

Union Outfitting Co. Makes Purchase of Sheets, Pillow Cases and Bed Spreads

Opportunities for Economy on Bed Linens Were Never More Plentiful.

Widely Known Makes Such as "Wear Well" and "Marathon" Included.

Purchase Was Made Months Ago, Before the Cotton Market Had Advanced.

This sale of Bed Spreads, Sheets and Pillow Cases at the Union Outfitting Company next Saturday, is a remarkable sale because of the rapidly advancing cotton market. In fact, the sale prices would be impossible if the goods had to be purchased at today's wholesale prices.

Housewives will find it profitable to go through home stocks and replace all Bed Linens that are worn out.

The purchase includes such a large range of desirable qualities, and was so large that a greatly enlarged floor space will be required to properly handle the sale.

This sale is further evidence of the tremendous buying power of the Union Outfitting Company, located just outside of the High Rent District, where, as always, you make your own terms.

LOCAL STRIKERS HEARTENED BY REGENT ORDER

Officials Here Say Action of Railway Telegraphers Will Have Important Bearing on the Situation.

The 250 striking commercial telegraphers and the feminine automatic machine operators who obeyed the strike order and walked out Wednesday took a new heart yesterday when it was announced to them that railroad telegraphers would refuse to handle commercial messages after 6 o'clock Saturday evening.

Local strike officials declared that the action of the Order of Railroad Telegraphers would have an important bearing on the final outcome of the strike.

More than 150 of the men and women affected by the strike were present at a meeting held in the Labor Temple Thursday afternoon. Several speakers addressed them. After the meeting the strikers marched in a body to draw the salaries due them from the Western Union Telegraph company.

Pickets have been working continually since the beginning of the strike.

Officials of both the Western Union and the Postal declared the situation improved this morning.

A number of girl multiplex operators have been imported by Western Union Company officials refused to say from what city the girls were imported.

Urges Nebraska Farmers to Combat Bolshevism

Beatrice, Neb., June 12.—(Special Telegram.)—The Gage county farmers' union held their annual picnic here Thursday, about 500 being in attendance. State President G. F. Gustafson gave the principal address, urging farmers to co-operate against bolshevism and I. W. W. in this country. It was his opinion that farmers generally were against the condition of the winter wheat and the ravages of the cut worm were the principal subjects discussed.

Recovering From Injury.—Murdoch G. Macleod, cashier in the office of the clerk of the district court, who was injured about three months ago in falling from a high stool to the floor, is slowly recovering.

Zionists to Meet Sunday.—Local Zionists will hold an important meeting Sunday evening at the Nineteenth and Burr streets synagogue. Rabbi Morris Taxon and A. Cohn, delegates to the national convention, recently held in Cincinnati, will present reports.

Sues Railroad Company.—Sam Rippa filed suit in district court against the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy railroad for $2,000 damages for injuries, which he says he received when an electric truck ran into the scaffold on which he was working in the freight depot and threw him to the floor on December 17, 1917.

Suit Dismissed.—District Judge Wakeley yesterday dismissed the suit of Harvey L. Walker against James J. Parks, Mary Parks, James Parks, Jr., and Mary Corcoran for $25,000 on the ground that the prosecution had failed to show that a conspiracy existed among the defendants against him. The suit was a result of a "row" between the two families, who are neighbors in the vicinity of Sixteenth street and Missouri avenue.

Prisoner Tells Judge Policeman Knew of Bootlegging On Beat

"The place where that officer arrested me was right in front of a bootlegging joint, and he knows bootlegging is going on there." A. B. Swift of 4508 North Twentieth street told Acting Judge Holmes in police court yesterday morning. Patrolman Heller arrested Swift at Twenty-fourth and Decatur streets early this morning. Swift said he was drunk, but staggering from a blow on the head dealt him by a thug. His head was swathed in bandages and caked in blood when he appeared in police court. He was sentenced to 10 days in jail.

Live Stock Men Endorse Plans for New Highway

The Omaha Live Stock exchange has formally endorsed the proposition of the public improvement department to establish a permanent highway from Thirty-second and Grover streets to Thirty-third and I streets, a distance of three-quarters of a mile, and thence in a southerly westerly direction to Forty-fourth and Q streets, one and one-quarter of a mile.

Julius Orkin Compelled to Continue His Remarkable Choice of the House Sale

So Immense Were the Crowds That Thronged the Store Today That Hundreds Failed to Receive Any Service.

Buying Was At Fever Heat All Day.

Many women will receive this news with a smile. The great choice of the house sale announced for Thursday only by Julius Orkin, has proven so phenomenal that the crowds which attended the sale could not be waited upon. In justice to those who were unable to be served and to those who could not attend Thursday, the sale will be continued throughout Friday and Saturday. The news of this sale has spread like wildfire amongst the better dressed women of the city. Friends called up friends telling them of the magnitude of the values, the beauty of the garments involved. Many are selecting two, three and four garments, realizing they realize that it will be many months before another such event will be apt to unfold itself in this city.
