DES MOINES' HIT AND RUN GAME IS EASILY WINNER

Coon Creekers Slap Out 19 Hits Which Net Them 14 Runs and Doubles the Score of the Local Club.

Jack Coffey's wild Coon Creekers returned Tuesday's favor and slugged the old pill so hard, they put the Rourks to rout. On 19 bingles they made 14 runs, just double the count of the Omaha team, whose 7 runs were made on 10 hits. Six two-baggers were made in the game, Des Moines players getting four of them and two were made by local batters. Hazen of Omaha and Cass of Des Moines, each made a three-base clout.

It took the clubs two hours to play the game, each club having one particularly good inning, taking up some time. Omaha did the best work at the plate in the first inning, making five runs on four hits, a base on balls and an error. They counted two more in the sixth frame on three successive singles by Hazen, Ohlin and Mason, Hazen scoring on Ohlin's hit and Ohlin counting on Mason's bingle.

Des Moines made two in the first. Hasbrook singled and scored on Cass' triple. Cass came in on Connelly's out, Barbeau to Jackson. After two were out in the second, Barbeau threw wild to Jackson on Hartford's grounder. Pitcher Allison smacked Kopp's fast one for two bags, Hartford scoring. Milan and Hasbrook followed with singles, Allison trotting home on the first one. Both teams were blanked in the third.

A single, a walk and a double counted two more for Des Moines in the fourth and Omaha drew another blank. Two singles and an error netted one more for the Boosters in the fifth, the Rourkes again going runless. The heavy Des Moines inning was the sixth. Allison went out, short to first. Milan got a life on Mason's boot and stole second. Hasbrook singled, making his fourth hit in as many times at bat. Ohlin juggled Cass' grounder. Connolly and Breen each singled and Ewoldt walked. Coffey hit a long sacrifice fly to left field on which two men scored.

Following Coffey's fly out, Hartford banged out a hit. On his second trip to the plate in that inning, Allison ripped out a neat single, scoring Breen and Ewoldtt but died when Milan fanned on his second effort. When the smoke had cleared away, six runs on five hits was the visitors count. Two singles and a two-bagger netted them one more run in the seventh. Milan slammed a double in the eighth, but died on second and no scores were made in that or in the ninth, when they went out in one-two-three order.

The errors were plentiful, the Rourkes making seven and the Boosters four. Connolly in right field made two and Hartford at short made the other two for Des Moines. Jap Barbeau was the greatest offender for Omaha, making two errors, one a boot and the other a bad heave to first base. Jackson, Spellman, Hazen, Ohlin and Mason each made one bobble. Des Moines used two hurlers and three heavers were on the rubber for Omaha. Kopp lasted four innings, Schatzman, two, and Townsend finished up. Boyd started for Des Moines, but lasted one-third of an inning, giving way to Allison after he had allowed three hits and four runs.

JESS didn't grab one of those he-may-get-over-it-but-he-will-never-look-the-same beatings.

Jess may look the same, but he will never get over it.

Can't claim that Jack Coombs deserted a sinking ship. She was sunk before Jack got there.

Dempsey must remember that his pal, Pop Time, is now his enemy.

Willard is still snipping out paper kewpies. When he stands up he thinks he's wearing rockers instead of shoes. When he sits down he thinks that all the chairs only have three legs.

President Baker of the Phils ought to be satisfied with a team that ain't getting him into any income tax trouble.

When Coombs signed up to manage the Phils the owners promised to help Jack out. They did. Jack's out.

Efficiency expert who risked one eye on the fight claims that Dempsey wasted a lot of two-base hits on a one-base nose.

Fulton picks a neat time to go to Europe. He's safe. Until he hops into the ring.

Well, if a towel is Jess' idea of a battle flag, let 'em go to it.

Where would the works have been if G. Washington had toted a boatload of sponges across the Delaware?

Jack Holland, Owner of Oklahoma City Club, Plans to Retire Soon

Des Mones, Ia., July 23.—Jack Holland, owner of the Oklahoma City, Okl., club of the Western league, is planning to retire, after 20 years as player, manager and owner. Holland said he would quit this season if he could find a buyer for his club.

"There's nothing wrong with base ball," he explained, "but I'm tired of the game. I figure I need a rest. I am perfectly satisfied wth the treatment I received at Oklahoma City this season and with the showing of my club."

Pittsburgh and Cincinnati to Play Three Final Innings

New York, July 23.—President John A. Heydles of the National league announced today a revised finding of the protested Pittsburgh-Cincinnati game of July 6, whereby only the uncompleted three innings of the contest will be played. Under this ruling it will not be necessary to replay the ent
