

PLATTE RIVER BRIDGE FUNDS GUARANTEED

Work Expected to Begin This Fall and Structure Finished Early Next Year.

Funds for the construction of the wagon bridge over the Platte river on the line of the West Center street road and near Yutan are assured.

Davis, E. E. Plocheck and R. H. Parks, Wahoo and a dozen others, mostly farmers of Saunders county, told the chamber committee that practically all of the $33,400 required of Saunders county had been pledged.

The one-half cost of the bridge, of $66,800 is to be paid by the state and out of the permanent road and bridge fund.

It is the opinion that work on the construction of the bridge will begin this fall and that the structure will be finished early next year, or by the time the center street paving is laid up to the east approach.

At the meeting yesterday, Saunders county citizens assured the Omahas that paving will be continued through Saunders county and that it is quite probable that some of the work will be done this year.

FLASHES from FILMLAND PHOTO-PLAY OFFERINGS FOR TODAY

THE way the public receives Western dramas such as are made by Bill Hart, Harry Carey, Tom Mix and Pete Morrison, convinces me, Mr. Laemmle says, "that there is room for another top notcher cowboy star, and we intend to find him!"

Here are some of the requirements: a good looking chap, typical of the young ranger, good physique, and an ability to act before a camera as a natural westerner.

Rialto—Vivian Martin in "Louisiana." In this story, there is a young mountaineer in whom jealousy provokes an insane desire to slay. Therefore, when he sees the girl he loves in the company of another man, his first impulse is to take a shot at him and this he does.

Strand—Ethel Clayton in "Men, Women and Money." The story is a girl from the middle west, who is disillusioned by the polished manners of society idlers, and the empty lives they lead.

Muse—"Go Get 'Em Garringers." is a real wild and woolly western picture, laid on Arizona-Mexican borderland, full of cowboys and desperadoes. There is a beautiful heroine who is persuaded into "mock marriage," which turns out to be a real one; a dashing cowboy hero who rescues the girl at the peril of his life.

Empress—Married, comedy romance, is the feature that is proving a delight for the customers at the Empress. It is one of the very best of clever stories.

REPUBLIC SET UP BY REVOLTING CROATIA TROOPS

Movement, Accompanied by Disorders, Part of Plan for Separation From Domination of Serbia.

Paris, July 25.—(Havas).—The Croatian troops have proclaimed an independent Croatian republic, according to a dispatch from Agram, the capital. At several points the Croats are fraternizing with Hungarian soldiers.

The revolt is taking the form of a movement for separation from Serbia and the formation of a republic. Troops are leaving their units, officers and subalterns are tearing off their insignia and the army is in a state of dissolution, the advices say.

The Serbians are trying to suppress the revolution by the use of troops, both Serbian and Croatian. The Agram advices do not record any disorder in that city, the Croatian capital. They state, however, that the independent Croatian republic, according to information reaching Agram, has been proclaimed by soldiers in several of the Croatian towns.
