

PACKERS TOLD TO KEEP MEN OUT OF STOCK YARDS

Additional Employees Expected to Join Strike Today; Over 200 Join Ranks of Union.

Two meetings of the Union stock yards strikers were held yesterday in the A. O. U. W. hall, Twenty-fifth and M streets. P. J. Griffin, president and business representative of the Live Stock handlers' union and international officer of the Butchers' union, spoke in the evening. He urged the men to stay out as long as necessary and promised them victory. Circulars calling all employes out on a general strike were distributed to the stock yards men still at work when they left the yards last night. More than 200 of the men have signed membership blanks and paid their dues, according to the officials. The superintendents of the packing plants have been notified to keep their men out of the yards. Picketing will be continued tomorrow. J. W. Burns, business agent of Packers' Union No. 602, and John Davis of the district council, spoke at both meetings and urged the men to remain on strike. Two meetings will be held daily until the strike is ended.

Will March to Yards.

The strikers will meet at 9 a. m. today and go to the yards en masse to receive their pay. They expect to return with all men who have not at present walked out. The mechanics, about 25 in number, attended the meeting last night. A petition for better conditions was refused by Mr. Buckingham Wednesday.

Will Handle Shipments.

Wednesday night Secretary Striker of the Union Stock Yards company issued this statement: "All live stock shipped to the Omaha market is being handled in a most satisfactory manner. It will continue to be handled and no shipper need fear for his cattle." There was a meeting Wednesday and it is said that those who attended solidly voted in favor of continuing the strike. At this meeting a demand was agreed upon and the same was presented this morning to Superintendent Shellberg of the yards. It asks for an 8-hour day, equivalent to $110 a month, time and one-half for overtime and two Sundays off each month. Superintendent Shellberg refused to accept the paper on which the demand was written, telling the

Grocers and Butchers' Annual Picnic Gives Joy to 3,500 Persons

Yesterday was a real holiday for the grocers and butchers of Omaha generally, their stores and shops were closed during the entire day. The occasion was the annual picnic, held in Krug park. It was estimated that 3,500 persons were on the grounds.

In former years, at their picnics, the grocers and butchers have put on a big card of events, including races, athletics of all kinds and ball games. This year it was decided to make the picnic a real family affair. The basket picnic dinner was eaten at 6 o'clock, families and neighborhood groups gathering around the tables spread in the shade of the trees. Following the dinner there was a theatrical program by employes from the Iten Biscuit company and until close to midnight the dancing floor was filled.

While the associated grocers and butchers were holding their picnic at Krug park, managers and employes of the Basket Stores were making merry at their annual gathering at Lakeview park. It was a picnic and attended by nearly 1,000 persons. There was swimming, boating and a liberal patronizing of the amusement features at the beach.

DAUGHTER SEES FATHER KILLED IN AN ELEVATOR

Head of Bellwood Man Crushed In Accident in the Brandeis Building; Dies Instantly.

J. W. Grisinger, 65 years old, Bellwood, Neb., was instantly killed at 8 o'clock yesterday morning when his head was crushed between the floor of a Seventeenth street entrance elevator in the Brandeis building, and the ceiling of the second floor.

Grisinger entered the elevator with his daughter, Mrs. Maud Hansen, of Hollywood, Cal., to ascend to the office of an oculist, where he was receiving eye treatment. He was carrying two traveling bags, as he intended to return to Bellwood immediately after the treatment.

According to witnesses in the elevator, he lurched forward as the elevator started upward, fell to his hands and knees, his head catching between the elevator floor and the ceiling of the second floor.

According to Guy H. Cramer, 3720 Lincoln boulevard, who was a passenger in the elevator, Grisinger seemed to have been seized with a fainting spell.

The elevator was operated by Grace Overby, 1611 Avenue B, Council Bluffs. She has operated an elevator for two years. She was prostrated with grief after the accident, but was able to verify the story told by Mr. Cramer.

Mrs. Hansen, who was forced to witness her father's death, was under the doctor's care for several hours after the accident. The only relative in Omaha is W. E. Grisinger, 4020 Burt street, a cousin, she said.

Special Investigator M. A. Dempsey of the county attorney's office, pronounced the death accidental and stated that there would be no inquest.

Representatives of the state and city elevator commissions, after an investigation, said the elevator was in good running order.

How You Can Remove Every Trace of Hair

(Toilet Talks) A stiff paste made with some powdered delatone and water and spread on a hairy surface about 2 minutes will, when removed, take every trace of hair with it. The skin should then be washed to free it from the remaining delatone. No harm can result from this treatment but be sure it is delatone you get and you will not be disappointed. —Adv.
