Residents Near Location of Proposed Institution Ask Restricted Residence Zone; Council May Act.

A meeting of protest, held last night in the City Planning board's rooms in the city hall against the proposed establishment of a maternity hospital by Dr. Palmer Findley or Thirty-ninth street, north of Farnam street, resulted in an offer that these residents pay the doctor for the investment he has made in the site, plus other expenses and that the planning board shall there-upon recommend to the city council that this neighborhood be restricted for residence purposes. Dr. Findley did not signify would seek by injunction in the district court to restrain the doctor from carrying out his plans.

Inasmuch as all of these residents asked to have their neighporhood zoned as a residence disthe planners would be safe in ac ceding to this general request.

Would Depreciate Property. Mrs. L. F. Crofoot said: "This ospital would depreciate our property which is across the street from proposed location. We would not be able to give it away. Why couldn't the doctor place his hosital near the University hospital on orty-second street? He would be velcome out there. He is seeking o locate his hospital in an estab ished residence neighborhood. Why couldn't we get an injunction in court against the hospital?"

Mrs. H. H. Baldrige asked those "I would suggest that the planjust such a situation as this one," said Mrs. E. G. McGilton, After Dr. Findley explained his ntention of accepting the offer, but the protestants believe that he will. Those who attended the meeting uttered strong words of condemna-tion against the building of this institution in a neighborhood that has been developed for many years as a fine residence community. There were hints that if no other solution should present itself, the residents

Members of the planning board were at first shy of the proposition of recommending this particular district as a restricted residence section, because they have been under the impression that a new law requires them to zone the entire city.

"It is evident that the residents of Thirty-ninth street and of Thirty-eighth avenue are unanimously opposed to this hospital," said L. F Crofoot, "I think that this board is undertaking a colossal task to try to zone the whole city. The men of this district will buy the property from Dr. Findley if the plan ning board will recommend the district as a residence zone to the city council. There is an unanimity of hostility that would work against the success of the hospital should it be established. I know that I would have a hammer out for it."

E. G. McGilton suggested that

Dr. Finley might locate his hospital in Bemis park, which is the doctor's home neighborhood.

O. C. Redick wanted to know what the planning board would do if the hospital should be established and then a boiler works or soap factory should be located next door. By the same token, he argued, the board should now protect the residents against the encroachment of Roughing it in the

"Roughing it de-luxe" expresses what a summer outing may be in the National Parks of the West.

All the joys of the wilderness, within easy reach of modern hotels and railroad trains.

Here you can camp out—climb mountains—go fishing—and hit the trail-in a region of peaks and canyons, glaciers and geysers, Indians and bears, deep woods and ice-fed lakes. Around the corner are modern resort hotels and miles of auto boulevards. Summer excursion fares.

Ask for the booklets you want. They describe Yellowstone, Glacier, Rocky Mountain, Mt. Rai-nier, Crater Lake, Yosemite, Sequoia, Hawaii, Grand Canyon, Petrified Forest, Zion, Mess Verde and Hot Springs of Arkansas.
