Chicago Grain and Provisions.

Chicago, June 30.—Fresh strength developed in the corn market today largely as a result of bullish estimates as to the size of the domestic crop this season. The close was unsettled, ¾c to 1¾c net higher, with September $1.76¾ to $1.76⅝ and December $1.54⅜ to $1.54½. Oats finished ⅛c to 1¼c down. In provisions, the outcome varied from 25c decline to 17c advance.

Estimates suggested by current figures on acreage suggested that the 1919 yield of corn in the United States would fall 300,000,000 bushels under the total for 1918. Demand was further stimulated by the fact that stocks in store were meager and that the movement of new wheat seemed likely to delay the handling of other grain.

An unlooked-for increase of the visible supply total had a depressing effect on the oats market.

Lower quotations on hogs deprived provisions of any tendency toward a decided advance. Commission houses, though, were conspicuous at times as buyers of lard.

New York Coffee.

New York, June 30.—An early decline was followed by sharp rallies in the market for coffee futures on European buying and covering, but the advances were not maintained and the market was unsettled in the latter trading. The opening decline of 39 to 64 points was under local selling on the lower market for futures at Santos with December selling at 20.45c and March at 20.15c. The rally carried December up to 21.40c and March to 21.20c, but this met renewed liquidation accompanied by talk of slightly easier tone in the cost and freight market. December closed at 20.70c bid, with the general list showing net losses of 29 to 64 points. July, 21.40c; September, 21.20c; October, 21.03c; December, 20.70c; January, 20.55c; March, 20.56; May, 20.45c.

Cattle—Receipts of cattle were not as heavy as dealers were expecting, about 5,000 head, and the offerings were made up almost entirely of native stock. Demand from all sources was very good, especially for desirable yearlings and handy weight steers, while the heavy cattle were not so much sought after. On the general run of beef steers prices ruled strong to 25c higher than the close of last week, the advance being confined largely to the lighter weight stock. Cows and heifers were in limited supply, good demand and quotably about steady, and there was no particular change in the market for stockers and feeders.

Hogs—There were 207 loads here today, estimated at 15,000 head. The shipper market opened at an early hour, largely 15@20c more than Saturday, although there were some sales that did not look over 10c lower. Most of the shipper hogs sold at a range of $20.40@20.60, with a few scattering up to a top of $20.80. Packers were a little late entering the game, and then they bought their hogs largely around 10@15c lower than Saturday. Bulk of the packer hogs was $20.15@20.35 with a few scattering on up to $20.60.
