

SENATOR WALSH SPEAKS IN FAVOR OF LEAGUE PACT

Asserts Opponents Have Trumped Up Many Unsubstantiated Objections to Play Upon People.

Washington, June 11.—Asserting that opponents of the league of nations have trumped up many unsubstantiated objections to play upon popular sensitiveness, Senator Walsh, democrat, of Montana, defended the league covenant in the senate today against charges that it subverts the American constitution.

Answering Senators Lodge, republican of Massachusetts; Knox, republican of Pennsylvania, and others who urged constitutional objections, the Montana senator declared their arguments founded on theories long since disproved. He quoted many precedents to support his position that the covenant neither sets aside any constitutional prerogative nor assumes any new power in treaty making.

League Not a "Superstate"

Charges that the league would be a "superstate" he declared to be a "mere declamation," since the organization in most of the provisions complained of could only "advise" or "recommend." The celebrated Article 10, he continued, certainly would bind the United States to make war in certain instances, but added that the same obligation had been assumed by various treaties made by this government in the past.

Referring to assertions that the league would be a "super-government," the senator quoted from the covenant at length and continued: "It is idle to assert that an organization thus equipped is a government at all. It has no army and no treasury and no means of securing either. Though it may render decisions, it cannot make laws, neither can it levy taxes."

Plan Is Not Perfect.

Senator Walsh said no one contended the league covenant was perfect. But it was a "mere subterfuge," he declared, to talk of amending it.

"What the senate may do," he continued, "is to propose amendments."

which in substance is a rejection of the treaty with a condition. The whole subject is thus opened up and negotiations must be resumed. Doubtless other nations will propose amendments. The stupendous labors of the past six months are undone, peace is as far away as it was last December.

PROBE ON LEAK OF PEACE PACT "FLIVVERS" OUT

being consulted by the American mission.

Mr. Root gave it as his opinion that there was nothing improper in the way the treaty reached him and that he was free to use it as he chose. There could be nothing secret about it, he told the committee, because the German government had made it public.

Rumors of Other Copies.

All the witnesses said they had heard rumors of other copies in New York, but did not know where they existed. Like statements were made in telegrams to the committee by Jacob Schiff of Kuhn, Loeb & Co., and Paul Warburg, formerly a partner in the same firm.

Wednesday night the inquiry seemed to have reached a standstill because no one had any further witnesses to suggest. Senator Lodge and Senator Borah, republican, of Idaho, who made the revelations which started the investigation, said they considered all their statements in the senate had been proved, and Senator Hitchcock, democrat, of Nebraska, author of the investigation resolution, declared the inquiry apparently had lapsed without showing any dangerous leak in diplomatic channels.

BANKERS SEE SECOND SHOW OF SEASON AT DEN

One of Largest Crowds in History Entertained at Ak-Sar-Ben Initiation; Lists Close July 15.

One of the biggest nights in the history of Ak-Sar-Ben was last night. Though it was only the second "show" of the season, the den was jammed to the guards with a hilarious bunch of fellows who laughed themselves into near-hysterics at the initiations and the drooleries of the best show ever devised by the authors, librettists and artificers of the great King Ak-Sar-Ben.

Even "Dad" Weaver, hardened though he is, was excited. After writing new membership cards until his wrist ached, he deputized several of his fellow workers to take a census of the automobiles which filled all the vacant space for a block around the den. The count came to 465 cars.

Bankers and Undertakers Guests.

Numerous chartered street cars brought the major portion of the state bankers and state undertakers to the den. These gentlemen, now here in annual convention, were the guests of the evening.

The wonders of the show have been detailed before. The chorus is a marvel. The stage settings are worthy of the professional stage. So are the lighting effects.

Frank Latenser as Bacchus leaves nothing to be desired. Walter Adams in a female impersonation made a big hit. Oscar Lieben, Henry Dunn, Charles Docherty and all the rest of the principals did great work.

Lists Close July 15.

The surprise stunts are also of an originality worthy of Gustavus Augustus Renze, the world's greatest artificer.

Let all those dilatory sons of the realm of Quivera give ear to a new edict, decided upon at a meeting of the hustling committee yesterday and promulgated by "Dad" Weaver last night. If you want to join Ak-Sar-Ben you must do it before July 15. The membership list will close on that date, says "Dad." Last night's total was 3,377, a gain of 256 new members since last week. And the hustling committee says the expected 5,000 will be on the membership roll by July 15. And those who aren't there by that time can "whistle" for tickets to the Ak-Sar-Ben ball.

Next Monday will be Sarpy county night and 1,000 citizens of that county are expected to see the show and participate in the initiations.

Presidents Reply to Marshal Foch over Forces in Lithuania

Berlin, June 11.—In reply to the demand by Marshal Foch, president of the 28 regarding the maintenance of German forces in Lithuania and Latvia north of a certain line, Germany has presented a note to the allied armistice commission at Spa asserting that according to Article XII of the armistice Germany has the right to carry out a withdrawal which has already begun, in the regions formerly belonging to Russia. The German note says that Germany does not object to abandoning the territory south of the line marked out.

