PIQUES JUDGE IN POLICE COURT

South Side Magistrate Dismisses Robbery and Petit Larceny Cases for Lack of Evidence.

"Lack of evidence" and "misinformation" in cases brought into police court are beginning to pique Judge J. J. Fitzgerald of the South Side's police court.

Two cases-one an alleged breaking, entering and robbery, and the other, petit larceny, charging a South High school senior with theft of $13-more than rankled "his honor" yesterday.

Mrs. Peter Lincznowski, late owner of $1,700, told the court that two weeks ago she won a bet with a friend of her husband. Paul Zuski.
