

BRIEF BRIGHT BREEZY BITS OF NEWS

10 YEARS OF HARD LABOR FOR JUST 10 LITTLE WORDS.

Budapest, July 21.—Bela Kun's prosecution of rumor mongering is stern and relentless. A leading local lawyer entered a barber shop the other day and said: "The French have entered Budapest, the bolsheviks have been overthrown."

He has been sentenced to 10 years in the penitentiary—10 years at hard labor for 10 words.

FAMED ENGLISH BEAUTY FALLS THROUGH SKYLIGHT.

London, July 21.—Lady Diana Manners Cooper, while watching the display of fireworks in Hyde Park from the roof of her house Saturday night, accidentally stepped into a skylight and fell 20 feet breaking a thigh and sustaining other injuries.

Lady Diana Manners is one of the most famed beauties of England. After rejecting princes, dukes and millionaires she married early this year Captain Alfred Duff Cooper, of the Grenadier Guards, who won the Distinguished Service Cross in France. She is the youngest of three daughters of the Duke of Rutland, and like her sisters, Lady Marjorie and Lady Violet, had for years dazzled English and foreign society with her beauty as well as the great number and richness of her costumes.

Lady Diana is 28 years old. She is known as the "most photographed woman in the world." During the war she sold hundreds of thousands of photographs of herself in dramatic poses and costumes, using the proceeds for war charities.

LUCKY YANK SENDS SIX MEXICANS ACROSS STYX.

Claude, Tex., July 21.—The Claude News has received the following letter from Bob Carter, a ranchman in the Big Bend section of the Rio Grande border:

"Hays Robbins, a rancher who is well known in Armstrong county and at Cleburne, took a New York oil man down to the Big Bend country to look at some oil leases near the border. On their return trip seven Mexicans held them up expecting to rob the oil man Robbins stopped the automobile and the battle began. Hays killed six with an automatic revolver. He was slightly wounded, but able to return without help."

LOCATED JEWELS MUST BE RESTORED.

Paris, July 21.—Here are some of the "special objects" carried off by the House of Hapsburg and other dynasties from Italy, Belgium, Poland and Czechoslovakia which must be restored if a committee of three jurists to be appointed by the reparations commission finds they were "illegally removed."

From Tuscany.—The crown jewels and part of the Medici heirlooms. From Modena—"A" virgin" by Avire Delsarto and three manuscripts. From Palermo—Twelfth century objects made for the Norman kings. From Naples—Twenty-eight manuscripts carried off in 1788.

From Belgium—Various objects and documents removed in 1794. From Poland—A gold cup of King Ladislas IV., removed in 1772. From Czechoslovakia—Various documents and historical manuscripts removed from the royal chateau at Prague.

UNHAPPILY MARRIED. HOPED TO DIE IN WAR.

New York, July 21.—John A. Sidney, a manufacturer, living at Hotel McAlpin, says in an affidavit filed in the supreme court that he wanted to "get killed over there" for the double purpose of "laying down his life for his country" and avoiding all domestic difficulties.

Mr. Sidney makes this statement in a paper which he has filed in connection with a suit for alimony brought by his wife, Alma, who is seeking separation. Mrs. Sidney is now a manicure at the Hotel Martinique. She says Sidney treated her cruelly.

ATLANTIC CITY SHOCKS HIS AESTHETIC TASTE.

Atlantic City, July 21.—Col Dinshah Ghadiali, a native of India, but an American citizen cried out before the convention of the National Association of Druggists Physicians here against Atlantic City's bathing law, compelling women in beach rainment to wear stockings.

"Why should beautiful women—and all the women in here are beautiful—be compelled by an immoral, un-American and inhuman law to cover their beautiful limbs?" he asked.

"What's the difference, I ask you, between a woman's foot and a man's foot? Do not the authorities of Atlantic City yet know they cannot make a people moral by law; that only education can do that? Why, I ask further, why not make men wear stockings upon legs that are not beautiful and put all horses in trousers?"

13-YEAR-OLD GIRL CLIMBS MT. RAINIER.

Tacoma, Wash., July 21.—Jeanette Shearer, 13 years old, of Worcester, Mass., was one of a party that climbed the "most tremendous peak" of Mount Rainier Sunday.
