SCHINKEL WINS FOR OMAHA WITH SINGLE IN NINTH

Adolph Bats for Kopp in Last Inning and Scores Mason, Who Had Made Second Three-Bagger.

Pitcher Adolph Schinkel didn't pitch for Omaha yesterday, but he won the game for the Rourkes anyway. He was called upon to pinch-hit for Charley Kopp in the ninth inning after Pat Mason had rapped out a three-bagger, on which Barbeau romped home. Jap was safe beau romped home. C. OF C. CHAMPS tire playing schedule in the various leagues affiliated with the Muny as-Links of Seymour Lake Club for Honors and a Supper.

> Some time ago President Gamole of the Omaha Chamber of Commerce told Secretary Powell that from the officers, chairmen and vice chairmen of committees of the organization he could pick a team of golfers that could drag down to defeat a team that he might pick, providing that likewise the mem; bers were officers, chairmen and vice chairmen of the same committees. Powell did not believe it.

Yesterday afternoon on the links of the Seymour lake golf course, Gamble and his men demonstrated that they are golf champions of the chamber. Great care was exercised by both of the captains in picking their teams and when they got through they had selected what they considered 32 of the best golf players n Omaha. The upshot of the matter was that when the returns were tabu- the city of Wahoo, which city still and Overton resulted in a field day lated, Gamble's team had beaten the
