

CHARGE PLOT TO SMUGGLE DOPE INTO HOSPITAL

Negro Arrested After Walnuts Containing Morphine and Cocaine Are Delivered for County Charge.

An attempt to smuggle "dope," concealed in English walnuts, into the Douglas County hospital Sunday afternoon was frustrated by Supt. A. E. Patten, and Clarence Thomas, negro, 216 1/2 North Thirtieth street, alleged to be the instigator of the smuggling scheme, was arrested and charged with violating the Harrison drug act.

Superintendent Patten says he intercepted a note to a negro woman inmate of the hospital several days ago signed by Thomas. It was a very ordinary note except for one sentence which stated that the "stuff would be in the nuts." The note further stated that the sender would be at the hospital Sunday with a basket of "nuts and other things."

When Thomas came to the hospital with a half bushel basket filled with English walnuts, Patten was waiting. He took the basket into another room and after some search found two nuts marked with a fine, black thread.

They contained several grains of morphine and cocaine. He called federal officers who later arrested Thomas at his home. The woman who was to have received the basket, after waiting several hours, finally asked Patten when he was going to give it to her. When told that dope had been found in the basket she showed great surprise.

Patten says, and wept for several hours. Information was filed against Thomas yesterday by internal revenue officers, who say they have knowledge of other sales he has made. No bond has been fixed. Thomas will be given a hearing before the United States commissioner some time this week.

Bad Sickness Caused by Acid-Stomach

If people only realized the terrible destroying power of an acid-stomach—the many kinds of sickness and misery it causes—the lives it literally wrecks—they would guard against it as carefully as they guard against a deadly plague. You know in an instant the first symptoms of acid-stomach—such as indigestion, distressing, painful flatulency, sour, gassy stomach, belching, food repeating, heartburn, etc. Whenever your stomach feels this way you should lose no time in putting it to rights. If you do, serious consequences are almost sure to follow, such as intestinal fermentation, auto-intoxication, impairment of the entire nervous system, headache, biliousness, catarrh of the liver, sometimes even catarrh of the stomach and intestinal ulcers and cancer.

Cocoon Oil Fine For Washing Hair

If you want to keep your hair in good condition, be careful what you wash it with.

Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali. This dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle, and is very harmful. Multifid cocoon oil shampoo (which is pure and entirely greaseless), is much better than anything else you can use for shampooing, as this can't possibly injure the hair.

Simply moisten your hair with water and rub it in. One or two teaspoonfuls will make an abundance of rich, creamy lather, and cleanses the hair and scalp thoroughly. The lather rinses out easily, and removes every particle of dust, dirt, dandruff and excessive oil. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and it leaves it fine and silky, bright, fluffy and easy to manage.

You can get Multifid cocoon oil shampoo at most any drug store. It is very cheap, and a few ounces is enough to last for months in the family for months.—Adv.

Broke Out of Penitentiary To Kill Woman He Loved

Jess Howard, Sentenced to Five-Year Prison Term, Comes to Omaha to Murder La Rene Buckwalter, Who, He Says, Jilted Him.

LA RENE BUCKWALTER.

Brooding in a cell in the Fort Madison, Ia., penitentiary over the loss of a woman's love, Jess Howard, formerly of Omaha, planned and effected his escape from the prison and Sunday came to Omaha to kill the woman and himself.

The woman is La Rene Buckwalter, 5016 Florence boulevard. Howard is said by the police to have been a common-law husband of the Buckwalter woman.

He was captured Sunday morning before he had an opportunity to carry out his plan.

La Rene Buckwalter, a "mystery" woman with an expensive residence on Omaha's Rattlesnake Mile, said Sunday she feared Howard would kill her.

She furnished funds which cleared Howard of a murder charge a year ago. He was charged with killing Howard Moberly, a former "pal" after a quarrel. He was acquitted of the murder charge but several months ago was sentenced at Council Bluffs to serve five years in the Fort Madison prison for grand larceny.

Detectives last winter went to the Buckwalter home to protect her husband from Howard.

The detectives were sent when a neighbor of Miss Buckwalter's called at the place and found Howard, gun in hand, the muzzle of it forced into

Wants Divorce Decree Set Aside; Ex-Husband Has Since Remarried

Four years after Charles Blakely was granted a divorce in the district court of Douglas county, his former wife Clara Blakely, is still seeking to have the decree set aside.

Mr. Blakely yesterday filed his answer to her sixth amended and substituted petition to have the decree set aside. Mr. Blakely is married again.

The former Mrs. Blakely resides in Lincoln. She alleges in her sixth amended petition to have the decree of divorce set aside that Mr. Blakely gave false evidence in the divorce hearing and that he and the attorneys conspired to charge her with adultery with Howard Ainslie.

The divorce was granted to Mr. Blakely by District Judge Leslie on June 23, 1915. Mr. Blakely had agreed to give his wife $8,000 if he secured his divorce. This, he says, he has done.

On June 13, 1916, he married Helen King, who is his wife now, thus complicating any possible court action to set aside his decree of divorce.

Mr. Blakely alleges in his answer that his former wife confessed to him and to his attorneys at the time of the divorce that she had been unfaithful.

Navy Recruiting Station Is Moved to New, Larger Rooms

The navy recruiting headquarters has been removed from the fifth floor of the Paxton block to the third floor on the southwest corner of Sixteenth and Douglas street. The new quarters contain eight rooms.

Ensign C. D. Maas, chief recruiting officer, said yesterday orders had been received from Washington to establish a branch recruiting office at Falls City, Neb.

Last month 55 men were enlisted.

