On Park Ave., near Mason, we have just listed a nine-room, all modern house on a beautiful east front lot which has 66 feet of frontage on Park Ave. and runs through to 30th St., a total depth of 168 feet. The house is not an old-timer, but built on modern lines, and is attractive snd substantial in appearance; quarter-sawed oak finish on first floor. This is not only an excellent buy for a home, but is a rattling good investment, as the ground has large area and double frontage, and is so close to town that its value is constantly increasing. Let us show you through and you can judge for yourself as to whether this is the real bargain we believe it to be.
