TULSA CAPTURES LARGE CROWDS BOTH GAMES OF FEATURE FIRST DOUBLE - HEADER

Win First Game 5 to 2, With Big Fields Are Rule at Cleve-Kopp on Mound for Omaha, Gather Second Contest 9 to 7 Off Townsend.

The Tulsa Oilers slipped the Rourkes a double dose of defeat medicine in the Sunday doubleheader, taking the first game by a and the second, 9 to 7, off Lefty land. Monday, the opening day, all Townsend. The results of these attendance records for the opening games are apt illustrations of just meeting were broken, and the pariwhat a couple of boners will do to a ball club.

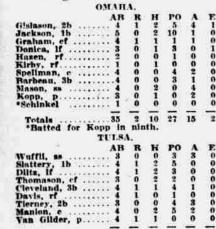

The Oilers held the lead all the prisingly large play all through the way in the first game, going out in week. ning and in the eighth they added three more to the count. The Omaha players were blanked every round up to the seventh when they pushed a run across with a single and Gislason's three-bagger. Gis scored on a single by Jackson, but the manager was caught in an attempted screaming two bagger. He went to third on Donica's grounder to first and scored on Kirby's single. The latter died on first, the next two for a purse of $1,600, with Natalie players going out in order. In the second game Spellman, Barbeau and Mason each made a costly boot. The Tulsa runs were scored in the first, fourth, fifth and ninth innings, the count before the Oilers' ninth inning being a tie at The Rourkes tied the score in the first and made three more in the second, but the visitors took the lead in the fifth when they counted for three runs. The locals tied it up in the fifth when they counted for three runs. The locals tied it up in the seventh with two more, but the final two counters pushed across by Tulsa won the game, the Rourkes going down in one, two, three order in their half of the ninth.

Umpire Eckman announced that Monday would make his last appearance as an umpire, as he has accepted a position in Omaha. Umpire Freshwater, who officiated on the bases, came here from Chicago and upon his arrival, grabbed a suitcase and started for the ball park. When he arrived he found a nice array of women's lingerie and other feminine articles in the budget and realized that he had made an ex-change with some female traveler 1:56, was also nominated, but it was change with some female traveler. He was unable to go behind the plate in either game, but hopes to not start, as Marvin does not think re-exchange suitcases before game time on Monday to get his armor for use behind the platter.

MANY GOLFERS ARRIVE FOR THE STATE TOURNEY

Entrants Play Over Course Sunday; Three Flights With Same Number of Consolation Prizes.

This morning marks the opening of the Nebraska state golf championship tournament at the Omaha Field club and it is anticipated that it will be one of the best tournaments ever witnessed here, as over 200 have already entered.

Much enthusiasm is shown by the golfers, especially the women, who have been unable to take part or witness golf matches on account of taking an active interest in Red Cross work during the war, Scores of out-of-town entrants in he state tourney arrived in Omaha Saturday and yesterday, and played on the Field club course in order to be acquainted with the course. There will be three flights in the tourney, and each flight will have a consolation flight. The 32 low players in the qualifying round will be placed in the championship flight the next 32 low in the president's flight and the third 32 players in the secretary's flight. The 16 losing players in each of the three flights vill enter the consolations.

There probably will be a surprise fight for the 16 low men who fail to qualify.
