Time Brings Happiness With The Dawn

The Coming of Baby Marks the Advent of a Glorious Future.

Scientists say great stress should be laid upon the remarkable influence which the mother's happy pre-natal disposition has upon the health and future of the generation to come.

There is a splendid preparation women for over half a century have applied before the stork's arrival, known as Mother's Friend. This is a most grateful, penetrating remedy that at once softens and soothes the myriad of broad, flat abdominal muscles under the skin of the abdomen.
By its regular use during the period the nerves, tendons and cords are relaxed and there is an absence of nausea, bearing-down pains, strain and general discomfort more often than otherwise experienced when nature is unaided.

By the use of Mother's Friend night and morning the muscles relax with ease when baby comes, the time of the crisis is shorter and pain and danger is naturally avoided.

Write the Bradfield Regulator Company, Dept. E. Lamar Building, Atlanta, Georgia, for their Motherhood Book, and obtain a bottle of Mother's Friend from the druggist, by all means, and get into condition to meet the crisis.—Adv.

PROSPERITY IS REPORTED FROM
SMALLER TOWNS

Commissioner Manley Brings Optimistic Report of Building Booms From State Commercial Clubs.

"Optimism of the highest type was the dominant note at the state convention of commercial clubs held at Broken Bow this week," said Commissioner Manley, of the Chamber of Commerce, who has just returned from the meeting.

"Delegates from the western and central parts of the state reported that crop conditions were never better at this season of the year than they now are and that retail trade in every line is booming. Prosperity is in the air everywhere.

"According to the reports made by the delegates regarding local conditions in their respective towns the out-in-the-state municipalities are leading Omaha proportionately in the extent of their building and public improvement programs.

"Nearly every town in the state is now in the midst of a building boom and nearly every town has an extensive paving enterprise under way. Many of the smaller towns are adding such public improvements as water works and sanitary sewer systems and the number of modern school buildings projected is surprising."

Stupidity of Police May Result in Death of Mrs. Thomas Brown

Rich and Respected Woman Arrested As Keeper of Disorderly House Forced to Lie On Floor of Jail Cell "To Await Examination Under Detention Home Ordinance"—Dunn Blames Detectives, But Ringer and Eberstein Declare They "Have Nothing To Say."

Mrs. Thomas Brown, 54 years old, 508 North Twenty-first street, active church worker, prominent club woman, philanthropist and widow of a former Omaha business man, was held in the city jail Thursday night like a woman of the street to be examined under Commissioner Ringer's and Dr. Palmer Findley's Detention home ordinance.

After spending the night in a cell in the men's section of the jail, Mrs.
Brown was prostrated and yesterday morning was taken to the Bishop Clarkson Memorial hospital. She is in a very serious condition.

Mrs. Brown's home was invaded at 2 o'clock yesterday morning by Detectives Herdzine and Armstrong without a warrant. The officers entered her room while she was sleeping and told her she would have to go to the police station.

Detective Herdzine, who is said to have been drunk, refused to leave the room while Mrs. Brown made her toilet. When her son, Thomas Brown, jr., interfered and put the officer out, the detective returned, placed Mr. Brown under arrest and remained in the room while Mrs.
Brown was forced to put on her clothes in his presence.

Mr. Brown, who is a soldier, just returned from France, was a medical student at the University of Wisconsin when he enlisted in the army.
He was charged with interfering with an officer.

Mrs. Thomas Brown.

a disorderly house. It is said some whisky glasses were found on the table. Upon learning that Mrs.
Brown owned the house, they just forced their way into her home, which is located a short distance from the Cass street residence.
In spite of her protestations, Mrs.
Brown was taken to the city jail and charged with being the keeper of a common and ill-governed house, although she lived a half block distant from the Cass street house with her son and daughter, Miss Dorothy, now at school in Europe.

Mrs. Brown, who has been in failing health during the last year, was not even allowed to rest the remainder of the night in the ma-tron's ward. She was thrown into a cell in the compartment where men prisoners are kept and refused bond.

