DELIGHTFUL was the tea given at Fort Crook Tuesday, by Mrs. George Van Studdiford, in honor of her guest, Mrs. J. D. Pomeroy, and Mrs. W. J. Phillips, who is visiting Lt. and Mrs. William L. Phillips. Among the guests were Lt. Milton Peterson, his fiancée, Miss Alice Coad, and her guest, Miss Katherine Krug. Lieutenant Peterson was stationed at Fort Douglas at the same time as Lieutenant Phillips.

Mrs. Van Studdiford was attractively gowned in white georgette. Mrs. Pomeroy wore a lovely afternoon gown of white satin combined with printed georgette. Mrs. W. J. Phillips wore dark blue voile. Mrs. William L. Phillips wore a gown of cream colored lace. Miss Alice Coad was most attractive in a pretty afternoon frock of orange colored voile. Miss Katherine Krug, who is visiting Miss Coad, wore white net combined with tan silk.

Conversation centered on Lieutenant Peterson and lovely Miss Coad, who are to be married August 2. Lieutenant Peterson is still in the regular army but expects his discharge some time in October. He and his bride will reside at Fort Brady until he is discharged from the service.

Heart Beats

By A. K.

We go through Life
So busy looking
That we do not see—
So busy thinking
That we do not learn—
So busy talking
That we do not hear—
Believing in
We know not what—
Fighting though
We know not why—
Boasting of
The simple things—
Praying for
All the forbidden—
Singing though
We dislike song—
Sinning when
We know it's wrong—
Criticizing
Other persons
Just as near Correct as we—
Disliking folks
We do not know.
Planning on
Some phantom future—
Wanting what
We may not have—
Wishing for
Another's life—
Longing to be
Overseas—
Over there pray
For returning—
Whining at some
Small condition—
Putting off
Until tomorrow
What we should
Have done today.
Thus we go through Life
Just slouching—
Procrastinating
Here and there
Still we wonder
What blocks progress
And makes Evolution slow.

She's a Perfect Cinema Confection, Is Blanche! Yes?

Blanche Sweet? Certainly, she is. Which makes it appropriate here to say that, so far as newspaper mention and personal correspondence is concerned, there have been just 200,000 complimentary punning plays on her name. No—there you are wrong! Lots of adoring male creatures, of course, but the vast majority of those who have brought worshipful sweets to the Sweet shrine are numbered among appreciative girls. For her stage career with a dancing divinity—Gertrude Hoffman—and later appeared with the man of the Miesian madrigal—Chauncey Olcott. While at the Biograph with Griffith she went to the screen in "Judith of Bethulia." With Lasky she appeared in "Public Opinion," "The Storm," and other popular film-drawing cards, but now you recall her in the powerful production of "The Unpardonable Sin."

Tut! Tut! Algernon—she's a whole orchard of 'em. George Ade is credited with saying that Blanche is sweet because she was born in Chicago and is in her element, when she puts up a lake front. She began club, Wednesday evening, in her honor, when covers were laid for 25 guests.

Country Club

Miss Esther Smith was hostess at dinner party Wednesday evening at the Country club, in honor of Miss Betty Fairfield, who is her house guest. Brown-eyed daisies formed the centerpiece for the table. Covers were laid for Misses Winifred Smith, Gretchen Hess, Peggy Reed, and her guest, Weona Engle of Chicago; Messrs. Roderick Crane, Warren Ege, Milton Rogers, Roland Jefferson, Russell Best and Richard Mallory.

Miss Helen Ingwersen entertained at luncheon Wednesday, at the Country club in honor of Miss Frances Dudley of Nashville, Tenn., who is the guest of Miss Gladys Peters. Covers were laid for Misses Marion Towle, Daphne Peters, Olga Metz, Mona Towle, Grace Allison, Josephine Congdon, Mrs. John Caldwell and Mrs. Robert Garrett.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Wheeler entertained 10 guests at dinner at the Country club, Wednesday evening. F. H. Davis and A. L. Reed each had 10 guests. F. S. Conner entertained eight guests.

