

DECLARATION ON SHANTUNG IS EXPECTED SOON

May Come From Tokio, But If Not, Then Will Likely Emanate From White House.

Washington, July 31.—Developments shaped up for a sharper definition of the senate issues raised by the league of nations and the Shantung agreement, while another and hitherto obscure section of the Versailles treaty relating to alien enemy property was brought under fire in the foreign relations committee.

To the league controversy, seven republican senators, all friendly to the treaty, added a new feature by agreeing to a definite group of reservations whose wording they hope will furnish a middle ground, attracting enough members of both parties to insure the league's acceptance by the senate.

Regarding Shantung it became known that in the near future a declaration throwing light on Japan's intentions is definitely counted on by administration senators. It may come, it is said, from Tokio, but failing that, from the White House.

The alien property section, brought into question for the first time, was declared by republican senators at a public committee hearing to "validate" in every respect the acts of A. Mitchell Palmer as alien enemy property custodian, closing the door of legal appeal to American citizens who were minority stockholders in German concerns taken over by the government.

They cited a blanket clause in the treaty providing that "no question shall be raised as to the regularity of a transfer of any property" under war legislation.

During the day there was more speech-making on the treaty in the senate and President Wilson submitted for ratification along with the treaty the protocol agreed to at Versailles, containing additional requirements upon Germany. The president also was told by two more republicans at the White House that reservations would be necessary if the league is to be ratified.

Reservation Program. Of the day's agreements, the agreement of the seven senators is perhaps the widest attention at the capitol. For several weeks senators of that party, who desire

Policeman Is Accused of Working with Bootleggers and Robbing Omaha Woman

Sensational Charge Made in South Side Police Court Against Motorcycle Officer Cain—Also Accused of Being Bosom Companion of Roy Kelly While Police Pretend to Search for Him.

Motorcycle Policeman Clifton Cain was accused in South Side police court yesterday of conspiring with bootleggers and robbing a woman on the North Side of 20 cases of whisky.

Officer Cain also was declared to have been the bosom companion of Roy Kelly during the last several weeks, while other members of the police force pretended to be combing the city for the fugitive, who gave a written statement to the effect that Detective Herdina and Armstrong framed with him the raid on the Brown apartments June 5.

The accusation against Cain was brought by Tom Kelly, Roy's brother, while facing a charge of vagrancy, which he said was the result of spite on the part of Officer Cain, who filed the charge.

Kelly is dismissed after he told Judge Foster that Cain, Roy Kelly and himself had robbed the woman of the whisky.

Cain had been riding after me since we robbed the house several weeks ago, Kelly said. "He claimed I owed him $450."

Judge Foster made no attempt to get Kelly to tell the complete story. When arrested Kelly had $350 in his pocket. He showed he owned four touring cars and two automobile trucks, from which he declared he realized from $18 to $25 a day.

"It is spite work," Kelly after he told a reporter for The Bee. "I do not care to give the name of the woman who was robbed," continued Kelly. "If it is necessary, however, she will appear against Cain and tell the true story, in the event the matter is investigated."

"I do not mean that the trouble is entirely over," the governor added, "but it appears that the situation is controlled at the present."

No outbreaks occurred during the tour and while negroes were on the streets in large numbers in their district the neighborhoods were quiet.

Governor Lowden found the situation such that he spoke of "adjustment" and said "the problem of Illinois is along the lines of education and adjustment" which he said must be met with the full co-operation of all peoples.

A few white merchants returned to their stores in the black belt Thursday night and a few whites even penetrated to State street and were un molested.

A few bread, milk and other trucks were seen and it was believed the food situation would be much improved in the black district.

WILSON SHOCKED INTO ACTION ON COST OF LIVING

Head of Trainmen Brotherhood Presages Riots and Strikes If Prices Do Not Tumble.

Officials who attended the conference declined to discuss what took place. Mr. Palmer stated that the conference was called chiefly for the purpose of making a survey of the situation, developing any information on which the head of the national law enforcement machinery might act to curb profiteering.

"Upheaval" Near in U. S. Mr. Lee made public an abstract of the report of hearings recently held by the board of railroad wages, on the trainmen's demands, at which he declared an "upheaval" was nearer in this country today than ever before, due to the unrest arising from mounting living costs.

The railroad and government departments had better be assisting "to crush profiteering" by the "packers and other industries," he said, "shouting across the table at each other, at hearings to consider still further increases."