Postpone Ordinance to Make Street a Boulevard

The city commissioners yesterday laid over for 90 days an ordinance offered by Commissioner Towl, proposing to declare Thirtieth street, Missouri avenue to Harrison street, a boulevard subject to improvement by the park department. One of the arguments in favor of the ordinance was that most of the property owners along South Thirtieth street could not stand paying taxes which would be assessed if the thoroughfare should be paved as a street.

BOOM OF CANNON WELCOMES GEN. LEONARD WOOD

Spends Part of Day on Inspection Tour of Forts Omaha and Crook; Is Well Satisfied.

Cannon boomed 13 times in military salute to Maj. Gen. Leonard Wood, distinguished visitor at Forts Omaha and Crook, who came to the city yesterday, accompanied by members of his staff, Col. Chauncey Baker, chief quartermaster officer, western department, and Capt. Landon Thomas, aide, on an official trip of inspection.

The general and his party arrived at Union station over the Northwestern railroad at 11:45 a. m., coming in from a week's tour of Forts Robinson and Meade. He was greeted at the station by Colonel Bingham, commander of the Omaha quartermaster station; Lt. Col. Jacob Wuest, commanding officer at Fort Omaha, and Chaplain Stephen Doud.

Inspects Fort Omaha. The party at once repaired by automobile to Fort Omaha, where the general made a short unofficial inspection. At noon General Wood dined at the Fontelle hotel, and in the afternoon, accompanied by his aide, Captain Thomas, motored to Fort Crook, where he met officers and men of the 20th infantry, formerly of his command at Camp Funston.

Fifteen officers greeted him. "I'm sorry, men, that you didn't get your chance overseas," the general presented an informal speech to the officers drawn up at attention under Col. W. H. Jordan, commanding officer at Ft. Crook. "You were all ready to go and it was too bad that hostilities ended when they did."

"But you are now in a fine place. The breeze hits you now and then and you know down in Kansas it's hot. I'm sure that you will like it." Later he motored over the grounds with Colonel Jordan. The general being well satisfied with conditions at the fort.

Presents Medal. While in the west General Wood was an honored guest at patriotic gatherings at Crookston, and Deadwood, S. D. At the former place he presented Mrs. Edna Dale, sister of World Neals, a veteran of the world war, who was killed in action at St. Mihiel, with a Medal of Honor.

Two thousand people attended the ceremony and the general made a short speech. Yesterday he said the enthusiasm of the people of that district had impressed him greatly, so great was the sympathy of the populace for the memory of the dead hero. At Deadwood he officiated as honor guest at similar festivities, coming direct from that city to Omaha.

Garbage Contract To Be Held Pending Visit of Physician

The city council yesterday postponed action on the garbage contract award until next Monday, on account of an expected visit of Dr. J. F. Edwards, the new health commissioner, who is to begin his work here as soon as he shall have been discharged from military service at Camp Mills.

A telegram from the doctor stated that he expected to be here next Friday and will remain a few days. The city has been paying $30,000 to $35,000 a year to dispose of garbage.

The proposition under consideration is to pay a contractor $45,000 a year for five years, for the collection and disposal of all garbage under such sanitary regulations as may be prescribed by the city.

American Correspondent Who Was Arrested Released

Coblenz, July 7.—(By The Associated Press).—Robert Minor, American newspaper correspondent and cartoonist, who has been in detention here by army authorities, pending an investigation, has been released, it was learned today. No formal announcement was made, but officers said the case had been dropped on orders from higher authority.

It is understood Minor will be returned to Paris, where he was arrested a month ago by the French at the request of the British. The latter refused to prosecute him, turning over certain alleged evidence to the American authorities. It is said that this was in connection with an alleged conspiracy to spread radical propaganda among soldiers within the British and America areas.

City May Buy Surplus Army Supplies and Put Them on Market Here

City Commissioner Ure, for the city council, will investigate the government sale of canned goods and other provisions, with a view of determining whether the city can buy several carload lots and sell to householders, at prices substantially less than the current retail prices.

"A friend of mine, who is connected with the quartermaster's department, told me that he believed the city could buy the goods for 25 per cent less than the prevailing market prices," Mayor Smith yesterday told the city council.

The mayor's plan is to sell these provisions in the city market, which is to be opened in the basement of the Auditorium, and to regulate the sale for the benefit of bona fide householders.

Council Bluffs Hero Is Given D. S. C. Posthumously

Charles M. Ford of Council Bluffs, formerly first sergeant of Company L, 168th Infantry, has been awarded the Distinguished Service Cross posthumously, according to dispatches received from Washington.

Ford, who, while with his outfit in France was commissioned a first lieutenant, was killed while leading his men in an attack on machine gun nests in Belgium during the late stages of the war. His brother, Harry Ford, who was with him throughout the war until the time of his death, was commissioned at the same time as his brother, Harry Ford, who is now back home, and his brother were both members of the Iowa National Guard for many years.

No Steamers to Travel Through the Waters of Missouri This Year

The sound of the steamboat whistle is not to be heard along this stretch of the Missouri river this summer. That has been settled and the steamer, Julia Silver, that for two summers has stirred the turbid waters of the Missouri between Omaha and Decatur has been sold.

This is the information that comes to the Chamber of Commerce.

The Julia is now on her way down the Missouri and she is going to Paducah, Ky., where she will become a line packet and go into the Ohio river trade.

The Elk that navigated the river from Omaha to Sioux City all last summer is a thing of the past. At the close of navigation last fall and while on its way to its Omaha dry dock, the Elk, somewhere in the vicinity of Onawa, Ia., struck a snag.

A hole was torn in the bottom of the boat, but it was figured that it could be patched up during the winter, so as to again become "sea" worthy. The boat was lifted out of the water and the work of repairing was well under way. Then the high water came along a few weeks ago and the boat was beached on a bar, almost a total wreck. Since then it has been salvaged, but there is not enough left to make an attempt to construct a steamer out of the wreckage.