Although Miss Frances Dudley of Nashville, Tenn., will stay but a few days, many affairs have been planned for her. Her hostess, Miss Gladys Peters, entertained at one of the largest parties at the Country

Carter Lake

Many parties were given at the dinner-dance at Carter Lake club Tuesday evening. A. C. Hartman entertained eight guests, parties of six were given by W. H. Yohe, Dan Leary and Russell Tetard, while foursoomes were given by R. E. Karlf, J. Refriger, Dr. J. H. Wallace and S. K. Hanford.

Concord club entertained at a dinner-dance Wednesday evening, when 100 guests attended. Fifty reservations were made for the cottagers' dinner Wednesday evening.

For Miss Coad.

Many pre-nuptial affairs are being given in honor of Miss Alice Coad, whose marriage to Lieut. Milton Peterson takes place next week. Miss Irene Carter entertained at a small luncheon party at the Athletic club, Wednesday, for this lovely bride-to-be. Garden flowers were used as a centerpiece and covers were laid for six.

Wants Companion.

Dear Miss Fairfax, Omaha Bee: Would you please help me find a companion by putting this in The Bee?

I am a woman, 71 years of age. I live all alone and would like to find a woman companion, one who is a little younger than myself and who would be willing to do her share of the work. No children. Also want one who can come well recommended. I live in town and could give a nice woman a good home. Also would like to hear from a lady to keep house for man and five children; one who has no children. How is my writing?

MRS. D. M.

No doubt there are many women who would be glad to share your home if they but knew about your desire for companionship. I am not so sure about a woman to keep house for a man with five children. However, I sincerely trust there will be many inquiries and applications for both places. Your writing may or may not be good. My guess is that the letter is not written by you, but by a young girl—hence the irrelevant question.

Dentistry at Fair Prices

I consider a fair price for a competent dentist to charge is a price that will enable a first-class, conscientious dental operator to use the best material, a safe and sure anaesthetic, provide every sanitary precaution, give the patient skillful, artistic work and yet yield a modest profit.

My modest fees imply you will get just such service at this office.

Why My Baby Sleeps So Well

At ten o'clock I wake him up just enough to get that warm bottle into his chubby hands—and I have to watch him to see that he doesn't slip back sound asleep over it—and then not a sound out of him except his soft breathing until seven next morning!

Some other babies I have heard of wake up and cry during the night—but not mine, because his little stomach has no trouble with his food.

You see, it's Nestlé's Milk Food. Just a form of milk easier to digest than ordinary milk, because it's in powder form and that breaks up the hard to digest curds. And more nourishing for him, too—because it has in it just the right amount of sugar and cereal.

The Nestlé Company likes to save babies and put them on the road to health. They gave me free a big Mother's Book on baby feeding by specialists, and enough Nestlé's Food for twelve feedings. They will be glad to do this for you, too, if you will send them your name on the coupon below. I know your baby can be as well and strong as mine!

Nestlé's pure milk in powder form that is already modified and does not require the further addition of milk. Always pure and safe, always uniform, and free from the dangers of home modification, Nestlé's has stood the test of three generations and has today the largest sale of any baby food in the world.

FREE! Enough Nestlé's for 12 feedings. Send the coupon!

Delicate Mechanism

Despite its scope, Swift & Company is a business of infinite details, requiring infinite attention.

Experienced men must know livestock buying with a knowledge of weight, price, the amount and quality of meat the live animals will yield.

Each manufacturing operation must be done with expert skill and scientific precision. A highly perishable product must be handled with speed and care to avoid loss.

Chemists, engineers, accountants, and other specialists are required to take care of our intricate problems.

Alert wisdom and judgment must be used in getting stocks of goods into the open channels of demand through our four hundred branch houses. Branch house organizations must show activity and energy to sell at the market in the face of acute competition from other large packers, and hundreds of small ones.

All these requirements of intelligence, loyalty, devotion to the task, are met in the personnel of Swift & Company. Yet the profit is only a fraction of a cent per pound, with costs at minimum.

How can the workings of this delicate human mechanism be improved upon?

Do you believe that Government direction would add to our efficiency or improve the service rendered the producer and consumer?

Let us send you a Swift "Dollar". It will interest you.
