

All are architects of Fate,
Working in these walls of Time;
Some with massive deeds and great,
Some with ornaments of rhyme.—Longfellow.

WOMAN'S SECTION OF THE BEE

Why, what should be the fear?
I do not set my life at a pin's fee;
And, for my soul, what can it do to that,
Being a thing immortal as itself?—Shakespeare.

Society

ARMY matrons donned their prettiest frocks for the first informal "at home" given at Fort Crook since pre-war days. The affair was in the nature of a farewell for Mrs. John N. Robinson, who leaves Thursday with Major Robinson and their baby daughter, Mary Ellen, for service in the Philippines. This delightful tea was given Tuesday at the quarters of Lieutenant and Mrs. William L. Phillips, and Mrs. George Van Studford assisted. The charming guest at Fort Omaha, Miss Helen McCreary, who is visiting Colonel and Mrs. Jacob Wuest attended the tea and Mrs. R. I. Crawford, who leaves Wednesday with Major Crawford for California, bid her army friends goodbye at the reception.

From Overalls and Shirt

The Mack Sennet girls were called for a rush scene and this dainty miss had no bathing suit ready. She picked up a pair of overalls, on the ground to the right, and a shirt, tucked a bit, and presto! What more does the girl of today want when she goes to the pools and beaches than this bit of and individual costume.

Legislative measures for the protection of women in industry scheduled for introduction during the present session of congress include: Abolition of child labor; eight-hour day and 44-hour week, with a weekly day of rest; abolition of night work for women and minors; equal pay for equal work, and the establishment of minimum wage commissions in all states.

Husband for Princess Mary. English matchmakers are deeply in planning a suitable marriage for Princess Mary. The king and queen are so devoted to their only daughter that they have heretofore refused to consider the subject seriously, but as the princess is now in her 23d year they realize that before very long the question of her marriage will have to be taken up.

Heart Beats

By A. K.

We feel in us
A tendency to steal
To pillage
To pilfer
And to rob.
As one subsides
Another takes its place
And though we fight it
We find no relief.
Sometimes
The instincts
Of our cave ancestors
Surge up within
Until our eyes see red—
Our muscles grind—
Until the impulse rules
To beat some fragile woman
On the head—
Or some old helpless man.
We long to prowl around
At night
And let the wild
In us go forth
To salvage and to slay.
Alas!
There is no hope—
We are not a policeman.
We tried to join
The morals squad
So that we might
Search homes at night
For loot
And beat up little children
But the sly chief winked—
The commissioner blinked
At our petticoats
And said:
"Nay, nay Pauline!
You'd spoil the broth
You might tell on
Our paid and petted outlaws.
The public would
Be peevish you know
If the gang increased.
Our chosen few
May break the laws
And commit depredation."
Our tendency to steal
Subsides—
We have another notion—
We'll get a gun
And have some fun
Watching for
"Lawful" burglars. SELAHI

LEMON JUICE FOR FRECKLES

Girls! Make beauty lotion for a few cents—Try it!

Squeeze the juice of two lemons into a bottle containing three ounces of orchard white, shake well, and you have a quarter pint of the best freckle and tan lotion, and complexion beautifier, at very, very small cost.
Your grocer has the lemons and any drug store or toilet counter will supply three ounces of orchard white for a few cents. Massage this sweetly fragrant lotion into the face, neck, arms and hands each day and see how freckles and blemishes disappear and how clear, soft and rosy white the skin becomes. Yes! It is harmless and never irritates.—Adv.

On Hot Days

You may not care for much meat but you do want a little. To satisfy that appetite for meat cook a small quantity of meat with Macaroni or Spaghetti. The combination is most satisfying and appetizing.

The Secretary of the Interior has issued the following invitation to the American people to visit the National Parks and National Monuments.

To the American People:

Uncle Sam asks you to be his guest. He has prepared for you the choice places of this continent—places of grandeur, beauty and of wonder. He has built roads through the deep-cut canyons and beside happy streams, which will carry you into these places in comfort, and has provided lodgings and food in the most distant and inaccessible places that you might enjoy yourself and realize as little as possible the rigors of the pioneer traveler's life. These are for you. They are the playgrounds of the people. To see them is to make more hearty your affection and admiration for America.
