What Opera Will Mean to Music Lovers Here

Omaha Is to Have Grand Opera Next Season for Two Days.

By HENRIETTA M. REES Opera company is one of the really Van Brunt, big grand opera companies of the country, and we are assured of fine productions with beautiful scenery, a large chorus, an adequate orchestra, and recognized stars of song in leading roles, because all of these things are a part of this company. It is also interesting that 12 trumpeters and a ballet and premiere danseuse will take part in the produc-tion of "Aida," which opera will be given the second evening. Since Omaha is undoubtedly too small and not sufficiently rich and musical to support an opera company of its own, the very next best thing is to have a season of opera given by the Chicago com-pany. This will bring a galaxy of stars to Omaha, and give us the opportunity of hearing grand opera on Community house on Saturday eve-a scale which it is usually necessary to go to either Chicago or New York City to obtain.

The box office is the pulse of the public in any part of the country, and if the pulse of Omaha beats high for artistic and aesthetic productions, which are at the summit of their kind, those are the things which we will get. But if our pulse beats slow and responds with financial vigor to cheap and unaesthetic attractions, what manager is going to go out of his Wednesday evening for Miss Ruth

Mrs. Sheldon Returns From Council Meeting With Much Information

Mrs. Addison E. Sheldon, presilent of the ..ebraska Federation of. Women's Clubs, returned to Nebraska today from the east. She attended the council meeting of the General Federation of Women's Clubs at Asheville, N. C., and also represented the Nebraska Woman Suffrage association in Washington during the senate discussion on the federal amendment.

Mrs. Sheldon says the council meeting was attended by 736 women. All states except Arizona, Montana and Wyoming were represented. The state presidents voted unanimously upon a resolution asking the general federation board to appoint a committee to bring before the 1920 biennial meeting at Des Moines, plans for reorganizing the federation with a view to simplifying its machinery and methods. leed of this reorganization was presented from the platform in a ringing speech by Mrs. L. L. Blanken-burg of Philadelphia, and urged from the floor by Mrs. Philip N. Moore of St. Louis. The board adopted the recommendation, but the committee of five has not yet been announced.
