Mayor Smith and C. G. Mathews, representing the teamsters' union. each appealed to the Douglas county post of the American Legion at the meeting of that organization last night in the Auditorium for support during the strike.

"I have been assured," said Mayor Smith," that an attempt to carry the red flag on Farnam street would be made before July 4. What are you going to do about it?
"Tear it down!" shouted a thousand lusty voices. "I will look to the returned soldiers, and the American Legion for help under such a circumstance, said the mayor.

Mayor Smith took for his topic the constitution of the American egion adopted recently at the St. Louis caucus.

Towards the close of the meeting C. G. Mathews appealed to the legion, as a representative of the teamsters' union, to assist that organization in winning the strike. It was published in Omaha that soldiers were raising a disturbance because unable to find employment driving trucks during our strike," said Mathews. "We have investigated this, and find the reports were untrue." Allan Tukey declared that the legion as a whole would take no active sides in the strike matter, but would fight for the constitution. Following Mayor Smith's talk the Rev. Mr. E. H. Jenks addressed the gathering on memories of those who had given their lives on the battlefield.

Pass Resolutions.

A resolution condemning the action taken in pardoning conscientious objectors and giving them honorable discharges, and further condemning the I. W. W., international socialists, and anarchists met with approval.
