Red Cross Nurse Wins Husband With Old Fashioned Bait—The Apple Pie

Wars may come and wars may go but the heart of man remains unchanged—or shall we say the appetite? Down through the years has come that bit of philosophy, "the way to a man's heart is through his stomach!" Foolish ones we were to think for a moment that foreign travel or world wars could alter the sterner sex.

Dan Cupid's first assistant still remains—the experienced cook, Miss Flora G. Sell was a member of the great Red Cross, but instead of binding up broken bodies, she tempted jaded appetites.

The Rocking Chair brigade has met For the summer's Great Gossipfest And from early dawn Until late at night They talk And rock And fiddle away their time. They rock on the porches Of big hotels And little hotels And clubs— They rock at the seashore, At the mountain side And some of them rock At home. But wherever they rock They are sure to talk About you And me And everybody— They pick us to pieces— Till there isn't a shred Of virtue left us. Our clothes are freakish Or our manner too meekish Or else it is too bold. We are silly Or stupid Or frumps Or freaks Or browns are sure To be too thin or thick. Mrs. Smith says "Positively no good." That the popular Miss Is a wicked vamp And will drive all the Men to their ruin— Each one if a wild wolf In baby lamb's clothes. Good folks have been driven From clear out of heaven By these wonderful women Of the rockers brigade.

A Sonnet

By CLAUDE HOUGHTON.

(I know not why—I deemed all joy was dead). Woke singing wondrously till sorrow fled And sent my thoughts, like children, out to play So winter vanished and the world was May, A fragrant wonderland for love to tread, And skies were golden-misted overhead— I know not why, for all the world seemed gray. Unless—unless within her dream—stirred sleep, My slender love smiled very lovingly. And called me softly in the silence long, And even distance could not hidden keep The magic of her voice that stole to me And flooded all my heart with golden song.

He'd Seen Them. Bacon—Wouldn't you like to see the battlefields in Europe? Egbert—Oh, I've seen 'em, since the war, have you? "No, but I've been to the movies."—Yongkers State-man.

A little village exists on the Cape of Shima in Japan the name of which in Japanese means "the settlement of nymphs." In this place the women are pearl fishers, while the men stay at home and do the house work. From the age of four girls are taught to dive and the craft has always been jealously kept in the women's hands. Some time ago the men became discontented and started to practice diving, with the idea of becoming pearl fishers. A boycott was declared against them an dthere has been war ever since, the women expelling the men from their homes and doing their own housework.

A Woman's Story With Great Meaning

Subject of Childbirth Discussed by Women of Experience.

Women everywhere tell their friends how, through the use of Mother's Friend, the wonderful penetrating external application, they avoided suffering and distress before the advent of nature's most wonderful evolution.

Mother's Friend is a remedy which spreads its influence upon the cords, nerves and ligaments involved, rendering them pliant to readily yield to nature's demand for expansion. The nerves, cords, tendons and ligaments expand without that peculiar wrenching strain, and nervousness, nausea and unrestful sensations are naturally avoided when the nerves and muscles are relieved and thus are not tort and drawn.

By regular use, the lower abdominal region expands with ease when baby is born, the hours are less at the crisis, and pain and danger is naturally less.

You can obtain Mother's Friend from any drug store, and has been used by women for over half a century, and is just as standard as anything you can rely on.

Write the Bradford Regulator Company, Dept. H, Lamar Building, Atlanta, Georgia, for your Mother's Book, and get a bottle of Mother's Friend today, and thus fortify yourself against pain and discomfort.—Adv.