"All of us are to blame," he said, "because we are exerting every effort to get more money for ourselves and better conditions. Every day we must realize that the profiteers are taking double from the working men that is given them; and the double with the people on the hill (corporation and with everybody, is that we are exerting ourselves to get the dollar, while the working man is merely existing and while the profiteer is piling up millions."

Everyone Going Wrong Way. "I will admit to you gentlemen, that we are going the wrong way. I admit to you that it is time to call a halt; and I admit to you that until we get together, until we commence together to stop this, there will be hell in this country—and it is nearer today than I ever knew it in my years of experience. Just everybody drop a match in this country of ours and it will be a sorry day for all of us."

"Unless my vision is most terribly obscured, then there is something coming to us pretty soon in this country that we had better take notice of. We had something of peace in this country prior to the war conditions. We were getting along fairly well until profiteering became so noticeable everywhere and until the commodities that working people are compelled to pay for were permitted to be increased, doubled and tripled, without any question and often seemingly with the approval of the government."

"We are in a war in this world today, I believe, than when the Kaiser threw out the gauntlet. Our lawmakers are to blame, in my opinion, because the masses of the people would be behind them if they would attempt to correct it and surely there is power to correct it; but instead they are playing politics, and some of these labor organizations are playing politics, and it is the same all down the line."

Against Class Advantages. Answering questions, Mr. Lee said he did not believe in giving any one class advantages at the expense of another, but said as long as present methods continue he believed in everybody getting his share, as nearly as he could. "Until the final upheaval comes, and, in my opinion, is looking us in the face," he declared to suggest low prices could be reduced, saying the country was paying millions of dollars to the men on the hill (capitol), "who are supposed to have all the brains in the country," and they are not acting to stop the increases.

"I am not a red card man, but I am coming close to it, if this thing keeps on," Mr. Lee said. Asked what would be his opinion as to wage rates based on present food prices, if the price level should decline materially, Mr. Lee said he did not feel justified in going into the question, but asked to be allowed to tell of his experiences in the recent strike at Winnipeg, where he said he found conservative, home-owning members of his organization throwing away all they had gained in 25 years of membership and joining the general strike, because, they said, "to hell with all this; we cannot stand it any more. Come with us and we will correct it."

Couldn't Make Future Contracts. Mr. Lee said they could not make contracts for the future, not knowing what tomorrow would bring forth. He declared he could not justify the fact that wheat was $2.26 in this country and flour perhaps $14 a barrel, when flour made from the same grade of grain sells in England for $5.11.

"I want, if possible, to see some plan devised here that will permit somebody to say the beef, pork and commodities of that kind cannot go above a certain per cent," Mr. Lee said.

Mr. Lee also expressed emphatic disapproval of "cost plus" war contracts, by which, he said, owners of inferior factories had obtained fine plants and big profits at the expense of taxpayers. It was such things, he declared, which caused the railroad employee, faced by growing expenses, to be willing to follow a "red flag" or anything that comes along."

LAY ANARCHISM IN U. S. TO HIGH COST OF LIVING

Problem Discussed in Senate Following Resolution Favoring Reducing Money in Circulation.

Washington, July 31.—The high cost of living was debated in the senate today during consideration of a resolution proposing reduction of the amount of currency in circulation.

Senator Myers, democrat, Montana, said the amount of money in circulation was partly responsible for present conditions, adding that "high living costs were 'productive of bolshevism and anarchism.'"

Referring to the requests of railroad employes for increased wages, Senator Myers said increases in wages invariably were followed by advances in living costs, thus creating "an endless chain."

"It is impossible to see where this chain is going to end," he added. Senator Poindexter, republican, Washington, said the president had been given $100,000,000 to feed distressed European peoples, and added:

"But it would be impossible to get an appropriation of $1,000,000 for food for Americans."

One of the reasons urged for the appropriation to supply food to Europe, Senator Poindexter said, was maintenance of meat and food prices.

While the senate debate was in progress, Representative Igoe, democrat, Missouri, appealed informally to members of two house committees to recommend adoption of his resolutions for an inquiry into the cost of living but no formal decision was reached.

One resolution proposes that the house ways and means committee conduct hearings during the recess to determine whether prices have been increased so as to offset federal taxation, and the other directs the federal trade commission to determine the cause and necessity of increased prices for shoes, sugar, coffee and clothing.

