

WOMAN'S SECTION OF THE BEE

Vessels large may venture more,
But little boats should keep near shore.—Franklin.

I have no other but a woman's reason;
I think him so, because I think him so.—Shakespeare.

Society

THE wanderlust has seized society folk. Summer gowns of linen shroud tapestried furniture, blinds are closed and drawn in many beautiful homes while the former occupants pass the summer days at seaside or mountain resorts. For those who love the ocean nothing could be more ideal than the trip which is being taken by Mr. and Mrs. Howard Baldrige and Mrs. Ronald Paterson. They left Omaha several weeks ago and have been making a leisurely trip, stopping at Havana to enjoy the tropical atmosphere of this charming spot. Motor trips, dances and dinners made the visit a most enjoyable one, but they set sail the first of the week on the 65 days' trip to South American points. Enroute the party will spend several days at Kingston, Jamaica. This is the first vacation trip which Mrs. Baldrige has taken since before the war, for she would not forsake her post of duty at the Red Cross warehouse even during the heated months while she was needed. It will be three months before the Omahans return.

Bennewitz-Moore.
An early morning wedding which was solemnized Wednesday was that of Miss Mary Moore, daughter of J. J. Moore and John A. Bennewitz. The Rev. Father McKeown performed the ceremony at 5:30 o'clock at Holy Name church. Miss Winifred Traynor played the wedding march and Mrs. J. H. Hanley sang.

The bride wore a white georgette gown. Miss Marie Bennewitz as bridesmaid wore pink georgette, with hat to match. B. H. Stutzman of Council Bluffs was groomsmen. Mr. and Mrs. Bennewitz left this morning for several weeks at the Wisconsin lakes and will be at home in Omaha after September 1. Mrs. Bennewitz's going away gown was of dark blue tricotette.

Miller Englehardt.
The marriage of Miss Clara B. Englehardt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Englehardt, and Mr. William J. Miller, son of Mrs. Sarah J. Miller, took place Wednesday at the St. Mark's Lutheran church. Rev. W. R. Guff read the marriage lines. Mr. Miller has just returned from overseas. The young couple will make their home in Omaha.

Red Cross.
Owing to the fact that so many of the drivers of the Red Cross motor corps are out of the city, volunteers are needed to assist in meeting troop trains. This driving includes recreation driving, and transportation of the sick and wounded to physicians and hospitals, and responding to emergency calls. Anyone interested in this work please call Miss Margaret Williams, acting captain, Red Cross motor corps, at Tyler 2721 or Walnut 357.

The Omaha chapter, American Red Cross, has received from James Lamb, Jr., 2109 California street, the sum of $4.50.

Heart Beats

By A. K.
She was flattered
When he held
His loved one
In his strong arms
And gazed into
The proverbial "blue lakes"
Brushed back the ringlets
From her beautiful
Pink and white face
And sighed:
"The greatest work
Of the Almighty"
She believed him.
And she thrived
On pretty compliments
Alighting here and there—
First on the highly curved
Arches
Then the lovely
Tapering fingers—
Pink-tipped and soft.
As the dream-girl
Wended her way
To the marriage altar
On the arm
Of her paternal
Parent
Visions of Paradise
Floated before her
"Blue lakes."
Time races madly
And takes with it
The bloom of youth.
Then the matron
Begged for the truth.
She longed to know
The real truth
Nothing but the truth
Hoping that
The big strong man's eyes
Still saw only beauty.
But he continued
To flatter
Until she demanded
The truth
And GOT it.
Cruelly charged—
Divorce granted.

Col. and Mrs. F. A. Grant and daughters, Misses Helen and Dorothy Grant, will leave next week for Seattle, where they will visit Joseph F. Grant.
Mr. and Mrs. Frank Schultz announce the birth of a son, Frank, Jr., Wednesday, July 16, at St. Joseph's hospital. Mrs. Schultz was formerly Miss Bernice Ellyson.
Mrs. Charles Offutt and daughter, Miss Virginia Offutt, accompanied by Miss Gertrude Stout, left Monday for Estes park. They will be joined later by Mr. John Stout.
Miss Gladys Kindred of Meadow Grove, Neb., has been visiting in Washington, D. C., at the home of Daniel C. Roper, commissioner of internal revenue. Miss Kindred and Miss Roper were roommates at Vassar college.
Evening Party.
Hubert Williams entertained at an informal party, Thursday evening, at the home of his sister, Mrs. Frank Smythe. Margaret and James Richards of Freeport, Ill., who are visiting Mrs. W. A. Roberts, were the honor guests. The guests included Misses Dorothy Halderman, Doris Rieff, Helen Byers, Doris Sieger, Alice Patton, Almena Ely, Marie Kennebeck, Messrs. Stanley Rieff, Thomas Dwyer, Russell Mattson, Harold Erickson, Eugene Ely, Gordon Toff, Harold Byer, William Albright, Marvin Williams, and Walter Rachky.
For Younger Set.
The younger set is doing much entertaining these summer days and many are the delightful parties given by them for visitors and those who are leaving town. Ralph Lee will entertain at a dinner party at the Athletic club Friday evening. Covers will be laid for Misses Erna Reed, Peggy Reed, her guest, Weona Engle of Chicago, Alga Metz, and Helen Walker; Messrs. Judson Squire, Fritz Koenig, Porter Allan, and Sidney Cullingham.

