Farmers Form Co-Operative. Association at Krider Beatrice, Neb., July 7 .- (Special.)

-Articles of incorporation of the Formers' Union Co-operative association of Krider were filed in the county clerk's office. The capital stock of the company is $25,000, divided into 1,000 shares of $25 each. The articles authorize the association to buy and sell live stock, fuel, lumber and general merchandise.

A bill of sale accompanying the articles indicates that the association has purchased the Central Granaries company's elevator and coal sheds at Krider. The co-operative association has been organized at Kinney with a capital stock of $30,000, $6,000 being paid up. The old elevator at that place, six miles east of Wymore, has been taken over by the farmers.

Three Men, Fined on Liquor Charges, Appeal Cases to Higher Court

Three men were each found guilty of having intoxicating liquor in their possession and fined $100 and cost in South Side police court Monday morning. Each appealed his case.
Raymond Cotterier, 4315 South Twenty-fifth street, was charged with having 11 pints of liquor at his home when visited by officers. Po-lice testified that at the residence of Tom Patsolowski, 5409 South Thirty-third street, they found 500 empty pottles and 100 bottles of "imitation whisky," described by them as a mixture of tea and oil, with a quart of genuine whisky.

Joe Lenczoyski, 4056 I street, admitted that he had at his home two pints of liquor, but said it was there as medicine for a sick baby. He also said that he possessed a doctor's prescription for the medicine, but did not produce it.

Want To Keep Your Hair Perpetually Curty?

Perpetually wavy, curly hair is now within the means of every woman to possess. One need only get a few ounces of plain liquid silmerine from her druggist and apply a little of it occasionally with a clean tooth brush. This quickly dries in the most beautiful and natural looking waves and creases imaginable. Wind and weather do not affect the curliness as where a heated iron has been used.

Liquid silmerine is so pure and harm-less there is not the slightest danger of spotting the scalp or streaking the hair, and it leaves no sticky or greasy trace. It will also be appreciated as a beneficial dressing, as it keeps the hair so soft, silky and lustrous.—Adv.

FISTULA CURED

to 47 feet on the east side.

IN GMC trucks all frames are designed and materials selected to best meet the hardest service conditions.

As an indication of their superior construction consider the frame brackets—for, without question, improperly made and carelessly attached Brackets are the source of much trouble and expense. All brackets on GMC Trucks are machined on all surfaces which come in contact with the frame.

Without proper machining, the brackets cannot be securely attached, and will work loose. On many trucks the brackets are merely rough ground. When placed against the frame the contact is not close—there are openings between the frame and bracket. As the hot rivets are headed over they expand—the hot metal is driven into the space between the frame and bracket.

The fin of metal between the frame and bracket makes a firm attachment impossible, consequently any force exerted on either the frame or the bracket tends to pull one away from the other. Although the frame brackets may seem an unim-portant part of the truck, they have a bearing on the truck's service ability—more than that, they are a mighty good criterion by which to judge the frame and the entire truck construction.
