Fifteen thousand persons are expected to participate. The equip- and we have every reason to believe ment for the festival, according to the promoters, will consist of: 200 bartenders, 500 kegs of beer, 24,000 bottles of beer, 2,000 bottles of wi. e mostly champagne; 5,000 quarts of whisky, 30,000 glasses of soft drinks.

There will be individual and team drinking contests. At 11:30 p. m. a warning will be sounded that the country goes dry in 30 minutes and that the drinkers better fill up.

Two former lieutenants in the aviation corps of the army leased the garden for this festival and let out concessions to certain liquor interests. Only a proclamation by President Wilson setting aside wartime prohibition as unessential will upset the festival.

"OUTSIDE, OLD TOP!" AND OUT HE WENT.

New York, June 26.—Knighthood was in eclipse at the St. Regis hotel when Sir Charles Allen, after having expressed his disapproval of the collection of a fund by the Friends of Irish Freedom, went sailing out of the front entrance, propelled by the toes of several boots and landed on the pavement with a dull thud. It appears that the Englishman, who is a member of a firm of decorators in this city, walked up to the table in the hotel lobby at which flaxen-haired Sheila O'Reilly and Mabel Clayton were seated and asked the two girls:

"What's this? Are you collecting a fund for the Irish rebellion?" "No, we are collecting for the Irish republic," said Miss O'Reilley.

"Well, I'm an Irishman," shouted Sir Charles, white with rage, "and say you don't know what you're talking about. You are misled by the priests.' That ended the dialogue.

Joseph Haan, brother of the proprietor of the hotel, came forward and informed Sir Charles the girls were there for a worthy purpose and by his invitation. A squad of por-