Country Club
Girls of the school set donned their daintiest summer frocks, Thursday, when Miss Betty Fairfield, who is visiting at the home of Miss Esther Smith and who is a most popular summer guest, entertained at luncheon at the Country club. Brown-eyed daisies formed a lovely centerpiece for the table. Covers were laid for Misses Peggy Reed, and her guest, Weona Engle of Chicago; Mary Morsman, DeWeenta Conrad, Helen Rogers, Zerlina Brisbon, Katherine Denny, Winifred Smith and Esther Smith.
Miss Peggy Reed will entertain at a small dinner party at the Country club Saturday evening, in honor of her guest, Miss Weona Engle of Chicago. The party will include members of the school set.
Many parties are being given at the clubs at the Saturday dinners, this being a very popular mode of entertaining. Parties of 30 will be given by Dr. B. B. Davis and Mrs. Victor Caldwell at the Country club Saturday evening, and F. H. Gaines will have a party of 10. Mrs. Casper E. Yost entertained informally at luncheon at the club Thursday when covers were laid for eight.
Happy Hollow
Luncheon day at Happy Hollow club was well attended and many parties were given Thursday. Garden flowers formed an attractive decoration for the tables and those entertaining included Mrs. C. G. Smith, who had 12 guests, W. C. Johnson, 10. Mrs. G. H. Payne entertained eight guests, Mrs. Cuthbert Vincent six, and small parties were given by Mrs. H. E. Ellick, Miss Helen Drummond and Mrs. W. H. Rhodes.
Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Weller entertained a family party at dinner at the club Thursday evening, when covers were laid for 10. Mrs. J. M. Bannister will have eight guests at luncheon Friday and those entertaining Saturday evening will include Dr. E. O. Peterson, who will have a party of six and W. A. Piel, who will also have six guests.
Miss Lucile Lathrop entertained at a delightful luncheon Thursday, at Happy Hollow club in honor of Miss Frances Anderson of Pueblo, Colo., who was a schoolmate of Miss Lathrop at Rockford college and Miss Clyde Hoerr of Mankato, Minn., who is visiting Mrs. F. B. Aldous. Pink roses and blue lilies in a dainty blue basket tied with tulle formed a lovely centerpiece for the table. Covers were laid for Misses Dorothy Cavanaugh, Eleanor Carpenter, Gertrude Koenig, Dolly Burnette and Winifred Lathrop.

Carter Lake
The cottagers' luncheons given Wednesday at the Carter Lake club, are well attended, for the women living at the lake enjoy these affairs, playing cards after luncheon. Thirty-five guests attended the luncheon this week. Small dinner parties were given Wednesday evening by E. E. Woodson, Tom E. Woods, C. E. Lathrop and R. Jackson.
Membership committees of the Chamber of Commerce will have dinner at the club, Thursday evening, when covers will be laid for 36. A committee from the Woodmen of the World will entertain 100 guests at dinner, Thursday.
Field Club
The children find keen enjoyment at their matinee dance which is given Friday afternoons at the Field club. The club house belongs to the kiddies on this day and they make a pretty picture in their dainty frocks dancing together and playing on the green lawns. Mrs. Robert Manley will entertain a party of 30 children, Friday at the club in honor of her two daughters and Mrs. Francis Petter has invited 10 children to the dance.
Miss S. Stryker entertained five guests at dinner, Thursday evening.
For Miss Smyth.
Miss Katherine Smythe of Washington, D. C., who is the guest of her sister, Mrs. C. G. Sibbensen, and Mr. Sibbensen is being entertained extensively by her Omaha friends. The affairs are informal in nature, just a few girls for luncheon or tea and Miss Mercedes Jensen will be hostess at one of these afternoon parties on Friday. Miss Smythe expects to spend the summer here.
For Army Set.
Many informal affairs have been given for Miss Helen McCreary of Watertown, N. Y., who is the guest of her cousin, Mrs. Jacob Wuest, of Fort Omaha. Mrs. George Lundberg entertained at a delightful porch party in her honor Thursday afternoon, the guests included the women of the post.