The systematic evacuation of Lithuania and Latvia, it adds, probably will be finished in six to eight weeks. General von der Goltz, the German commander in that part of Russia, has received orders not to interfere in the internal affairs of Latvia. Regarding the concentration of troops mentioned by Marshal Foch, the German reply says it is only a question of units which have since been removed from the Baltic provinces.

Delinquent Tax Bill On President's Farm Paid by Man In Jail

Los Angeles, June 11.—George A. Fox, convicted of obtaining money by false pretenses prevented the sale of President Wilson's ranch in Riverside county for delinquent taxes by paying them himself; it became known here today when Fox in the county jail, received a telegram of thanks from J. P. Tumulty, the president's secretary. "I considered it my patriotic duty," was the only comment Fox made.

The tax bill was $37.21. The property is 61 acres in extent and was purchased before Mr. Wilson became president.

Secretary Tumulty learned of Fox's action when, receiving delayed information of the property sale he wired C. R. Sibbs, tax collector, of Riverside county. News of the sale was published in newspapers.

In direct contradiction to the statement made by officials of the Western Union Telegraph company, J. W. Dudley, vice chief, declared yesterday morning that 250 operators and machine attendants are out.

UNION LEADERS SAY MANY FIRMS GRANT DEMANDS

Wednesday afternoon, declared that the Western Union officials who represented that less than 10 per cent of their employes had gone out were deliberately misrepresenting the facts.

It was stated by Mike H. Donelin, secretary of the local telegraphers' organization, that but half of the men were in attendance, the remainder doing picket duty. The night shift had gone home after picketing all night Tuesday and Wednesday morning, he said.

George Kleffner, head of the Federal employment agency in this city, also addressed the strikers. He urged caution in conducting the strike, but praised the action of the men and women who had walked out when a living wage was refused them.

Girls Promised Support.

Support of many of the locals has been promised the girls, who though not members of the union, walked out with the telegraphers.

A committee of seven girls was appointed. This committee will work among members of their own sex and do picket duty. A union of the striking feminine employes will soon be organized.

Officials of the Telegraphers' union as well as heads of the company agreed that no strikers are yet returning to work although the threat has been made that they may not be reinstated.

It has been reported that messenger boys had returned to work, but this was denied by Mr. Donely.

In direct contradiction to the statement made by officials of the Western Union Telegraph company, J. W. Dudley, vice chief, declared yesterday morning that 250 operators and machine attendants are out.

Business operations in the company have not in any way been interfered with, the two officials stated. Messages will be handled as heretofore. The strike ended in failure at its inception in other cities, they said.

J. G. Wolf, manager of the local branch of the Postal Telegraph and Cable Co., did not attempt to minimize the extent of the strike. Twenty-two of the key men and nine girl machine attendants are out he said.

The company has 35 men and women in the local branch, he stated. All messages are being accepted with the understanding that they are subject to delay. So far all business has been successfully handled, although every one of the union employes is out. Several non-union men also struck at the request of the organized men.

As the federal government guarantees the telegraph companies against loss at the present time, Mr. Wolf anticipates government action in the near future.

Police on Guard.

A cordon of policemen has been thrown about the vicinity of the Teamsters' hall, 513 North Sixteenth street. Anticipating danger as a result of the strike, policemen have been placed at Fourteenth and Farnam streets to guard against violence. At neither point has any trouble been reported. Picketing is in progress at both places.

Chief of Police Eberstein announced that he will appoint point 50 special policemen for strike duty. "We will probably increase this number to 100 to protect the interests of the city," said the chief.

For more than three weeks heads of the Teamsters' union attempted to come to an amicable understanding with the employers. They demanded a general increase in wages of about $3 a week and the right to organize. Discrimination against the union men was also one of the factors which caused the men to strike yesterday. Mayor Smith interceded in behalf of the drivers, but he was unable to effect an agreement. Believing further dickering useless, the men called a special meeting for Tuesday evening to take definite action. With only

Colored Woman Who Shot Husband Must Face Murder Charge

Lincoln, June 11.—Mrs. Hattie Peoples, who shot her husband, Leon Peoples, Monday morning, will have to stand trial on a charge of murder, the coroner's jury Tuesday night finding her guilty of having fired the shot which caused his death.

There had been some trouble between Peoples and his wife, negroes, according to the woman, and Peoples had taken her to the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Coleman, who live at 1415 North Eighteenth street, Omaha. Mrs. Peoples discovered, she says, that Leon was spending his money on another woman and she came to Lincoln to investigate.

She went to the Buckstaff garage, where her husband was working, and requested that he do something for the support of the family. She asked him to step outside and he refused. She then drew a revolver and shot him. He was holding a 3-month-old baby when the shot was fired.

Mrs. Peoples says that she shot to mark him and had no intention of killing him. Another child of the couple was left in Omaha with the woman's parents, Mrs. Peoples is in the city jail.

San Francisco, June 11.—The San Francisco Chronicle, for many years a political opponent of United States Senator Hiram W. Johnson, will announce Thursday in a full-page editorial its support of a movement to obtain for Senator Johnson the republican nomination for president.

The editorial refers to the Chronicle's former opposition to Mr. Johnson, but points out that it was based solely on differences concerning state policies when Mr. Johnson was governor.
