Army Appropriation Bill Is Held Up by Parliamentary Tiff

Washington, June 12.—Final ac-tion on the 1920 army appropria-tion bill was delayed in the house as the result of a brisk parliamentiary skirmish over a proviso prohibiting the war department from using any part of the appropriation or any unexpected balances now in its possession for the purchase o Reductions totaling $90,500,000 were made, reducing the total from $810,000,000 to $718,650,000, or $535,-000,000 less than original war department estimates.

Representative Madden, republi can, of Illinois, declared that more than 500,000 acres of land had been purchased near Camp Benning, Ga., at a cost of about $7,000,000 for a small arms practice field, even though a similar field existed at Fort Sill, Okl. He characterized government's money which should be considered the same as embezzlement." Representative McKensie, republican, of Illinois, asserted that this was only one of numerous 'flagrant abuses.' Democrats replied to the charges by declaring that they were as much ithout foundation as other charges which the majority party had been making.

Charles Ford, secretary of the brotherhood, denied reports that some of the members already had walked out in sympathy with striking telegraphers.

S. J. ### Juarez Still Held by Federal Forces, But Rebels Approach

Juarez, June 12.—After a day of anxiety Juarez is still in the hands of the forces of the federal government. Rebel troops are reported on three sides of the town at distances variously estimated at from 2 to 20 miles, the latter estimate being that of the federal commander, Gen. Francisco Gonzales.
Several times during the day there have been reports that the rebels were coming, which caused a scurrying indoors, but each time the report proved false. The military authorities are reticent about the whereabouts of rebels, but the general belief is that to the east of Juarez they are just beyond rifle range of the federal trenches. This belief is confirmed by observers with field glasses who watched dust clouds moving from the southeast, indicating the pres-ence of a considerable force of mounted men.

Five hundred federal cavalry who left in that direction early this morning had not returned up to 8 o'clock tonight, but General Gon-zales says he has been in constant touch with them through runners.
