DES MOINES TO Base Ball Standings OPEN THREE-DAY SERIES TODAY

Boosters to Take on the Rourkes Squad After Latter's Layoff Yesterday.

The Des Moines Coon Creekers, Ne once this season, Western League leaders, will be in Omaha to open a three-game series with the Be Rourkes this afternoon. Coffey's crew took a had slump and slipped away down the list, but are again battling in good form and slowly but surely climbing toward the

The hopes of the Des Moines rag chasers have not been killed by their misfortune and they are still earnest in their belief that they will grab the bunting. They expect the Omaha club to be but another stepping stone to their ambition and declare nothing but a three-time victory will satisfy them in Omaha.

Manager Jackson thinks his boys will be right on the job and put an end to the "foolishness" of Coffey's bunch and set them back to where they belong. Like Coffey, Jackson thinks he will have a club up in front before the final bell rings and he doesn't intend to let the Coon Creek inhabitants inter fere with his plans. We are promised some battles today, tomorrow and Thursday. The clubs will line up as follows

CARPENTIER IS LOOKED UPON AS TITLE PROSPECT

His Defeat of Former English Champion Was Evidence of Great Ability; to Meet Beckett.

New York, July 21. - Georges Carpentier, the European heavyweight champion, looms up as a possible contender with Jack Demp-

It was Carpentier's first ring appearance in nearly five years and his showing against the Englishman gave the lie to the stories of his having gone back and not being fit for a hard battle. The real test of his fitness, however, will come when he goes up against Joe Beck-ett, holder of the British heavyweight title, in London, on Septem-

In last night's bout Carpentier showed himself to be possessed o his old-time punching power and whirlwind speed. He had things his own way from start to finish. He floored Smith twice before the knockout came in the eighth round. It was remarked that his tactics resembled those by which Dempsey bested Willard-rushing and carrying the fight to his opponent, so that the latter never had a chance to get "set."

It was announced that Fred Fulton has challenged the Frenchman and, while a match between these two might pave the way for a bout between Carpentier and Dempsey, it would not serve to give much of a line on the Frenchman's chances against Dempsey, because Fulton did not last long enough with Dempsey to give any basis for compari

It is understood that Kearns and Dempsey are both willing to take on Carpentier if a match can be arranged. Tex Rickard also is understood to be willing to arrange proper backing for such a match, as he is confident that it would prove a greater drawing card than the Dempsey-Willard affair. The middle west, however, is not likely to get another chance at a match of such magnitude, unless it should be possible to hold it within reach of Chicago.

I believe every boy should have his "playdays." But there is a time to work and a time to play. The parent who "farms out" his 12 or 4 year-old boy for the entire vacation season is not dealing fairly with the boy physically unless in the farming out contract there is a specification that the boy shall have certain days, besides Sunday, on which to go fishing, swimming or to play ball. It is as natural for a boy to love to play ball as it is for a young colt to frisk about the pasture. When I specify "base ball," I include all clean sports of like character. Let your boy have time to engage in these sports. This does not mean he should play every day. "All play and no work soon teaches a boy to shirk."

Every boy should be taught to wim. If no swimming-pool is at hand, then utilize the lake or river. See that he is always in the hands of a competent, desirable instructor. As a rule a boy's father is the best instructor if the father himself has been properly "brought up" so he knows how to chum with his boy. If he is one of those fathers that, like the telephone, is always giving the "busy" signal, he will not do at all. He is so selfish, so selfcentered, he will run along for a too brief span, then stop like an eight-day clock that has run down.

Fathers just read that again. If you have brought a boy into the world you owe him more than you may know Just think it over will along the line of a real "chum" to
