WILL ENFORCE LAW GOVERNING AUTO NUMBERS

Dealers Not Allowed to Use License Plates on Other Than Demonstrating Cars.

Lincoln, July 21.—Automobile dealers are liable to find themselves in a great deal of trouble if they do not cease using their dealers' numbers for personal use. The new automobile law strictly prohibits a dealer from using his dealer's license on cars which are not being demonstrated. He must confine the use of the number to trips where he is demonstrating the car for sale purposes.

It has come to the attention of the automobile department that the law is being broken all over the country. It is no infrequent thing to see a dealer's number on a Sunday or in the evening on several cars being used purely for pleasure and this must cease, according to State Engineer Johnson.

Discussing the law State Engineer Johnson says: "In passing house bill 299 at the 1919 session of the legislature, it was the intention of the men drafting the bill, also the members of the legislature, that all dealers and car users should pay the same for all classes of cars, excepting those cars used by dealers for demonstrating purposes only.

Intent of Law Clear.
"If a dealer has a private car for himself and family, or has a separate truck, he would pay the same tax as any other individual or business man, and the purpose and intent of this law seems to be very clear.

"Section 19 states that each manufacturer or dealer doing business in the state, may register one motor vehicle in each class manufactured and he may secure numbers for as many vehicles in the same class as he has to demonstrate. Section 19 also provides that a purchaser may keep a dealer's registration number for a period not exceeding 10 days. It also provides that the section does not refer or apply to motor vehicles operators, by a dealer for his private use or for hire.

"Section 20 provides that all electrically driven vehicles shall constitute a class; all vehicles propelled by steam, shall constitute a class, all vehicles propelled by gas explosives weighing less than 4,000 pounds a class; all cars and trucks or more than 4,000 pounds a class. Section 9 also provides that a dealer shall comply in all other respects with the provisions of the act.

"The reason for the special consideration of dealers for cars being used for demonstrating purposes, is that such cars are sold and registered by the purchaser during the year.

"Sections 19 and 20 of the act refer to dealers and does not make any distinction between dealers of new or second-hand cars. The tax should be paid on the class of car handled, regardless of the make.

A number of the farm hands complained to the operator at Fairmont. His report did not say if any of the farm hands were injured, nor did it approximate the amount of money reported stolen.

WANTS PROTEST MEETINGS HELD AGAINST LEAGUE

Former Lieutenant Governor Urges People of Nebraska to Take Immediate Action.

Lincoln, July 21.—Former Lieutenant Governor Edgar Howard of Columbus was in the city Monday in the interests of the movement for the league of nations as advocated by President Wilson. Mr. Howard has traveled over the state considerably and he says that there is an overwhelming sentiment against any entangling alliances on the part of the United States with any foreign countries which are likely to take from us our rights as an independent and liberty-loving nation.

Regarding the matter he has issued the following: "Recently I published an appeal for 100 resolutions to call for a call for a mass meeting in Nebraska, the object of the meeting being to protest against and to devise ways and means to prevent the ratification of a league of nations covenant, or that part of the covenant which constitutes an offensive and defensive alliance between the government of the United States and the government of any monarch in Europe or in Asia.

Instead of hundreds answering the call, thousands have eagerly asked that their own names might be attached to such a call.

Call Public Meetings.
In consultation with many true Americans, it had been planned to call such state mass meetings for some day next week on the state capital grounds in Lincoln. But more mature deliberation and consideration has developed a plan of action which I believe will be more fruitful than a hastily-called state mass meeting during the hot weather season. This plan provides for the early calling of public mass meetings in every county (such as the mass meeting in Dodge county last week). Any number of true Americans in any county can issue a call for such a meeting, inviting to the meeting all citizens who are opposed to any manner of alliance between the government of the United States and any government in Europe or in Asia. I suggest three lines of action by such mass meetings in each county:

1.—The passage of resolutions of protest against any feature of the league of nations covenant which is in effect an offensive and defensive alliance between the government of the United States and the government of any nation in Europe or Asia, and the telegraphing of such resolutions to Senators Norris and Hitchcock. Should Name Delegates.

state meeting to be hereafter called by a provisional state committee to be chosen by the various county mass meetings. 2.—The delegation of one active citizen in each county to serve as county member of a provisional state committee to have charge of the work of organizing the state of Nebraska, and arousing the people to a sense of the great danger attending America and the American people in event that the British-Japanese interests shall by their powerful propaganda persuade the United States senate to ratify those portions of the League of Nations covenant which constitute an offensive and defensive alliance between our own republic and any government in Europe or Asia.

