

WOMAN'S SECTION OF THE BEE

The smallest human heart may hold a vast solitude.

Audacity wins by divine right of conquest.

Society

IRPLANE flights are becoming quite a daily occurrence among progressive Omahans. Each day we hear of some adventurous matron or maid who has tasted of the delights of air travel.

Rystrom-Rathkey. The marriage of Miss Ethel Rathkey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Rathkey, and Mr. Raymond Rystrom, son of Mr. and Mrs. August Rystrom of Stromsburg, Neb., took place Wednesday, July 30, at the home of the bride's parents.

LEMON JUICE TAKES OFF TAN

Girls! Make bleaching lotion if skin is sunburned, tanned or freckled

Squeeze the juice of two lemons into a bottle containing three ounces of Orchard White, shake well, and you have a quart of the best freckle, sunburn and tan lotion and complexion beautifier, at very, very small cost.

'Wonderful Results from your Hair Color' -says Mrs. Burns

"I don't know what the price is," writes Mrs. Burns, "but I have got such wonderful results from Mrs. Graham's Hair Color Restorer that I must have three bottles—for myself and two friends—at once."

Thousands of other women have obtained equally wonderful results from this preparation. It is a colorless liquid that restores gray and faded hair to its natural color.

Friend of Women

E. B. Williams is a friend of women because he lightens their labor. He does it through long experience with household appliances—knows what to recommend and how to make it give long, satisfactory service.

Heart Beats

By A. K.

His days were long And hard and weary And his back was bowed With the burdens of Life.

Food was high— Clothing higher— His children growing And scantily clad. As he toiled away From dawn till sunset In druggery's mean Monotonous path— Bitter resentment Consumed him wholly And he swore at God The Infinite.

For conditions he cursed The knives higher up And scorned the fools Lower down— The rich man's lot He could not feel— His own he could not see. He accused the Creator Of muddling the world And dividing blessings Unfairly.

Discouraged and tired He trudged toward home After his day's work Was done— Spirit nagging— Courage sagging— Ready to quit the fight. But out from the window Peeks a baby face Laughing.

And dimpled and bright That turned darkest clouds Of the workaday world To joy And golden light. He forgot all his sorrows And his grudge against God As he tucked her in snugly That night.

He dreamt a white angel Came down from the Heavens With a gift From the God of Creation From the folds of her robe Peeked his own Precious child— then He opened his eyes And smiled.

Thus Life is balanced And written On the tablets of Eternity By God.

Window Drapes. Dear Miss Fairfax, Omaha Bee: Will you please answer in The Omaha Bee as to what is the latest style in draping window curtains without the colored side drape? Is the valance still used? Thanking you for the information, POLLY ANNE.

I suggest that you write to "Polly the Shopper," care The Bee, for this information. She is the first and last word in styles, both for clothes and furnishings.

Too Young to Decide.

Dear Miss Fairfax, Omaha Bee: I am 15 years old and in the 10th grade. After finishing high school and a course at university I hope to gain a position as an employe for the government. As I know but very few of these, Miss Fairfax, I would be deeply grateful toward you if you would name me several and the subjects. I should study in preparation for same. Please exclude such as political office, as I know of them.

Thanking you in advance, I am sincerely yours, MISS AMBITION.

It seems to me that you are a little young to decide your future. Government positions may or may not be attractive when you have completed the education planned. However, mathematics is quite important in passing the civil service examinations. I cannot tell you what you wish to study because I do not know you, but when you have decided this question for yourself, then write to me and I shall be happy to help you onto the road to success.

Wants Little Girl.

Dear Miss Fairfax, Omaha Bee: I read your column daily and think it just fine, and now I have come for some advice. I would like to ask if you could find some nice little girl, about 10 or 12 years old, to come and stay with me for her room and board and clothing. I have a little 7-months-old baby and my husband works nights in the mail service, and as there is so much of everything going on, I want her more for company, for it's so lonesome alone nights. I am not rich, but can give her a nice little home and the best of treatment, all the while she is with me.

I also have a sister in the same way, her husband works with mine; she also has a baby boy, 11 days older than mine. She would like some girl like that, too. It would be all right if her age reaches 14 years.

Hoping you can help us both in finding a girl to stay with us. You will find us both together most of the time. Thanking you, we are, MRS. WILLIAM D. HACKETT, 1512 6th Ave., Council Bluffs, Ia. MRS. M. W. MORPHIS, 1512 6th Ave., Council Bluffs, Ia. Little girls must go to school. Had you thought of sending her? The summer is waning and she would be of little help unless you wish to keep her through the winter.

L. G.—You should consult a physician about your health. He is in much better position to advise you than I am. However, it is not giving the children who may come a square deal, if your health is very poor. To bring little ones into the world with every chance of their having an invalid mother, or perhaps no mother at all in a few years, is a crime.

In New Guinea it is always Leap Year, for in that country the men consider it beneath their dignity to notice women, much less to make overtures of marriage. Consequently the proposing is left to the women to do.

Omar

And believe me, there's a lot to talk about. Some say that most women can talk long about most anything. Well, if this is true, the women folks in the homes where Omar flour is used, will just have to stay up nights to finish the job.

Once you and your family and your friends—have tasted Omar flour bread—no other can satisfy, because no other can have the creamy whiteness—the wholesomeness—the even texture—the satisfying taste—the lasting freshness—of bread made with Omar flour.

This is "some claim," for flour, but we are so sure of it that here is our guarantee with every sack.

"If Omar doesn't bake the best bread you ever baked, simply take the empty sack to your grocer, and get your money."

The Choice Prizes of Life Are Won By the Healthy and Strong

The weak, soft, flabby-muscled—those who are deficient in vigor and vital force—have ever had to suffer the humiliation of being ruthlessly aside by their stronger rivals. A clear, ruddy complexion; bright eyes; hardened muscles; and a well knit—tough body of elastic step and eye, constitute a trump card in any game of love or business.
