Omaha Wins Double-Header From Sioux City Despite Two Near-Riots in Second Game.

Befeore a crowd of 5,000 fans Omaha copped a double-header from Sioux City yesterday afternoon at Rourke park, despite the fact that mpire Ducky Holmes had his off day and chased two of the star athetes-Third Sacker Barbeau and Manager Jackson-to the elubhouse in the second game for disputing his ecisions.

In the first game the Rourke's won by a 5 to 0 score, while it took them 12 frames to win the second by a 10 to 9 score. The first event on was fast, snappy and entertaining and at no time of the contest were the locals in danger of losing, because Southpaw Townsend had the Indians at his mercy all through the Indians at his mercy all through the game, although he was touched for 8 hits, including a pair of doubles, and whiffed 3. In the 5 innings that Rasmusson worked for the visitors. Rasmusson worked for the visitors he was hit for 7 bingles, including two doubles by Hale, one by Pat worked a three-bagger by him. 18.00 Kirby. Allison, who relieved him, also was hit safely.

Second Game Exciting.

The second contest was probably the most exciting one witnessed on the local field, both from the base ball standpoint and the fans' excitement. Umpire Holmes got in bad with the spectators when he chased Barbeau from the field in the secsion of th ond inning of the second contest for disputing a decision on strikes. Manager Jackson shifted his lineup and sent Spellman to left field and Omaha 1 2 5 0 0 0 0 0 1 0 0 1-10 Sloux City ... 0 0 3 0 0 0 5 0 1 0 0 0 - 9 Kirby to third base.

Because of the telegraphers' strike, details of the Pesek-Zbyzsko match at Gordon had to be phoned Perfect connections were impossible and the message was relayed by two operators between Gordon and Omaha, consequently, there was bound to be some few errors in the story as it appeared in Sunday's Bee. About 4,000 howling fans saw and applauded the victory of the Nebraska man, under a tent crected on the old racing course. The men wrestled on fairly even terms for the first hour, at the close of which the Shelton farmer secured a toe hold, pressing it down into Zibby's back unmercifully. The Pole suc-ceeded in reaching Pesek's arm with a wrist lock and to break this hold, Pesek released the toe grip, but it had a great weakening effect on his

From that time on, Pesek was the aggressor and forced "Zyb" around the ring, behind almost constantly when they were on the mat. When two hours were called, the Pole made a desperate effort to break free from the farmer's arms. He succeeded in arising to his feet and through the efforts of his opponent went right on up until he was as high as Pesek's shoulders. John slammed him to the mat so hard that he was dazed and had hardly moved when the head scissors was put on

The huge bulk of Zbyszko pre -ably saved him from an earlier defeat, for after the first hour, Pesek proved his master in every deartment of the game.