SEMPRAY
Face Powder
An elusive perfume is the perfume of SEMPRAY Face Powder—so delicate—so full of the freshness of youth and womanly loveliness.
And the perfume lasts—even as the power "stays-on" under all conditions. Try it. No other face powder is quite so friendly to the complexion.

Advice to the Lovelorn

Love Comes Unbidden and, "To Love or Not We Are No More Free Than the Ripple to Rise and Leave the Sea."

By BEATRICE FAIRFAX
Wants Home.
Dear Miss Fairfax, Omaha Bee: As I have been a reader of the "Advice to the Lovelorn" I thought I would ask you for advice. I am a widow with three children and would like to know if I could get a place as housekeeper for some lone some widower. I have no home of my own and it is so hard to try to make a living and take care of my children. I have had several chances to get married, but I have not found the right party. So I would like to see if I could get a place on a farm before September 1, so I can send my children to school. I love country life and I like farm work.
If you are still at the merry-go-round stage, you are not entitled to sentimental problems. I'll answer your question, however, assuming that you have at least reached the ripe old age of 18, and were merely going down to the merry-go-round to enjoy some of the classical music usually rendered at such places.
This seems to be a misunderstanding about the hour when the young man was to call. You did not do wrong unless you had reason to believe he intended to come in the evening, in which case you should have remained at home to receive him. Since there is a possibility you were in the wrong, it would be all right for you to mention the matter to him at some convenient moment, saying you were at home during the day, expecting him to call, and asking if it had been his intention to come in the evening. This will give him an opportunity to explain, and you can judge from what he says whether or not he was properly considerate of you. There are bashful people, especially among the youthful in years, but bashfulness is not an excuse for peevishness, which springs from a bad disposition, or stupidity, which is a tragic handicap.
Outside and Peroxide.
Dear Miss Fairfax, Omaha Bee: We are coming to you for advice. We are girls of 14 and 17, and we are about the same size in height, and people takes us for twins. This is what we want to know: How long at night should a boy stay out with the girls after they arrived at the girls home? (2) Is it proper for them to sit outside and talk? We girls are popular over boys. But we don't let them kiss us good-night, which they don't think is right of us girls. (3) What should we do about it? (4) Does peroxide take out the hair? Excuse our writing, as we are in a hurry. Thank you in advance, respectfully, WAHOO GIRLS.
Too bad you drag your town into the case. I am sure it is not responsible for your lack of knowledge in the simple matters upon which you seek advice. If a young man escorts a girl home from an evening entertainment, it is quite proper for him to bid her good-night when they reach her home. If he does remain, it should be for only a short time, and then preferably in the house, where there are adults whose presence is felt. Your stand on the good-night kiss is a credit to you. Have you enough strength of purpose to live up to it? Peroxide takes out color of the hair, but does not take out the hair itself. Don't use it unless you want to look unnatural and insincere.
Foolish Children.
Dear Miss Fairfax: We are two girls of 18 and 14. We are considered very good looking by every one we meet. We have brown eyes and dark curly hair. We have many close friends of both sexes. We are both about 3 1/2 feet tall. Should we wear our dresses above our knees. Should we braid our hair or leave it in curls. There are two boys just arrived in the neighborhood whom we would like to meet. How would you advise us to get up to them? Are green georgette dresses appropriate for girls of our ages? Thanking you in advance, we are—Toots and Babe.
Silly children, wear your hair in curls as long as possible and let the boys alone for a few more years. You will only make yourself ridiculous by forcing your attentions. You should be having playmates instead of thinking about meeting some new boys.

South Dakota Girl—I most certainly could not advise a girl of 15 to run away. If you think life is hard at home, just remember that it would be much harder and more dangerous away from home. Between now and your 18th birthday try to fit yourself for some remunerative work. Life is dull for the uneducated and any little girl who leaves home at 15 is running into self-made sorrow. Spend the next three years in concentration and education. The trained mind can solve very difficult problems. Your letter indicates that while your story may have good thought, your technique would be so faulty that no publisher would accept it. Those who advise you to send it in know nothing of the market.
Merry-Go-Round Causes a Breach.
Dear Miss Fairfax, Omaha Bee: I have been reading your "Advice to the Lovelorn" and thought I would write to you about my troubles. I know a very nice boy who is bashful. One night when we came home from town he said he would be over next day. He didn't say what time and I didn't ask him, as I never thought about it. I stayed
