School Garden Club Making Progress

The United States School Garden Army club is making progress. Interest is high and some excellent gardens can be found, these being worked in entirety by the boys and girls alone. Messrs. Bevington, Schainholtz, Anderson, Swearington and Hoctor have already chosen the officers of the club; that is, the rank the contestants shall have, based on the merits of the gardens. There is a captain for the girls, and one for the boys; four first lieutenants, three boys, and one girl; five second lieutenants; three boys and two girls; and thirty privates. Mrs. Smith and Mrs. Morton are at the present time attaching the ribbon to te honor Army club is making progress. Inattaching the ribbon to te honor badges. After an interview with Mr. Ihm on June 4, it was decided that work should be started on a boys and grils' canning club from among the contestants. This club is under state supervision and directly under that of Mr. Ihm and Mr. Hoctor. Mayor Smih is now considering the advisability of building at Twenty-fourth and N streets a stand with accommodation for at least twelve commodation for at least twelve gardeners, to enable them to market their excess produce, and indirectly a market for chickens, rabbits, etc.

The South Side Woman's club has consented to patronize it. At least 25 of the Settlement gardeners will have excess produce to dispose of.
