

MAJOR MANNOCK WAS AGE OF ACES OF THE BRITISH

Aviator, Who Fell Prey to Anti-Air Gun Bullet, Had 73 German Planes to His Credit.

London, July 5.—The late Maj. E. W. Mannock was the leading "ace" of the British aviation corps, but it was not until months after the armistice that the fact was known and he never will be officially credited by the air ministry with being England's premier flyer. It was the policy of the ministry during the war not to proclaim individual exploits and it has not been changed since the fighting ceased.

The record of Mannock's 18 months' service is most unusual. He started out by outwitting examining physicians in concealing the fact that he was blind in one eye. At 29 years of age he was older than most of the pilots in training, but he seemed to lack nothing required of a successful air fighter and soon qualified and went to France.

Immediately he adopted tactics peculiar to himself and it finally was a deviation from those tactics that brought him down. He always flew very high and enticed his adversary into a high fight, but, in bringing down his 73 German, he chased his falling foe too near ground and a bullet from an anti-aircraft gun ended his career.

Officers of the royal air force have acclaimed him the greatest air tactician in the service. He has had none of the eccentricities prevalent among successful French aviators but, he was scientific, persistent and dogged. One of the brother officers recently said that he had seen Mannock stalk a Hun for an hour or more, attempting to gradually draw him higher and then, when the slightest opportunity for advantage presented itself, he was on the foe like a cat.

Although Mannock was presented with the Distinguished Service Order and the Military Cross it was not until the thousands of records of pilots were checked in the Air Ministry here that it was known that he had more German to his credit than any other British aviator. This fact was allowed to become known at the ministry but not officially.

Hero Falls Victim of Confederate Bill Swindle
Boston, Mass.—The famous after-the-Civil-War swindle of passing worthless Confederate notes has just been worked off this city on a hero returning from the world war. Two $100 Confederate notes were pasted together, making a very impressive-looking bill. The bill was tendered to the soldier to be changed. He accommodatingly gave $100 in United States notes in exchange. Upon finding that he had been swindled the man went to army headquarters, and plainclothes detectives were put on the trail of the swindlers.

Sells Farm, Repents, So Buys It Back; Out $2,500
New Cambria, Kan.—Hal Donmeyer, owner of one of the best farms in this section of Kansas, decided the other day he would sell his farm. Many people had asked him to set a price, but as he had received it from his father, who settled here in the early days, he always declined. However, he sold the farm to Cleveland Miller. An hour after the deed had been recorded Hal repented of his act and sought out Cleveland to buy back the farm.

He did, but it cost him just $2,500 more than he sold it for.

Emancipation Bill for Women Before Commons

London, July 5.—The woman's emancipation bill is still before the House of Commons, notwithstanding an effort by the government today to have it set aside to make way for a new measure on the subject. Major Waldorf Astor's motion to reject it was defeated by a vote of 100 to 85. The bill, backed by the labor party, has been before the Commons for several months.

The emancipation bill now before the House of Commons was designed to give women political and legal equality with men. It included a provision permitting women to sit in the House of Lords.

A London dispatch received Friday was so garbled in transmission as to make it appear that the bill itself had been defeated.

Chicago Planning Largest Railway Depot in World

Chicago, July 5.—Chicago will have the largest railway passenger station in the world if plans under way by the Illinois Central railroad are carried out. The new terminal, to be situated on the city council next Monday by the railway terminals committee be approved.

Salute Is Fired Over Coblenz by American Guns
Coblenz, July 5.—(By the Associated Press.)—A salute of 48 guns—one for each state in the union—flashed out over Coblenz at noon Friday from the ancient walls of the fortress of Ehrenbreitstein, echoing up and down the Rhine and Moselle valleys as the first part of the army's program in celebrating the Fourth in Germany.

The Fourth was celebrated throughout the American occupied area today, all duty being suspended except what was absolutely necessary.

Negro Struck by Street Car Not Expected to Live
Henry Scott, negro, 2803 Cuming street, was struck by a street car at Twenty-eighth and Cuming streets soon after noon yesterday and is not expected to live. He was taken to the Lister hospital, where he was found to have suffered internal injuries.

Witnesses of the accident say Scott got off of a westbound car and walked directly in front of an eastbound car that was passing at the time.

Former Omaha Resident Dead in Buffalo, N. Y.
Buffalo, N. Y., July 5.—(Special Telegram.)—Adrian Doerner, former resident of Omaha, died here last night after a brief illness. He is survived by his widow, nee Anna Mulde, and three daughters. Mr. and Doerner was a member of carpenter's union No. 335. Burial will be in Buffalo Monday.

ASKS $45,000 A YEAR TO HANDLE CITY GARBAGE

City Commissioners to Take Up Question of Awarding Contract Monday; Seeks Injunctions Against 15.

of fifteen places, which include: Calumet restaurant, Conant, Paxton, Blackstone, Rome, Henshaw and Loyal hotels, and the Courtney restaurant.

The legislative act in question provides that individuals or corporations engaged in a business of which garbage is a by-product, shall not be prohibited from disposing of their garbage as they wish.

Mayor Smith and City Commissioners Ure, Ringer, Zimman and Falconer Saturday agreed informally to award a five-year contract to Henry Pollack, who already has a garbage contract with the city on a different basis.

Mr. Pollack told the city officials that he will agree in writing to establish a sanitary hog-feeding yard in a location to be approved, and he will cook all garbage before feeding it to hogs, and also will provide a chimney for carrying away any odor there may be. He proposes to build concrete feeding floors and to keep them flushed by the use of a water and sewer system. His proposed location is north of Florence lake, near the river.

Mr. Pollack is to present his details to the city council Monday morning. If he obtains the contract, the city is to pay him $45,000 a year for the collection of all garbage, which he is to dispose of in a sanitary manner.

Residents Complain.
The garbage question was brought to the front again recently when complaints were received from residents of Kountze park district, who objected to the stench which was carried on the breezes from hog-feeding yards on the east bottom lands, north of Winspear triangle. These hog-yard men were strewing garbage on the ground and in one instance it was observed that considerable garbage was allowed to rot on moist ground.

The city paid $35,000 during 1918 for hauling garbage, and for the first six months of this year the cost was nearly $20,000.

Many complaints have been made by householders this summer against irregular collections of garbage. In this connection the Pollack contract, if it is executed by the city, will contain a provision that the contractor shall maintain two extra collection wagons for use in responding to complaints of residents whose garbage has been neglected. The city is to maintain an inspector to exercise supervision over the enforcement of the provisions of the contract.

The only other bidder for the city garbage business was J. W. Welch, who asked $62,000 per year on a five-year contract.

Dudgeon Secures Valuable Lease on Farnam Street
D. W. Dudgeon has leased to W. P. O'Brien his property at the northeast corner Twenty-ninth and Farnam streets. The lease is for ninety-nine years at $3,600 per year, with an option to buy on or before ten years at $65,000. The deal was made by Traver Bros., representing both parties.

Divorce Courts
A restraining order was granted by District Judge Day to keep Edward Ebert from molesting his wife, Amelia, in their home, 2026 Bancroft street. She filed suit for a divorce, charging that he threatened to kill her with a shotgun and a knife, and continued to threaten her on one occasion until 2 o'clock in the morning. She says he drove her from the home. She asks $75 a month alimony and custody of their child.
