworth store will have a supper and party at the Girls' Community house Friday evening.

Sunday, June 8, members of all the Girls' clubs are asked to act as hostesses at the Girls' Community house, 1716 Dodge street, for soldiers, sailors and marines, from 4:30 to 6:30 p. m.

Swagger little capes and cape wraps quite on the order of those worn by their elders are to be accepted rather generally for little girls, it is predicted.

And Now for the June Bride's Wedding.

This summer frock of blue shantung, embroidered with rose, blue and green, will serve as the going-away dress.

Read in Good Housekeeping for May the interesting and authoritative article on the up-to-date wedding trousseau.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Megeath arrived home Friday morning from Seattle and Megeath, Wyo., where they have been for several weeks. Miss Marion Towle, who accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Megeath, returned the first of the week.

Special study of music and drama as expressions of religion will be given by the national Y. W. C. A. for the development of religious worker, Miss Miriam Sabbage, of education.

Wedding Announcement.
The marriage of Miss Mary Anne Cline, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas C. Cline, to Walter Florence, will take place Wednesday, June 18, at Third Presbyterian church.

Cards were issued Thursday by Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Allen for the wedding of their daughter, Miss Mable, which will be celebrated Wednesday evening, June 18, at 8:30 o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Allen.

Miss Jacey Allen, a cousin of the bride, will be the maid of honor, Mrs. Earl Burkett, matron of honor, and Miss Helen Smailes, a sister of the groom, bridesmaid.

Mr. Smailes will be attended by Mr. E. D. Smailes, as groomsmen, and the ushers will be Capt. Howard Treat of Washington, D. C., and Mr. Earl Burkett. The couple will reside with the bride's parents.

For Miss Eastman.
Mrs. F. A. Nash gave a luncheon at her home Friday complimentary to Miss Helen Eastman. A basket of spring flowers decorated the table and covers were placed for:
Mesdames— Mesdames—
O. T. Eastman, Robert Barratt,
Misses—
Helen Eastman, Grace Allison,
Grace Ruston, Marion Towle,
Henrietta Wurta, Marion Kuba,
Regina Connell.

Miss Helen Ingersen entertained a very few at tea most informally Friday afternoon, at her home in honor of Miss Helen Eastman.

Closing Party.
The Joan d'Arc club will give the last of their series of dancing parties Friday evening at Metropolitan hall.

Fashion Notes
For midsummer, white dresses with clever touches of color introduced are a new fashion feature for little girls. Piping and narrow ruffles of color are applied, matching the girdles or sashes of ribbon.

Little frocks of flesh colored georgette are trimmed only with hemstitching, except for sashes of color, rosettes or ribbon streamers, usually in two colors, in the sweet pea combination.

Darling little poke bonnets of delicate straw and georgette are trimmed with ribbon only, or with delicate wreaths of flowers and ribbons.

Dainty frocks of net and others of organdie are the suggestion many shops are making for graduation use. Georgette is also advised rather than those of lace or silk, though, of course, lace is in good taste as a trimming.

Demurely printed organdies are being made up into charming little dresses, the lines of which conform to the fabric's motive, and these develop models of exquisite qualities. Plain colored organdies are also used, many trimmed with lace.

represented in the membership, of which 23 chapters are in Nebraska.

The present grand officers assisted by the past officers will have charge of the ceremonies.

The present grand officers include: Mesdames Stella Yont, grand matron; Alfred Powell, grand patron; J. E. Bednar, associate grand patron; Miss Rose Owen, grand secretary; Miss Maude Smith, grand conductress and Mrs. W. H. Davidson, grand esther.

Grandmaster of A. F. and A. M., Mr. J. J. Tooley, will be the guest of the evening. He will address the meeting, and Mrs. C. Vincent, worthy matron; and the Reverend Carl M. Worden, worthy patron, will be special guests.

The officers of Liberty chapter will entertain the grand officers at dinner Friday evening, preceding the installation exercises.

With 491 members, and a class of 25 for initiation, it is unique in lodge precedent. The list is so large that a special charter has been compiled for it.
