It is also said that the former emperor's arrival here might cause unpleasant incidents.

The Evening Standard, conservave, opposes the plan because "there are practical difficulties in arranging the quarters for the prisoners and the place of trial, and there is an unpleasant suggestion of pagan triumph in the project. If there must be a state trial it should not take place in London or any other business center.

The Westminster Gazette is one of those holding that the best punishment for the ex-emperor is to leave him in obscurity, and the Times gives prominence to a letter from Sir Valentine Chirol its foreign editor, expressing a fear that the trial might create a Hohenzollern legend like the Napoleonic legend and bring upon Great Britain odium in Germany and in some neutral countries and if prosecution fail, it would mean ridicule."

Union Men Distributing Literature When Fight Begun; Ship Workers Hold Mooney Parade.

Chicago, July 7.—The first dis-turbance growing out of the labor strike called July 4 for five days as a protest against the conviction of Mooney and Billings in San Francisco occurred today when 100 policemen were called to disperse a crowd of 700 which was distributing strike hand bills in front of a north side factory.

When called upon to disperse the crowd threw stones and broke a number of windows in the building. Several arrests were made. Only a few thousand workmen, it is said. joined the "peaceful Mooney and Billings strike" in Chicago.

San Francisco, July 7.—Reports from Pacific coast cities indicated the five-day strike in behalf of Thomas J. Mooney was felt mainly in the shipbuilding industry of Oregon and Washington. All but one of the yards in Port-
