THE BEE: OMAHA, SATURDAY, JULY 12, 1919. WILL OF "HAPPY" Modern Solomon Adjusts husband insisted that the baby was merely thirsty, and in the manner Dispute Over Feeding of Dispute Over Feeding of directed, the committee advises, drink of cold water for their first-General Secretary Y.M.C.A. also visited his former home in Dayton, O. Goes to Western Conference Ex-soldiers of the army, navy and to congressmen or senators. Railroad Workers Quit R. S. Flower, general secretary of the Omaha Y. M. C. A. will be a BENNER IS FILED 6 Months' Old Infant led to a family row in the middle of The three bills jointly call for an marine corps are requested to in- appropriation of from $100,000,000

quire concerning which of the three to $500,000,000 for the reclamation homestead bills now pending in con- of 475,000,000 acres of arid, swamp A mother with her 6-months-old infant called on Superintendent T. before him, together with the baby. H. Weirich of the Board of Public He told the husband that it was tive committee of the Omaha chap- for a fund to loan money to returned service men at interest rates of 41/2 Information concerning the bills to 5 per cent for 40 to 60 years.

SETS THE PACE

Drandels Mores

speaker at the association's conference for western states next week at

to Estes Park.

Mrs. Charles Hanke Dies

Mrs. Leah C. Hanke, 49 years old, wife of Charles Hanke, 2470 North Forty-fifth avenue, died Thursday To Help In Harvest Fields at her home of pneumonia. Mrs.

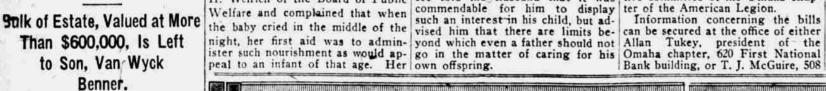

Hanke had been a resident of Oma-Hundreds of men sent out into Ne- ha for 20 years. She was born in Estes Park, Colo. Mr. Flowers left braska to do track work for the Monmouth, Ill., and before her mar-Tuesday in his car to make the trip railroads are quitting the jobs and riage was Miss Nott. Besides her going into the harvest fields, where husband, who is a traveling sales-

George W. Campbell, religious they are earning 50 to 65 cents an man, she is survived by one son, and social secretary, has returned hour and board, working a 10-hour Robert. The funeral services will from Lake Geneva, Wis, where he day. In sending men to track and be held at 2 o'clock Saturday afternight, her first aid was to admin-ister such nourishment as would ap-peal to an infant of that age. Her best can be secured at the onice of entite yond which even a father should not point the matter of caring for his peal to an infant of that age. Her best can be secured at the onice of entite you want what you want when you want it. Bee Want Ads will problems. During his absence, her best can be secured at the onice of entite you want what you want when school on Y. M. C. A. methods and problems. During his absence, her best can be secured at the onice of entite attain the desired results. The onice of entite attain the desired results.

Exquisitely Dainty

Hand Made Blouses

from the Sunny Philippines

X 1. 34 . 13 . MAR 4- 7

the night.

Announcing the Arrival of

White Tub Silk Petticoats

Shadow Proof--Double Panel

The welfare superintendent sum-

The will of the late Mrs. "Happy" Theodora Van Wyck Benner was filed for probate yesterday in Douglas county court.

OMAHA COURT

It was offered first for probate in the Otoe county court at Nebraska City. Judge A. A. Bischof of that court decided that Mrs. Benner was a resident of Omaha at the time of her death and refused to allow the will to be probated in the Otoe county court.

The will is dated October 22, 1909. and was witnessed by Victor Rose-water, Myron Learned and Grace Rowland Son Principal Heir. It leaves all her estate except $2,000 to her son, Van Wyck Benner, 15 years old, and, since his mother's death, in the custody of his father, Alonzo Benner of New York city, from whom Mrs. Benner was divorced several years ago.

The estate is valued at more than $600,000, attorneys stated. It con-sists principally of 2,500 acres of rich Nebraska land in Otoe and Nemaha counties, valued at from $200 to $300 an acre. There is also considerable personal property. The will gives $1,000 each to Theo-dosia Mott and Van Wyck Mott of Washington, D. C., cousins of Mrs. Benner, and places all the rest of the estate in trust in the hands of John W. Steinhart of Nebraska City, as executor, with instructions to pay necessary expenses of Van Wyck Benner until he is 18 years old.- From then until Van Wyck is 30 years old he is to receive the entice net income of the estate, and when he attains the age of 30 years the entire estate is to be turned over to him

Provides for Children. If Van Wyck should die before reaching the age of 30 years, leaving a child or children, the income the estate is to be paid to the child or children until the youngest reaches the age of 30 years, when it is to be given to the child or divid-ed among the children. If Van Wyck dies before reaching the age of 30 years without leaving children the estate is to be sold and a hospital is to be Juilt in Nebraska City to the memory of Mrs. Benner's parents, Charles H. Van Wyck, once United States sen-ator from Nebraska, and Kate Van Wyck.

If Mr. Steinhart is unable to act as executor, two of these three are to be appointed in his place: William Hayward, Oliver A. Kimmel and William A. Pitzer.

Wants Son Well Educated. Mrs. Benner states that she wants Van Wyck to have a complete col-Jege education, preferably at Yale university. frs. Benner died suddenly April

Objection to the probate of the estate in Otoe county was made by Mrs. Mildred Wright Thompson of Omaha, who said she had a claim of $50,000 against it. This was said to be an action for alienation of Mr. Thompson's effections by Mrs. Benner. The case has been settled out of court.

Omaha Man Leaves for Russia To, Take Charge of Postoffice

J. P. Cleland left for San Francisco yesterday from where he will sail for Yokahama enroute to Vladivostok, Russia. Mr. Cleland, who has been employed at the postoffice here for the last nine years, has been appointed by the government ot take charge of the army postoffice at Vladicostok. He has been in Washington since receiving the news of his appointment. The work will probably keep him in Russia for six or nine months. .

Miss Effie Cleland, a daughter. who has been en ;aged in Red Cross canteen work in Germany, has been released from duty and is now traveling in Switzerland. She will probably sail for New York at about the same time that her father begins the voyage on the Pacific.

Funeral Services Are Held For Mrs. Wilhelmina Storz

Mrs. Wilhelmina Storz, wife of Charles Storz, 1901 Wirt street, was buried yesterday afternoon in Forest Lawn cemetery. Rev. O. D. Baltzly, pastor of Kountze Memorial Lutheran church, conducted services at the family residence.

The pallbearers were: J. C. Weeth, M. Miller, Charles F. Weymuller, Carl Kenny, A. Shagun and Philip Geil.

J. C. Esswein, Mrs. Storz's fa-ther, arrived from Stanton, Neb., for the funeral.

Harvest Fields Attract

Many Eastern Young Men

The Nebraska harvest fields are attracting men from many distant states, according to C. H. Davis, acting director of the federal employ-ment bureau in Omaha, who said that the latest recruits were from Fitchburg, Mass.

Mr. Davis stated that scores of men coming to work during the harvest were not tramps, but students seeking work during their vacation and other young men who appeared to be equally as sincere in seeking

