

AUTOPSY HELD BY FIGHT FANS OVER OUTCOME

Unusual Developments of Championship Bout Provide Ring Followers With Argument Material.

Toledo, O., July 5.—Though a new heavyweight champion has been crowned in Jack Dempsey, and the excess of fight fans has denuded Toledo hotels, controversy still rages over the sensational defeat of Jess Willard here yesterday afternoon. So many unusual angles developed during the nine minutes of terrific fistic bombardment that scarcely two spectators saw the scene the same.

The uncertainty regarding the situation at the end of the first round when Dempsey left the ring believing that he had won with a knockout and the payment of such wagers as hinged on when Willard was stopped, furnished unlimited material for argument.

Record Didn't Hear Bell

So weak was the sound of the gong and so great the uproar about the ring, that Referee Pecord failed to hear the bell and continued to count over Willard as he sat on the ring floor near a neutral corner, although Times reporter ordered the clerk when Pecord's arm was falling for the seventh time. The referee notified Dempsey that he had won and the Salt Lake City pugilist was well on his way to his dressing room before his manager overtook him and told him that he was in danger of being disqualified on a technicality for leaving the ring.

Champion Joins Crowd.

In other respects the first few hours after the battle were much the same as those following the passing of past titles. Dempsey was soon dressed and much in evidence about the downtown section, followed by a wildly enthusiastic and cheering throng of admirers. When he appeared for dinner at the leading hotel the corridors were a mass of swirling spectators who peered at Willard's conqueror as he broke training and dined in a manner entirely different from the simple menus of the past two months.

At the same hour his dethroned opponent was resting in his temporary home in a residential section with his battered head packed in ice bags and cut off from communication with the outside world by a guard that even the telephone could not penetrate. He was examined by the boxing commission physician, however, soon after his return from the ring. The latter stated officially that Willard was not seriously injured and would be able to appear in public as soon as his bruises and other marks of battle had yielded to ordinary treatment.

Dempsey to Enter Vaudeville.

Neither boxer had made any definite plans for leaving the city early today, but it was expected that Dempsey would depart within the next 48 hours in order to fulfill a vaudeville engagement, offered him in case he was a winner. Willard had originally planned to go to New York to discuss certain business plans immediately after the bout, but what effect the upset will have on this arrangement could not be learned early today.

Dempsey has no immediate idea of re-entering the ring, for there is no worthy opponent in sight at this time. It is likely that he will endeavor to turn his newly gained ring laurels into commercial value, as has been the custom of all modern holders of the title.

Cryptograms of Sport.

Sam Hall, sports editor of the Chicago Herald-Examiner, says in Monday's edition of his sheet: "Sandy Griswold, a veteran sporting editor of the Omaha Bee, is on the job. (At Toledo). Griswold is 70 years old and hasn't missed a championship encounter in 50 years." Wow!

Which goes to show how accurate a "veteran" sports editor has to be to hold his job.

Sandy used to be with The Bee.

Nebraska U authorities are trailing the erstwhile famous Ewald O. Stiehm, former mentor at Lincoln, now with the University of Illinois at Bloomington, Ill. The dope is that the powers that be are offering Stiehm $5,000 if he will only come back.

Ewald wanted $4,500 in 1916.

From which we deduct, the "experts' muss" that "Jumbo" has improved much.

Which we further conjecture, would the former Cornhusk producer, rather do, manufacture "corn huskers" or make "boilers?"

Want to be an athletic coach? The University of Illinois has established a school to teach the "profession," the work being a four-year course, under honest-to-goodness professors, leading to a degree as bachelor of science.

We observe that King Nicholas of Montenegro slapped Sal Butler, colored Kansas cyclone, who broke many records at the Pershing meet in Paris, on the back when he decorated him with the Order of Danfel, or something like it.

Good for you Nickie.

With the Amateurs.

In one of the best played games staged thus far in the Commercial league, the Iren Biscuit Co. defeated the Orchard-Wilhelm team by the score of 5 to 4 at Elmwood park yesterday afternoon. The game was a pitchers' duel between Greko and Lee, with Greko having a shade better of the argument. With the score 4 up in the last half of the eighth round, Greko scored the winning run for the Biscuit aggregation by scoring from third on Veat's sacrifice fly to center.

Centerfielder Kubat of the Orchard-Wilhelm team was knocked unconscious in the fifth inning when he collided with Second Baseman Bernhard, when both runners tried to field the ball. He recovered after a short time and finished the game.

In connection with the ball game the employees of the Iren Biscuit Co. held their annual picnic and entertainment. About 500 were present. Dan Desdune's band furnished the music.

Toledo, July 5.—Although official accounting has not been completed, Tex Rickard, promoter of the heavyweight championship contest between Jess Willard and Jack Dempsey, estimated tonight that the gate receipts would total between $500,000 and $600,000.

NEW OUTBREAKS FEARED AS FOOD RIOTS INCREASE

Carbineers Fire Upon Crowds as Shops and Stores Are Ransacked by Infuriated Mobs.

Florence, Italy, July 5.—(By the Associated Press.)—Carbineers fired upon crowds here today. Disorders are increasing and the ransacking of shops is widespread. One dead and 20 injured was the total of the rioting Friday.

Strengthened by rowdies, the crowd has abandoned to the general sacking of all shops, destroying what it is unable to carry away. One entire street is flooded with petroleum, gasoline, wine, beer and olive oil.

Red Flags Are Numerous.

Wherever the chamber of labor is able to exercise authority, goods are being transported to special warehouses under the red flag. Large quantities of supplies are being turned over to the municipality in the chief square of the city. Money taken from shops also is being placed in the care of the municipality or the chamber of labor. Thousands of boxes of matches are being distributed free to the crowds.

The only shops respected by the rioters were those bearing the inscription: "This shop is at the disposal of the chamber of labor." The chamber of labor apparently has become the only authority to which the people pay any attention. The automobiles and cabs permitted to use the streets must bear a sign reading: "Circulation allowed by chamber of labor." The local authorities seemingly have made no effort to oppose the chamber.

Newspapers Fail to Appear.

All the newspapers have suspended publication because of a strike of printers. The sale of newspapers from other cities is prohibited.

One of the manifestos issued by the chamber of labor announced that all goods which had been sold at prices fixed by the government would hereafter be sold at half that price. All other goods, including medicine, it was ordered, should be sold at a reduction of 70 per cent from the previous prices.
