

"JINX" STILL ON ROURKES TRAIL; LOSE TO SIOUX

Locals Take Short End of 6 to 5 Score in Fast Ten-Inning Battle; Play Again Today.

The "jinx" is still on the trail of the Rourke and Sioux City manager to shove the locals down another notch in the race for the Western league championship yesterday afternoon by taking a fast and exciting ten-inning contest by the score of 6 to 5.

Although the Indians out-hit the Rourke, Omaha had several chances to win, but failing to hit in pinches proved their downfall. Ten of the Rourke were left on bases.

Sioux City, as in former games, was the first to score, sending one man across the plate in the third round, and three more in the fourth, and another in the seventh.

Omaha came back with a pair of tallies in the fourth and one in the fifth, and on hits tied the score in the seventh, making it 4 up.

The fatal tenth proved the Rourke downfall, when the Indians landed hard of Pitcher Charley Kopp, Moran, the first man up in the tenth, sent a high fly to Mason, which the latter caught after a long run, but Goodwin, Defate and Melan, the next three men up, singled and Goodwin scored with the winning tally.

At this period of the game, Manager Jackson jerked Kopp and sent young Mr. Fuhr to the mound, and the Indians were unable to do anything with his delivery, but the game was lost.

Herstingsway at short, and Gislason at second carried off the fielding honors for the Rourke, the former accepting nine chances without a bobbie.

"TWO AND THREE" "PUTTING THE NEXT ONE OVER" WITH "BUGS" DAER

BROOKLYN bugs are getting ready to omit flowers. Ball player is always a hero. Home fans cheer his good plays and the road crowds cheer his boots.

Baker of the Phils seems to be a 100 per cent team wrecker with no discount for cash. Only two things have stood still in the last 10 years. The Cards and letter carriers' wages.

If Jimmy Wilde made 'em make his weight he'd be fighting skeletons. English offer Dempsey a lot of American money with a lot of English decision. Only doubtful feature of allied claim that 47 Germans started the fight is that the fight lasted more than five minutes.

Rourke don't mind losing a double-header any more than Caesar minded a couple more stabs after he had collected the first few dozen. Understand that it is a mark of disrespect to the departed to wear yellow shoes in the Wiches' bleachers. Willard wasn't in any kind of shape for that fight and all kinds of shapes after it.

Racing motorcycle costs 1,800 buttons, indicating that noise has joined the high cost of living. Soda fountains are putting in pretzels and sport tickers, but they can't fool a guy enough to make him stagger. Yanks are two different teams on the road and at home, but only one in the percentage column.

Base ball was originally called one-old-cat. Down Boston way the mice seem to have gotten into it. Only thing wrong they find with that extra hour of daylight out in St. Looney is that it encourages double-headers. Golf clubs would pick up a little velvet by digging the holes an inch deeper and calling 'em oil wells.

First game of base ball ever played was tossed off in New England. Washington bugs are still waiting for the second. 100 to 7