Wants All Reports.
I request that report of all county mass meetings together with names of state delegates and state committeemen, be mailed to me quickly. I will take care of the correspondence and all expense of it as long as my bank account will permit, and will then turn the work over to some proper person to be selected by the provisional state committee.

3.—The sending of the friends of the senate of the United States in consideration of the resolutions to our United States senators. Make the resolutions so plain that even a United States senator will understand them.

Men and women of Nebraska, I appeal to you in the faith of the fathers of the republic and in obedience to the command of its first president, George Washington.

W. O. W. Appeal From Verdict of Douglas County Judge
Lincoln, July 21.—The Sovereign camp of the Woodmen of the World has appealed from a judgment for $2,209.95 secured by Kathryn Sawyer in the Douglas county district court.

H. W. Sawyer, husband of the plaintiff in the case, was insured for $2,000 with $100 additional for funeral benefits in the W. O. W. He was killed while working on a railroad. The lodge refused to pay the benefit for the reason that Sawyer had changed his vocation to one more dangerous without notifying the company.

Refuse to Lower Rate on Nebraska State Fish Car
Lincoln, July 21.—The national railway administration is "dead set" against any proposition covering transportation of the Nebraska fish car at any rate less than 30 cents a mile, according to a letter received by Acting Governor Barrows from Senator George W. Norris.

Senator Norris stated that he had been to see the railway administration again in hopes that they might be convinced that in the interest of the public good the Nebraska fish car might be taken care of some way, but they refuse to change their minds.

CONDITION OF CROPS IN STATE GOOD, IS REPORT

Corn Averages 100 Per Cent Practically Throughout the State; Wheat 20 Bushels Per Acre.

Crop and soil conditions are excellent in Nebraska, according to the report of the Burlington for the week ending last Saturday. Dealing with the corn crop, the report indicates that generally corn is in good shape and that the growth is much further advanced than usual at this season of the year. At no place in the state has corn been injured by dry weather.

Figuring on the basis of 100 per cent for the average condition at this season of the year, the estimate by divisions, which include practically all the corn grown area of the state, follows:

Omaha	101
Lincoln	91
Wymore	82
McCook	106

The threshing of small grain is progressing rapidly, and while the yield is falling below some of the early estimates, it is said to be fairly satisfactory.

On the Omaha division, wheat is averaging 20 bushels to the acre; Lincoln, 16; Wymore and McCook, 13.

Pastures continue in fine condition. The second crop of alfalfa, a heavy one, has been cut and stacked. Sugar beets are coming along in fine shape and it is said that a normal crop is certain. During the week rains from a short distance west of the Missouri river, through into Colorado, were pretty general, a number of the company station agents reporting a precipitation of one-half to two inches.

WHY RUN-DOWN PALE EXHAUSTED WOMEN SHOULD TAKE IRON

There can be no beautiful, healthy, rosier-checked, steady nerves without iron. When the iron goes from the blood of women, the result is from their cheeks—their charm and attractiveness depart. I always insist that my patients take organic Nuxated Iron—not metallic iron which often corrodes the stomach and does more harm than good. Nuxated Iron is easily assimilated, does not blacken nor injure the teeth nor upset the stomach. It will increase the strength and endurance of weak, nervous, irritable, careworn, haggard women in two weeks' time in many cases. I have used it in my own practice with most surprising results."

Farmers' Union Will Discuss Plans for Terminal Elevators

Plans for the establishment of terminal elevators throughout Nebraska in accordance with rights delegated in a recent law passed by the state legislature will be discussed at the sixth annual meeting of the Nebraska Farmers' union at Hotel Castle this morning.

One hundred delegates are expected. "We are meeting primarily to discuss and urge the adoption of a plan for establishing terminal elevators in the state," President C. H. Gustafson of Lincoln said last evening. "Such a system in Canada, Idaho and Oregon has resulted in more economical marketing of grain."

The Farmers' union has been organized six years and its membership control upwards of one-third of the grain marketing business of the state, President Gustafson said. L. M. Koel of Omaha is secretary of the organization.
