Another Witness Tells How Police Try to Wreck Reputation of Mrs. Brown

Officials, Not Content With Sending Prominent Woman To Hospital By Brutal Treatment, Continue Disgraceful Efforts To "Get Something On Her" In Attempt To Justify Arrest.

While Commissioner Ringer was devoting every effort in city council Wednesday for time in which to spirit witnesses out of Omaha and prepare their defense of Detectives Herzina and Armstrong, the officers who outraged the privacy of the home at 508 North Twenty-first street, in a further attempt to wreck the reputation of Mrs. Thomas Brown, policemen were giving the third degree to Wilma Reed, who was arrested in the Cass street house of Mrs. Brown and who is being held at the Detention home. Mayor Smith aided Mr. Ringer in getting a postponement of the hearing.

Assisted by Miss Alta Berger, two policemen questioned Miss Reed for hours. Exhausted and driven to distraction by the unmerciful and grueling examination, the girl was ready to collapse when she was compelled to sign a typewritten statement alleged to have been a stenographic report of the affair.

Tells Parents Story.

Miss Reed told her parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. I. Reed of Shenandoah, the story Tuesday when they visited her in the Detention home.

She declared that Miss Berger threatened to hold her a prisoner indefinitely unless she signed the statement. Despite the fact that Dr. Palmer Findley told Attorney Lloyd A. Magney that the girl's examination showed she was not afflicted with disease, and Mr. Reed has offered repeatedly to pay any fine Judge Foster assessed against his daughter, she is being held a prisoner. Miss Berger told Mr. Reed his daughter was diseased.

Afraid Girl Will Talk.

Mr. Reed's request that he be allowed to take her home and have her treated by the family physician was refused. Mr. Reed was told by a detective in the office of Chief Dunn that there was nothing the matter with her, but that she was being held because Commissioner Ringer and Chief Eberstein were afraid "she would tell what she knew."

"I cannot afford to talk too much," the officer said to Mr. Reed. "If I did, it would mean my job. I had a long talk with your daughter and I know she is innocent. She is being held because the higher-ups are afraid she will talk."

Given Third Degree.

Here are some of the questions in reply to which Miss Reed wrote her answers and handed them to her mother:

"Did they threaten you in order to get you to sign the statement?"

"They told me I would be held until I did sign it."

"Did they let you read the statement before you signed it?"

"They tried to get me to sign it without reading it. I refused to do so. They finally yielded and let me read it."

"Were you given the third degree?"

"I certainly was."

"How many persons were questioning you at one time?"

"Three."

"Did anyone attempt to get you to say anything detrimental to Mrs. Brown?"

"Yes, they made every possible effort. I could not and I refused."

"Did they try to get you to make a false statement in regard to the character of the house at 2106 Cass street?"

"Yes, they did."

Miss Berger Defiant.

Mr. and Mrs. Reed gained entrance to the Detention home following numerous attempts on the part of the father during the last three days. When Commissioner Zimman heard Tuesday that Dr. Palmer Findley and Miss Berger were determined not to allow the mother and father to talk to their daughter, he took immediate steps to get permission for them to visit the institution.

Mr. Zimman went to the police station with the couple, instructed Chief Dunn to take them to the home and explain to Miss Berger that they should be allowed to talk to their daughter. Miss Berger refused again.

"I am taking no orders from Commissioner Zimman," she asserted. "We are running this institution to suit ourselves."

Mr. Zimman heard of how Mr. and Mrs. Reed had been treated. He applied to Commissioner Ringer's office for permission from the health department. The police commissioner's secretary was prevailed on to sign a pass and again Mr. Zimman accompanied the couple to the Detention home. Miss Berger reluctantly admitted them.

Offered Her Job.

As further evidence of the fact that the police are using their every endeavor to get rid of witnesses, Mrs. Esther Applegate, one of the girls released from the Detention home, yesterday morning received a letter from Atchison, Kas., offering her a position. The communication was signed "Dr. H." and mailed on train. Mrs. Applegate is of the opinion that the letter was written with a view to getting her to leave the city. She declared she would pay no attention to it.

The tactics of the police also were revealed further yesterday by Miss Margaret Heithe, who lives with Miss Wilma Reed at 2106 Cass street. Miss Heithe stayed with friends in Council Bluffs the night of the raid. She declared that one of the plain clothes men from the police station had been annoying her for the past three days.

"I do not know his name," said Miss Heithe, "but I know he is a detective, because he was pointed out to me. I have forgotten his name. First he came to the store where I worked and tried to make an engagement with me. I was indignant and refused to talk to him. Later he followed me on the street and tried to talk to me. I ignored him and escaped each time. Repeatedly he has called me on the telephone and tried to get me to go out with him. The last time he called I hung up the phone after telling him I would appeal somewhere else for protection if he did not stop annoying me. A short while later he appeared at the front door and begged me to let him come in. He asked me all kinds of questions about the raid. I shut the door in his face, but he continues to call and ask me to meet him."

Will Appeal to Sheriff.

"If the man annoys me any further, my friends have advised me to appeal to Sheriff Clark for protection. I shall do this. I have no relatives in the city and I don't know what to do to put a stop to this man's overtures. I am actually afraid to step out on the street after dark. Some one is watching the house all the time. They come into the hallway and the other night some one tried to get in Mrs. Applegate's room at 3:30 o'clock."
