GROCER LEAVES TOWN WITHOUT GOODBYE.

Kansas City, Mo., July 27.—Sergt. Harry Moulder and Patrolman J. C. Snavely were making the first tour of Snavely's beat early in the morning, when they found the rear door of the Sam Winchell grocery open. It was too early for Winchell, whom both knew slightly, to be around, so they entered.

A careful investigation of the store, and the living room where Winchell lived, showed no trace of burglars. The cash register in the front of the store was open, however. In it was six cents and a note addressed to T. H. Condon, a real estate man. The note read: "I hereby give you full authority to dispose of stock in the grocery to the best advantage to all concerned. Use this for your authority.

(Signed) "S. K. WINCHELL."

Mr. Condon, who rented the store room to Mr. Winchell, said he had known the latter about a year. The once before—about a year ago,— when his mother died, disappeared. He was gone then for two weeks.

Charles Plumer, 30 years old, is dying in Swedish Mission hospital as a result of a "friendly" bout with Robert D. Perkins, his cousin, in the home of Plumer's sister, Mrs. James K. Saunders, 2022-Ohio street.

Plumer fell through a china cabinet and severed his jugular vein. Plumer, who was discharged from the army only three weeks ago, was wrestling with Perkins about 1 clock this morning in the dining room of the Saunders home. Perkins fell backwards through a china cabinet and Plumer stumbled on after him. A piece of the glass door of the cabinet slashed Plumer's throat.

Perkins explained that the two men had just returned from downtown and had started to scuffle when the accident occurred. Police say both men had been drinking. Perkins was arrested.

Plumer was a member of the 341st Machine Gun battalion and was wounded at Chateau-Thierry and gassed in the Argonne forest, spending six months in the hospital.

shii Scouts Idea of U. S.-Japanese War

Tokio, July 27 .- (By the Associated Press.)-Newspaper reports of an address delivered to the Tokio Press league today by Viscount Kikujiro Ishii, ambassador to the United States, who recently returned to Japan, quote the ambassador as saying that some Japanese seemed to fear that war might break out between Japan and the United States over the Chinese question, but to him such a thing was inconceivable. All that war would do would be to entail great losses upon both countries. Viscount shii added.

The ambassador is further quotei as telling the newspaper organization that he believed the Americans desired to develop China in co-operation with Japan. In concluding his speech, the reports add, he urged the Japanese to stick to the last to their proposal for racial equality.
