

STATE CHAIRMAN TO BE ELECTED BY REPUBLICANS

Interest Centers in Candidate to Fill Vacancy of Ed Beach; Meeting Opens Tuesday.

Lincoln, June 8.—(Special).—Much interest is being taken in the meeting of the republican state committee which has been called for 2 o'clock, Tuesday afternoon, in this city.

The main interest centers in the election of a state chairman to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of former Chairman Ed Beach last January.

Myron L. Learned, vice chairman has been acting chairman but is understood not to desire the place.

R. W. Devoe, chairman of the last republican state convention, has also been mentioned, but it is understood that Mr. Devoe is reluctant to accept because of his large business activities along the line of his profession which takes so much of his time.

Secretary Nels Hansen, has also been mentioned for the place, but it is understood that he is not active and much prefers to remain in his present position where he has been looking after headquarters since the resignation of Mr. Beach.

Still others are boosting for Frank P. Corrick who was once secretary and later chairman for the progressive party committee, but is now back on the reservation.

Annual Educational Conference to Be Held in Lincoln This Week

Lincoln, June 8.—Beginning Monday, June 9, at agricultural hall at the state university farm, an annual conference in vocational education, conducted by C. A. Fulmer, state director, will be held. The meeting will continue the entire week.

Among the speakers from outside the state will be Miss Mildred Weigley, state supervisor of home economics of Minnesota; George A. Works, professor of rural education at Cornell university, who will both speak Monday afternoon. The address of welcome will be made by Governor McKelvie.

The entire week's program will be an especially interesting and instructive one and will include some of the best speakers in the United States, among them, Grace Gordon Hood of Cincinnati, who will speak Thursday afternoon and again Friday and L. S. Hawkins, chief of division of vocational education, Federal board, Washington, D. C., who will speak on Thursday morning.

The Lyman H. Howe Travel Festival which started its four-day engagement at the Brandeis theater yesterday, takes the audience upon a tour of Japan; into the Canadian wilds on a canoe fishing trip; through Yellowstone National park; into the Italian Alps, where the skis warriors of democracy are trained; in leaping the loop warplanes over the city of Washington; down the mysterious Ocklawaha river in the Florida glades; and upon a thrilling adventure in the South seas, where huge sea elephants are captured alive. Characteristic Howe animated cartoons and film novelties complete the program.

William Stowell, who appears in the role of "Eagle Ryan" in support of Mildred Harris—Mrs. Charlie Chaplin—in "When a Girl Loves," which will be shown at the Brandeis theater next Thursday and Friday only, has added to his many laurels as a musician by scoring a distinct triumph as a song writer.

Sessue Hayakawa, undoubtedly a most interesting and virile dramatic personality of the silent drama, has never done a stronger characterization than Goro Moriyama, the role he assumes in "His Debt," at the Muse again today and Tuesday.

The highly emotional and thrilling situations in the play afford this master actor many opportunities for the display of his superior talents, and he succeeds in making the character of the Japanese gambler who relentlessly pays "His Debt," almost uncanny in its vivid realism.

The play emphasizes the racial differences of the orient and occident, while in the development is shown the wide gulf between the two peoples which can never be bridged. It shows the relentless, fatalistic Buddhist and the tolerant western Christian.

JESS WILLARD'S FAMILY NURSE HURT IN SMASH

Has Three Ribs Broken and Other Serious Injuries in Auto Accident Sunday Afternoon.

Lawrence, Kan., June 8.—(Special Telegram).—Mrs. E. B. Post, children's nurse from Chicago for the Jess Willard family here, had three ribs broken on the left side and other serious internal injuries in an auto accident here Sunday afternoon between the big Kissel car driven by Mrs. Jess Willard and a Maxwell driven by Deputy Sheriff Charley Crowder, of this county. Mrs. Post is in such a serious condition that she is being rushed to Chicago, where she will receive expert medical attention.

Mrs. Jess Willard, wife of the heavyweight champion, was driving west on Ninth street to the ranch just west of the city limits after a visit to the home of her parents in East Lawrence. At Tennessee street she encountered Deputy Sheriff Crowder racing south to investigate an alleged incendiary fire at Baldwin, just south of this city.

Both drivers saw each other just in time to swing the cars into the curbing so that a more serious accident was avoided. Mrs. Post, who was in the rear seat with Allan Willard, youngest son of the champion, was thrown with great force against the front seat, breaking three ribs on the left side, with other serious injuries. Mrs. Willard, with her sister, Miss Delma Evans, in the front seat, were uninjured.

Two Bus Boys Held on Highway Robbery Charge

Frank Swager and Okley McCleod, bus boys at the Havens hotel, arrested Sunday by Detectives Dolan and Hagerman, were identified at Central station by Alex Siskind, driver for the Smith Taxi company, as the two men who held up and robbed him in front of the Nicholas Senn hospital at midnight Friday.

Siskind reported to the police that he had been held up by two unidentified men, each flourishing a revolver. A watch, stickpin and $28 in money were taken by the robbers, he said.

The men were unarmed when arrested. They are being held for further investigation in connection with several other recent robberies in which two men have figured.

A druggist in Rochester, Ind., sold over fifty packages of Chamberlain's Tablets on the recommendation of one of his lady customers, who used them with such good results that she persuaded her friends to try them. They are excellent for stomach troubles, constipation and biliousness.