Would Make Up Difference. Representative Fitzgerald, democrat, of Massachusetts, introduced a resolution today declaring it the sense of the house that the United States sell this year's crop at market prices, making up the difference out of the billion-dollar wheat guarantee surplus fund. The resolution said any market reduction would mean cheaper flour, and a drop in other commodities, "thus making possible the beginning of a movement to reduce the cost of living."

A resolution requiring the attorney general to take immediate steps to stop speculation and gambling on the stock exchanges of the country in food products and other necessities of life was introduced today by Representative Fitzgerald, democrat, Massachusetts.

German Envoys Responsible For Stoning by the French. Paris, July 31.—The judge advocate attached to the second permanent court martial, who investigated incidents connected with the departure of the Germans from Versailles, finds that there is no case.

It has been established that the Germans aroused the protests of the crowd by sticking out their tongues at the spectators and shouting "Hoops," and the charges that stones were thrown, rest upon the unsupported testimony of Dr. Theodor Melchior, one of the German financial delegates to the peace conference, and Frau Greta Dorblush, one of the secretaries to the delegation.

HEAVY DOWNPOUR OF RAIN RESULTS IN 9 DROWNINGS

Aged Physician Among Those Who Lose Lives in Wyoming Storm.

Lander, Wyo., July 31.—A cloudburst at Dubois, on Horse creek, Fremont county, Wednesday night drowned four persons. The bodies of Dr. Welty, 70 years old, and Don Long, 13, were recovered. John Shaffer, a piano tuner, and an unknown farm hand, were the other victims.

A cloudburst on Squaw creek, near here, drowned two small children. A report that three Indians living near Dubois were drowned brought the list of casualties near Dubois and Lander to nine.

The storm struck Dubois between 11 and 12 o'clock last night. Dr. F. A. Welty, a pioneer physician, occupied a cottage on the bank of Horse creek. His home was swept away while the physician slept and Welty was drowned.

The business section of Dubois was inundated by flood waters and several buildings were moved from their foundations. A few houses were washed away. Horse creek, which normally is very small, was converted into a torrent by the heavy precipitation.

Heavy rains were general all over Wyoming.

Denikene Gains Important Victory Over Bolsheviki

London, July 31.—(By the Associated Press.)—General Denikene, the Russian commander, has gained an important victory over the bolsheviks and captured the town of Kamishin on the Volga. Five thousand bolsheviks, nine guns and large quantities of material were also taken.

In making this announcement the war office says that possession of Kamishin gives General Denikene a firmer hold on the river and his main objective in the advance on Saratov, threatening the bolshevik communications with Astrakhan.

Kamishin was entered by the anti-bolshevik troops July 30, and the fleeing enemy was pursued 12 miles beyond the town.

N. H. DUDLEY WAS UNABLE TO WORK FOR 18 MONTHS

Muscles Felt Like They Were Tied In a Knot, He Says—Tanlac Ends Trouble.

"At the time I began taking Tanlac I had not been able to hit a lick of work in eighteen months," said H. H. Dudley, a well known employe of the Badger Lumber Company, living at 318 Newton street, Kansas City, Missouri recently.

"I was so afflicted with rheumatism," he continued, "that I had to have help to get my clothes on and off. My muscles seemed to contract, or draw up, until they felt like they were tied in knots and the pain was almost unbearable. When I tried to walk around or do a little light work, the small of my back and hips ached so bad I would simply have to lie down, and some nights I couldn't stay in bed, the pain was so severe. Along with the rheumatism I also suffered from stomach trouble and nervousness and had no appetite. I was in a miserable condition and, as nothing ever helped me, I had lost nearly all hope of getting any better."

"Finally I saw a testimonial from someone telling how they had gotten rid of rheumatism by taking Tanlac, so I began taking the medicine myself and before my first bottle was gone I noticed a considerable improvement. My appetite was better, my nerves more quiet and my rheumatic pains began to ease up. Well, in a few weeks the medicine had me in shape to where I could work and I have not lost a day now in six months. The rheumatism has left my back and hips entirely and my nerves are also in good shape. My appetite is good all the time and I sleep fine every night. In fact, I am in better shape than I have been in five years and Tanlac is what has made the difference."

Tanlac is sold in Omaha at all Sherman & McConnell Drug Company's stores, Harvard Pharmacy and West End Pharmacy. Also Forrest and Meany Drug Company in South Omaha and the leading druggist in each city and town throughout the state of Nebraska.—Adv.