She was told she would be held for examination to determine whether or not she should be committed to the Women's Detention home.

Immediately upon the arrival of Detective Chief Dunn at the police station yesterday he ordered the woman sent to the matron's ward until he could investigate. She was carried up the steps at the police station on a stretcher. She was unable to walk as a result of a sprained knee, which she suffered when the keeper of the cell just roughly pushed her in her cell. No medical attention was offered her until Chief Dunn called the physician.

Mrs. Brown then was carried out of the police station on a stretcher and conveyed to the hospital in an ambulance. The family physician and her son are at the bedside.

The woman's son declared that Detective Herdzine was intoxicated when he came to their house.

Will Prosecute Officer.

Mrs. Brown's case was continued in police court yesterday because she was unable to appear. Attorney Lloyd A. Magney, who is representing her, declared that he was going to prosecute Herdzine and Armstrong to the very limit.

"I shall file charges with the city commission and insist that these men be suspended from the force," said Mr. Magney. "I do not think I shall institute a damage suit, because Mrs. Brown has plenty of money. However, I am going to prosecute to the very limit and see that these men pay the extreme penalty for this brutal and outrageous conduct."

Says Officer Was Drunk.

"I will swear to the city commission and before any court that Her-dzine was absolutely drunk when he came to our house Friday morning," declared Mr. Brown. "Naturally I was infuriated when Herdzine refused to leave the room while my mother dressed. While I struggled with the detective I noticed the odor of whisky on his breath."

When Chief Dunn heard of Mr.
Brown's attempt to eject Herdzine from his mother's room he declared the young man had done exactly the proper thing. "He should have knocked his head off," was the comment of Chief Dunn.

Chief Dunn declared that following a complaint received about the house at 2105 Cass street he instructed the detectives to watch the place and report to him what they saw.
"I did not tell the men to raid the home without a warrant," said the chief of detectives, "and I said nothing to them about invading Mrs.
Brown's residence." Chief Dunn expressed himself as extremely sorry for Mrs. Brown and her son and daughter. He condemned the tactics employed by his men.

"We feel that Chief Dunn is sincere in the expressions of regret and sympathy," said Attorney Magney. "I believe the chief of detectives will recommend the suspension of Herdzine and Armstrong
"Nothing to Say."

"Have you anything to say regarding the arrest of Mrs. Brown, or the circumstances of the case?" was asked of Chief Eberstein.

"I haven't received a report on the case yet. I have nothing to say," replied the chief, who was not inclined to state when he would receive the report or when he would make a statement.

Police Commissioner Ringer was similarly questioned, and he was more brief in his words than the chief.

"Nothing to say," was the response of the police commissioner.

Three of Girls Fined.

Judge Foster fined Miss Applegate and Miss Baldwin $25 on costs each and $50 on costs each. Miss Kubat was discharged.

The accused were adjudged guilty on the testimony of Detectives Herdzine and Armstrong, whose stories were in direct opposition to those told by the other witnesses.

A whisky bottle containing a small quantity of liquor and several drinking glasses were offered in evidence, which the detectives declared they seized in the raid. The prisoners asserted they were seated in the room talking when the officers forced their way into their midst.
They declared that one of the roomers had taken the whisky from a friend down town after accompaning him home in an intoxicated condition.

The accused denied that they were drinking and declared the whisky had been left on the table only a short while before the officers entered the house.

Washington, June 6.—The resolution of Senator Johnson, republican of California, requesting the State department to furnish the senate with a copy of the German peace treaty was adopted today by the senate without a roll call, without further debate and with only a handful of senators present. Without a record vote and after a sharp debate, the senate adopted a resolution by Senator Hitchcock, democrat of Nebraska, providing for an inquiry into the charges made on the floor two days ago by Chairman Lodge and Senator Borah, of the foreign relations committee. Action on the Hitchcock resolution came after a substitute resolution by Senator Kelllogg, republican of Minnesota, had been withdrawn at the request of Senator Lodge. Senator Hitchcock charged the substitute would not authorize the investigation he proposed in his resolution.
