

ENLISTMENT IN A. E. F. WILL BE CLOSED JULY 5

Improved Conditions in Europe Responsible for Order; Active Drive Continues This Week.

Offer of service in Europe with the American expeditionary force obtained under volunteer enlistment will be withdrawn at midnight, July 5. It was announced at the local recruiting station yesterday.

A telegram was received from the War Department at Washington yesterday contradicting a former report that enlistment for service in Europe was already discontinued.

Local men say the discontinuance in sending men to France has resulted from the improved situation in Europe growing out of the imminent signing of the peace treaty.

Officers here predict an early return of all troops now abroad, with the exception perhaps of three divisions, or 12 regiments, of regular army men. It is generally conceded that all drafted men will be returned to this country in a comparatively short time.

Former Health Commissioner Sues the County for $430

Dr. Ernest T. Manning, former city health commissioner, filed suit in district court yesterday, against Douglas county for $430 which he says is due him for keeping the records of the births and deaths in Douglas county outside of Omaha. The county commissioners have refused to pay the bill on the ground that there is no legal provision whereby the county can pay for keeping such records.

Wants Marriage Annulled

Mrs. Christine Kirtscher asked the district court yesterday to give her the custody of her daughter, Mrs. Joe Jindra, and to annul Mrs. Jindra's marriage. The wedding took place April 23, 1919, at which time Ruth Kirtscher, the bride, was only 17 years old, though she gave her age as 18.

Friendly Agreement To Divide Salaries Explained to Judge

J. H. Hughes, sales manager of the Western Rock Island Plow Co., Omaha branch, testified in District Judge Sears' court yesterday how his former best friend, R. E. Miller, formerly assistant sales manager of the concern, demanded that he carry out an oral agreement to give him part of his, Hughes', salary after the generous arrangement had lapsed for five years.

Mr. Hughes paid Mr. Miller half the difference between their salaries for a number of years, in accordance with his own, Hughes', suggestion. This amounted to a payment by Hughes to Miller of from $500 to $750 a year.

The arrangement stopped in 1913, when Mr. Miller left the company. Mr. Hughes testified yesterday that in September, 1918, his friend came and demanded that he pay him half the difference in their salaries during the years from 1913 to 1918, amounting, he said, to $6,300.

When Mr. Hughes "couldn't see it that way," Mr. Miller said he "would undertake" to collect it. He is now seeking judgment in court for $5,000.
