

SUFFRAGE FOR WOMEN
DEFEATED IN GEORGIA.

Atlanta, Ga., July 24.—Ratification of the federal suffrage amendment failed so far as the present session of the Georgia legislature is concerned when the senate voted against ratification, 39 to 10, and the house took similar action by a vote of 132 to 24.

17-YEAR-OLD GIRL
CRACK RIFLE SHOT.

New York, July 24.—One of the best shots among the gentler sex who practice at the naval rifle range near Caldwell, N. J., is Miss Mary W. Morosini, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Morosini of Roseland avenue, Essex Falls.
Miss Morosini, who is 17 years old, surprised the naval officers by hitting the bull's eye three times out of her first visit to the range. Since then she has become very proficient, making a few days ago a remarkable score of 37 out of 45 at 200 yards, using a Springfield rifle. This was done in a standing position.

GERMANS OFFER WARES
MUCH BELOW FRENCH.

Paris, July 24.—Germans, through agents and by circulars, are offering cutlery, bicycles and other articles on the French market 75 per cent below French manufacturers' prices, according to a statement made during the debate in the chambers. Soldiers who have returned from the occupied regions of Germany, are calling on French merchants and trying to sell them German jewelry, drugs, thermometers, cutlery and bicycles.
It was stated that some officers as well as soldiers are awaiting court-martial for engaging in this trade.

PRIEST HAD PROXY
IN WAR WITH HUNS.

Tacoma, Wash., July 24.—Hugh McClure Drane, a discharged soldier, testified before a committee of the army under a contract with the late Rev. Father Francis Hylebos, who, too old to serve personally with the colors, wished to have a representative in the war against Germany. His testimony in support of a claim of $250 against the estate of the clergyman, a native of Belgium, was corroborated by one of the administrators, who in an affidavit said Rev. Father Hylebos told him of the agreement.

SAYS WIFE LOSES HIS MONEY PLAYING POKER.

New York, July 24.—"I'm starving to death, because my wife takes my pay every week and loses it in poker games," said Louis Zimmerman when he appeared in the Harlem police court.
The wife, Selma Zimmerman, had been summoned to court on a charge of disorderly conduct by the husband, who said she had slashed him with a knife. She denied the charge and the case was referred to the domestic relations court.

JAPANESE ADMIT
BRUTALITY TO KOREANS.

Tokyo, July 24.—The people of Korea and the officials recognize that the Korean disturbances were in no sense religious uprisings and that they were all incited by the missionaries, according to the report of the Rev. K. Ishizaka, of the Japanese Methodist church, who with two other delegates representing the federation of Japanese churches, recently made a study of the Korean situation.
"In our journey in Korea," said Mr. Ishizaka, "we heard of women being stripped of their clothing, of aged women being kicked by men with boots on and of barbarous cruelties everywhere. Many Koreans spoke to us, Japanese Christians, of their unendurable sufferings. We saw men who had been flogged whose wounds remained and were very serious."

EX-KAISER RESUMES
TREE-CHOPPING ANTICS.

Amerongen, July 24.—The ex-kaiser has recovered from his attack of cold and has resumed his tree-chopping. His attitude toward the question of his extradition seems to be indicated by the fact that he has ordered several new pairs of trousers with a local tailor, which he expects to wear. The ex-kaiser, who has recovered, is now in good health.

GIBBONS EXPECTS LEAGUE AGREEMENT.

Baltimore, July 24.—Cardinal Gibbons has authorized the following statement with regard to his attitude toward the league of nations:
"It is my firm conviction that after thorough and honest discussion in both houses of congress, both parties will finally arrive at a common agreement, based upon a just and sincere league of nations that will give us a reasonable guarantee against the horrors of war in the future as well as well-grounded assurance of lasting peace, without in any way impairing American sovereignty or surrendering any American right and without involving us in entangling alliances.
I am sure that an early adoption of the league of nations by the united States without distinction of party will be hailed with satisfaction by the allied powers of Europe."

YOUTHFUL HERO BACK
FROM WAR WITH HONORS.

Tacoma, Wash., July 24.—James O'Neill, back from France with four-fold service stripes and one wound stripe and only 18 years old, is at Camp Lewis for discharge from the army. His army papers show he enlisted with his father's consent when he was 16 years and 5 months of age.
At the time he was a copy boy in the art department on a Chicago morning newspaper. He joined the army in April, 1917, and was in the Eighteenth infantry, first division, after being gassed and put out of the fighting for three weeks at Cantigny, the first big battle of his division. He rejoined his unit and fought with it for the rest of the war, serving in all the big battles with the First.

New Piece Rate Offer Made to Men That It Is Hoped Will Be Acceptable.

London, July 24.—(By the Associated Press.)—Thursday was fully occupied with conferences between Premier Lloyd George and other members of the government and the mining interests and closed with the prospect of settlement. According to the strike leaders in Yorkshire, the whole trouble arose through an attempt by the coal controller to evade the piece rate provisions of the Sankey report, which the government had as a working basis.

YOUNG NEGRO PAYS
DEATH PENALTY FOR ATTACK ON WOMAN

Gilmore, Tex., July 24.—Gilmore was quiet Thursday night after a night and day of intense excitement brought about by the attack on a white woman, and the lynching on the court house square of Chilton Jennings, young negro, for the crime, after he was identified and had confessed.

800 NATIVES KILLED

Homer S. Cummings, chairman of the democratic national committee, accompanied by W. D. Jamieson of Iowa, director of finance for the committee, spent a busy day in Omaha yesterday. They were accompanied by Mrs. George Bass of Chicago and Mrs. Antoinette Funk of Washington, heads of the women's bureau and the educational bureau, respectively, of the national committee.

U. S. AND MEXICO
AGREE ON BORDER
PATROL PLANS

Conference Held Between American Army Officers and Carranza Representatives.

Douglas, Ariz., July 24.—A complete understanding has been reached upon details of a plan whereby officers of the United States army, Arizona and those of the Mexican federal army in Sonora will cooperate to prevent trouble along the Arizona-Sonora boundary. This was the outcome of a conference held in Agua Prieta Thursday afternoon between Brig. Gen. W. R. Smedberg, commanding the Arizona military district, and Gen. De la Brigada, P. Elias Calles, governor of Sonora and secretary of commerce and industry in the Carranza cabinet. The conference also was attended by Col. W. O. Johnson, commanding Camp Harry J. Jones, near here; Captain Wright of the military intelligence service and W. D. King, a Douglas attorney, who acted as interpreter for the conferences.

ON CONFIRMING
HIS NOMINATION

A. Mitchell Palmer Defends Administration of Alien Enemy Property Before Committee.

Washington, July 24.—A. Mitchell Palmer, before the senate judiciary subcommittee Thursday, renewed his fight for senate confirmation of his nomination as attorney general and again vigorously defended his administration as alien property custodian. He replied to charges of improper administration of alien enemy property, made by Harold Remington, a New York lawyer, and Leslie S. Kennard, an Indiana attorney, holding a position in the alien property custodian's office.

ANOTHER JUDGE SAYS
2.75 PER CENT BEER IS WITHOUT PALE OF LAW

New York, July 24.—Beer of 2.75 per cent alcoholic content is held to be intoxicating within the meaning of the war-time prohibition act in a decision returned by Federal Judge Thomas L. Chaffield of Brooklyn, in a test case brought by the government against Martin Schmauder of New Haven, Conn., who was charged with selling beer in violation of the wartime prohibition law.
